DR. SHEPARD, N. C. COLLEGE FOUNDER, DIES

DR. JAMES E. SHEPARD

DISMISSED P.O. EMPLOYEE MAY BE REINSTATED

day, September 26th. A copy of the letter received by Congress. in his beloved North Carolina. Service Commission will be rerested to authorize his (Bryant's) in the Cleveland Post Office last by quoted in the nation's press. October 15 and upon charges by

In April — 1947 a Federal Court jury acquitted Bryant o

President Durham School Prominent In National, State Affairs 50 Years

BY CHARLES A. RAY

DURHAM (Special) - Dr. Jame-Edward Shepard, 72 year old presi at and founder of the North Caring College at Durham, and an ntluential personality in state and ctional affairs for over 50 years, died here at 6:15 Monday night at s h m. 1902 Fayetteville Street. The distinguished educator was ricken in his campus office on eptember 17 and confined to his ed thereafter. He seemed to rally consionally, but late last week aiiciding physicians gave up hope. Death was attributed to a cerebra.

The death of the Raleigh-conucator, who was educated in the North Carolina Schools and was a Service Carolina Schools and was a graduate of the Shaw University Medical College, followed within Medical College, followed within o months the death of his wife and within 6 months of the death of his mother, His wife, Mrs. Annie Day riet Shepard, died in this city last

HALF CENTURY CAREER very near eems probable as the state, as comparer of deeds in spent the greater part of his life He was one of this state's greatcon arrived in Cleveland in which addressed nation-wide radio aud-Mr. Donaldson states "The Civil lences and expounded his praises of

His annual state-wide radio messages were received with enthus the islands when it convenes. Bryant was removed from his lasm by whites and Negroes alike position as window clerk in the He was North Carolina's oldesi exclusive Shaker Square Station statesman and his words were wide-

In addition to his great work in post office inspectors of over | catallishing the North Carolina Colcharging 72 cents on postage was lege at Durham, the first state-supdismissed from the postal service ported liberal arts college for Negroes in the United States, Dr. Shepard exerted considerable influence in national and Southern Wilberforce U. Gets the charges after 20 minutes de-liberation, but the Post Office De domestic affairs. The saga of his partment refused to give him founding the Durham college along $15.000 From AME's

(Continued on back page) Dr. GeorgeW. Moore Dies; Pioneer In Mission Work

fercing his retirement from active urer of the Alumni Association of service, Dr. Moore was one of the Shaw University.

the church from noon until the He is survived by his widow, the food cooperative.

County near Clinton, where he re- nieces and nephews. ceived his early school training. he later attended Shaw University and Props Salary Suit which he taught for seven or eight

N. C. Leads South In

Extension Workers

Washington - Of the 924

RALEIGH - Dr. George W. Society and during that time he Moore, well known as the dean of organized the Wake County Sunday ministers in the state, died at his School Convention. He served as a home, 748 Fayetteville Street, Mon-member or the executive board of day night at about 11:30 after a the Lott Carey Convention, treus long illnesss. The deceased had urer of the State Baptist Convenbeen in ill health for several years, i'en of North Carolina and treas-founders of the Loit Carey Foreign | For more than 50 years he served Missionary Convention of America, as pastor of Baptist churches in Funeral services will be enduce. North Carolina including those in ed at the First Baptist Church, of Wilmington, Fayetteville, Reidswhich Rev O. S. Bullock is pastor, ville, and Aberdeen. He served as Thursday at 3:30 p. m. Dr. P. A. incderator of the Kenansville East-Bishop of Rich Square, president of ein Baptist Association and the funeral hour. Burial will be in former Miss Bessie Walker of Blad- It will not put the church in Voice in quivering oratory

Blind Of Wake County

Entertained By Lions

Norfelk, Va. (NNPA) - B years. He also received from Shaw becement of counsel, the 5-year- a week." Powell shouted. "and For a number of years, he was State Sunday School Missionary for North Carolina under the auspices United States District Court here sin this."

