THE CHARM OF YOU

BY NATALIE F. SCURLOCK For the NPA News Service. Fastidious grooming at all times should be an essential part of every woman's daily program - whether she is a housewife or has a career outside the home. A fresh, clean appearance at breakfast will send your husband off in a better mood for the day. You may prefer to prepare breakfast for the family and get them all off before attending to yourself. If you do, have a smart washable cotton housecoat to wear over your pajamas or night gown. Leather slippers to match in color are pretty and can do double duty with your flannel robe. Do not drag around the kitchen in your lovely negligees and mules. Not only will they get soiled but are completely out of place and belong only in your bedroom. The housewife should be clean and fresh and pretty when her family comes home. Men dislike women to be messy and unkempt and crying about how much work they did during the day. Even children notice their mother's appearance more than may be realized.
