

RALEIGH MASONS

END CELEBRATION — Above are members of Widow Son Lodge No. 4 who ended their St. John's Day celebration with a barbecue dinner at Chavis Park Sunday at 5:00 p. m. The Sunday program was held at the Martin Street Baptist Church with T. A. Hamme, Superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage, as the principal speaker, where an offering of $89 was taken for the Orphanage. Reading left to right, front row are Alonzo Phillips, No. 4 Incoming Master and Charles Winters, No. 5, Past Master.

RALEIGH EASTERN STAR

EASTERN STARS — The Raleigh Chapter of the Eastern Stars which met with Widow Son Lodge No. 4 in their final celebration of St. John's Day at Chavis Park Sunday are shown above. They were snapped previous to a repast of barbecue served by Widow Son Lodge. Reading left to right, first row:

HEAR SISTER GARY

RALEIGH — In Memorial Auditorium Sunday, June 22, Mable B. Gary told an audience of 500 that the world is a baseball diamond. She had with her a group of singers and Rev. Mess. Forrester Elam, Jr., Pastor of Grace A.M.E. Church and a student of St. Augustines College, to give her all the backing that was necessary in delivering her sermon. For a subject titled "Three Strikes And Out." This was the Fifth Religious Service sponsored by the Grace A.M.E. Church of Raleigh. The service was broadcast to Raleigh and its environs over station WRAL.

Sister Mable B. Gary is shown delivering a sermon in Memorial Auditorium Sunday June 22nd. Sister Gary spoke on the subject, "Three Strikes And Out." She was heard by 500 people. —Photo by Roosevelt Studio

STARKS HOLDS 11th GRADUATION

RALEIGH — The Starks Beauty College extends to the people of Raleigh an invitation to their Commencement Exercises Sunday, June 29, 1947, 4:00 P. M. at the Manley Street Christian Church. This Commencement marks the eleventh graduation of the College. It presents as speaker, Mrs. Mae Garris, R. C. President of the Central School of Beauty Culture, New York City, N. Y. Miss Helen Starks, President and Founder of the Starks Beauty College, announces that there are thirty-four graduates this year. Music will be under the direction of Miss Emily Mac Morgan.

RECREATION EVENTS

RALEIGH — More than 2,000 children presented themselves at the recreation centers of Raleigh during the first week of opening with an expected 12,000 by the end of the month, according to A. B. Weatherford, Supervisor of the program here this week. For the first time during the present administration of recreation, baseball is being promoted and supported by the City Recreation Department. Managers of the various teams are Riley, Elum, Pullen and Weatherford. 1. The summer recreation programs of activities have begun to take form, the various directors have received equipment and different areas have been established. Last week, ping pong, horseshoes, basketball, boxing, paddle tennis, arts, crafts, volley, baseball, softball, creative dancing, folk dancing, institute, and clinic were held at the different centers. 2. The first week of opening, more than 2,000 children presented themselves at the playground. By the end of the month, this number is expected to reach to more than 12,000. 3. The Washington Playground under the direction of Mr. Howard Pullen with his able assistant, conducted a youth-parent night. At the activity-program 325 parents and children took an active part. 4. Oberlin Playground will hold

WAR MOTHERS ELECT OFFICIALS

RALEIGH — A social hour and election of officers for the coming year were held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Dwyer, first vice president of the United War Mothers of the City, 1000 North Carolina Street, Sunday, June 23. Mrs. Dwyer presided. Mrs. L. L. Dwyer, second vice president, Mrs. E. E. Dwyer, third vice president, Mrs. D. D. Dwyer, fourth vice president, Mrs. M. M. Dwyer, recording secretary, Mrs. N. N. Dwyer, corresponding secretary, Mrs. O. O. Dwyer, assistant secretary, Mrs. P. P. Dwyer, assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Q. Q. Dwyer, assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. R. Dwyer, assistant assistant secretary, Mrs. S. S. Dwyer, assistant assistant recording secretary, Mrs. T. T. Dwyer, assistant assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. U. U. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant secretary, Mrs. V. V. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant recording secretary, Mrs. W. W. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. X. X. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant assistant secretary, Mrs. Y. Y. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Z. Z. Dwyer, assistant assistant assistant assistant corresponding secretary.

Among twelve officer members of the Percy Jones General Hospital staff, Battle Creek, Michigan, who recently received promotions was Lieutenant Helen E. Richardson, Army Nurse Corps, of Wadesboro, N. C. A graduate nurse of Saint Phillips Hospital, Richmond, Va., Lieutenant Richardson entered active duty with the Army Nurse Corps in April, 1945. In addition to her present assignment she has served at the Station Hospital, Fort Meade, Maryland. —(U. S. Army photo from Public Information Division).