Of colored teachers with those of masium. Congressinal tower with those of masium. of the American Baptist Publication | 18st Friday

BULLETIN

DURHAM - Two funeral services, one a special student chapel held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and the other a public service with Dr. Miles Mark Fisher, pastor of White Rock Baptist Church, officiating held in the B, N. Duke Auditorium on the campus of the North Carolina College at Durham at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, constitute last rites for Dr. James E. Snepara, who died here Monday night. Interment followed in Durham's Beechwood Cemetery.

Shepard, died in Durham last Feb-ruary 2, and his mother, Mrs. Har-riet Shepard, died in this city last victory in the campaign for the half a century. He was born in Ra- ed States until congress converes in January. As a consequence he is in s shortly to be held by the bureau of the budget on appropria- SAVANNAH, Ga. of the islands during the next is gia highway prison carep we a ed on all the people is the islands coss of law in a federal court is

The mid-year conference of due process of law or deprived of the New York, New England, and New Jersey conferences of the First Episcopal District of and Paune Thelogical seminary.

INDICTS FIVE

FEDERAL GOV'T.

tions requested for the government and four white guards of the Goodtion from the 10 million dollar were accused of deoriving the men authorized for public works here. of their constitutional right "to be custody of the Sale of Georgia t be immune from illegal affects at the hands of officers and employees of the State of Georgia while in their custody and not be > life without due precess of law. FIRED WANTONLY

The indictment said the men fire the AME Church, Bishop R. R. shotguns wantonly unnecessarily Wright, presiding, met here and and without just cause at the eigh raised approximately $20,000, men who were killed and two of An appropriation of $15,000 was ers who were wounded for the pu made to Wilberforce University pose of imposing illegal summa show the people and the profit sers what can be done when food antic pat d that, however by of Rights were non-existent and sold at cost.

Congressman Powell To Begin Co-Op Store In N. Y.

and sold at cost.

Can't Live On $40 "You can't live today on $45

Clayton Powell, Jr., Harlem's since his second heart attack was playery days as the Underground ld more than 2,000 members of definitely not his usual rin-roar- callroad. That railroad carried is congregation recertly that the in self as he unfolded the plat many slaves to freedom and on the State Baptist Convention of Deep River Association, He was officers of Abyssinian Paptist for a cooperative, He spoke slowly black woman, Harriet Tubman, North Carolina, will preach the ser also a member of the Masonic courch would meet with him to during his 35 minute "What does was one of the chief dispatcher men. The body will lie in-state at Lodge for many years.

Officers of Abyssmian Paptist during his 35 minute "What does was one of the chief dispatcher during his 35 minute "What does was one of the historical document. The body will lie in-state at Lodge for many years.

Officers of Abyssmian Paptist during his 35 minute "What does was one of the historical document."

Officers of Abyssmian Paptist during his 35 minute "What does was one of the chief dispatcher during his 35 minute "What does was one of the chief dispatcher during his 35 minute "What does was one of the chief dispatcher during his 35 minute "What does was one of the historical document." only near the end did he lift his ments on Freedom Train tode Dr. Moore was born in Sampson ry of Merryville, La, and several cers, Rev. Powell emphasized but heps the biggest in the years ments to the U.S. constitution now centry Some of the features of the Bi University the degree of Bachelot old suit brought by James Rid. that is about what the average Rev. Coleman W. Kerry of Theology and later the honorary dark a teacher, and the Norfolk Nagar family is getting in Start of Theology and later the honorary dick, a teacher, and the Norfolk Discount of Divinity degree.