Support Your Home Town Paper

4-H BOYS TAKE DISTRICT HONORS

Raleigh — A Silver Loving Cup, Champion 4-H Club Banner, 4-H Club Flag, United States Flag and twelve 4-H Club Song Books were won by Negro 4-H Club Judging and demonstration teams in a Southeastern District 4-H Contest, Thursday, June 19, held at the Pender County Training School, Back Point, North Carolina. First places in judging dairy cows and sweet potatoes were won by Wallace Hodge, Johnnie Young and Willie Perry of the Riley Hill 4-H Club. Third place in team demonstration (boys) was won by Waddell Johnson and Thomas Mitonell of the Wendell 4-H Club. Fourth place in team demonstration (girls) was won by Minnie McDowell and Elouise Baldwin of the Apex 4-H Club. Taking part in the dress routine were Irene Thorpe and Verna J. Lowe also of the Apex Club. Contest alternates were Joyce Burton of the Fletchers Grove 4-H Club, Bettie Peebles of the Jeffers Grove 4-H Club and Grover Horton of the Riley Hill 4-H Club. The Wake County team scored a total of 320 points which represented the highest county score in the Southeastern District. Wake County will compete in the State Finals which will be held at A. and T. College, Greensboro, during the third week in July. The 4-H activities were under the direction of W. C. Davenport, Negro County Agent, Edna E. Evans, Assistant Negro County Agent, Mrs. Alice B. Alston, Assistant Negro Home Agent, Mrs. Bertha Edwards, Negro Home Agent, and E. B. T. Carraway, Student, from Hamilton Institute, who is doing his field work in Wake County.

Distinguished Visitors

RALEIGH — Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bates, formerly of Raleigh, are now visiting with the parents of Mr. Bates on East Lenox Street. Attorney Bates received his A. B. degree at Shaw University, and since that time has received his L. L. B. from Fordham University, and more recently being awarded his masters degree in the law of the State of New York. Mr. Bates is a former employee of the CAROLINIAN.

Advertisement for Blockbusters shoes. Features a woman in a dress and a pair of shoes. Text includes 'Blockbusters', 'Mail Orders Attention', 'Add 7% Sales Tax', 'Black Suede, White Leather, Red Leather', and '2.99'.

Advertisement for Adler's Slipper Shop. Text includes 'Adler's', 'SLIPPER SHOP', 'Raleigh', and 'Support Your Paper'.

Advertisement for Stephenson Appliance Co. Features a water heater and text: 'Your Home needs Hot Water 150 times a day!', 'With an automatic electric hot water heater, it's ready the second you want it—any hour, day or night, year after year.', 'No waiting. No watching. No ashes, dust or dirt. No trips up and down the cellar stairs. Let us show you how you can install the Merland and forget it. Inexpensive to install, inexpensive to operate.', 'Ready For Immediate Installation', '20 GAL. DOUBLE UNIT HEATER Meets C.P. & L. Inst. Specifications. $99.50', 'Stephenson Appliance Co. SALES FRIGIDAIRE SERVICE Phone 3-4686'.

Advertisement for Carolina Power & Light Company. Features a photograph of a man and a child. Text includes 'Poor Lighting spoils film...', 'Treat your eyes as well as you would a camera!', 'Your eyes see in much the same way that a camera sees, but there's one big difference: When the lighting is wrong, the camera quits!', 'Not so with your eyes. They try their best, no matter how much you abuse them—and that might not be so good for you!', 'Still—it's no trouble at all to avoid strain and brighten the life of all your loved ones!', 'You can see in all the same way that a camera sees, but there's one big difference: When the lighting is wrong, the camera quits!', 'REMEMBER: Light is life—light is PRICELESS!', 'CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'.

Political Action To Be Debated At NAACP Meet

WASHINGTON, D. C. — With the 1948 election just ahead, the question of what political action should be taken by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was uppermost in the minds of delegates gathered here June 24 for the 38th annual conference of the Association. A sharp debate last year in the NAACP's annual meeting, during which the outgoing secretary, Mrs. Anne Ramsey, chairman of the social action committee, Mrs. B. Wortham, and a number of other members, including Mrs. Sallis Whitaker, co-chairman, Mrs. Nora Roberts, treasurer, Mrs. Effie Whitaker, historian, Mrs. Dea Allen, custodian, Mrs. Fannie Whitley, first color bearer, Mrs. Ella Crossing, second color bearer, and Mrs. P. D. Freeman, secretary, all of whom are active in the NAACP, debated the question of political action. The question was referred to a committee which will report to the conference which opens June 24 and closes June 29.

DEATHS

RALEIGH — Mr. Andrew L. Dixon, who resides at 23 Smith Street, died in the Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville, early last Wednesday morning. He is survived by both parents, wife, three children, two brothers and three sisters and Mrs. P. D. Freeman, secretary, a half of whose relatives, Funeral services were conducted from the Chavis Baptist Church with Sister Gary officiating. Interment was in the National cemetery, Raleigh.

Advertisement for North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co. Features a house icon and text: 'Could this have been avoided?', 'Yes! Over a half million policyholders of North Carolina Mutual have normally pooled their resources to build a company with millions at its disposal to guard against such financial instability. Preventing such catastrophes is but one of the many services available in this 85 year old company.', 'Most of the policyholders who saw this friendly business considered the advantages, in addition to sound insurance practices, as convincing reasons for their preference.', 'NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA'.