ORGANIZES SS CONVENTION

> enemies" humblers one and two, icading churches throughout ti Evongelist Coleman W. Kerry, Sc., ing secretary of the education of Texas, who will conduct an board of the National Baptist evangelist cruesade at the First Bap- vention and associate editor tist Church beginning Sunday, and National Baptist Voice. Evangelist Coleman W. Kerry, Jr., Yong Evangelist Kerry, of Shaw University, who will assure been preaching since sie was

Evangelist Coleman, Sc. is regard- vils Enemy No. 2, will assist h ed as one of the most dynamic. (Continued on back page) ight are the self-styled "Devlis ducted services in many of a country. He is assistant correspon years old and is known as "the

NATIONAL RAPTIST CONCENTION OFFICERS

GEORGIANS INDICTED

THE CAROLINIAN

MATERNITY HOME CHARTER

GRANTED AT FAYETTEVILLE

VOLUME XXVII, NO. 14 RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1947

ison, of Selma, Ala., president of the National Baptist Convention,

By CARTER JEWELL

Washington (ANP) -- Freedor

were lacking then. Lacking wer

dent Dr. Jamison and Rec. E. W. | City.

Inc. Left to right is shown, Rev. Perry of Oklahoma City J. H. Jackson of Chicago, newly | named vice president at

GETS HIGH POST

Truman K. Gibson. Jr., youthral Chicago attorney, who has by Mayor Kennelly. The group will have charge of the $30,000 .be used in buying up land and climinating slums so that redevelopment can take place. (ANP) and tropical fruit.

U. S.-LIBERIAN TIES ARE CLOSE

ationship between the Republic Liberia and the United States is closer today than at any oth time was the opinion of Mrs M. Scarborough, Liberian dele-cate to the United Nations Gental Assembly.

With the combined help of both untries, improvement in publi aucation, lealth and welfare has dready been made, and nore is come, Mrs. Scarborough said. The further aid she referred to ill be in part the new business and development project that anformer United States Secre ry of State, and Gabriel L. Der s, Secretary of State or L. teria. Two organizations will do condidate, by 2,657 to 2,599 to job. They are: the Liberia mpany, to be jointly owned by Liberam Government and I Stettinius Associates, and the Li- 2,762 votes to 2,442. The other erian Educational Foundation, two places were won by admini set up with a block of Liberta stration-backed candidates, Ray, Company stock as its first en mond Fort and Hudson Maddox

MORERN PLANT TO BE READY

ter for the Provident Maternity Home, Inc., A Non-profit hospital sued by the State of North Carolina to Dr. M. L. Perry, Md, Dr. J. W. Seabrook, President of Fayetteville State Teachers College, Prof. E. A. Armstrong, Dr. R. A. Wilson, Md., Prof. W. C. Maize, Dr. G. W. Allen, Md., and Rev. T. H.

Building permit has been issued for the construction of the home one of Fayetteville's largest Negro settlements on a sot fronting 100 ieet on Moore Street and extend ing back frm the street to a maxioun depth of 250 feet.

BUILDINGS UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Buildings now under construction of moder narmy hospitals and will have 6,000 feet of floor space. providing 48 beds, not including hall space and bassinets.

There will be two examining rooms, two delivery rooms, one operating room, a prepartion room, sterilization room, a supply room, a laboratory, facilities for phys siotherapy lounge for patients, and quarters for doctors Wards and private rooms will be all outside rooms and well-ventilated.

Hospital equipment will be complete and will include new and improved apparatus. Parts of the hos-(Continued on back page)

GI's Win A Place On LaGrange, Ga. Council

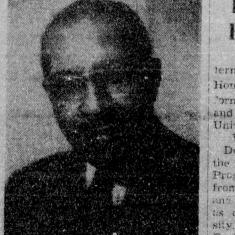

LaGrange, Ga. (NNPA) a municipal election last Wed colored voters cast 600 of the approximately 5,400 votes cast. The "Progressive GI Part; ounced by Edward R. Stettinius, won the mayoralty office by fit ty-eight votes. Duke Davis the Gl candidate, defeated Judeon s Milam, administration-supported

The GI's also won one place the City Council, electing to Wood over Alaude Daniel by Both groups campaigned on The "pioneer experimen" in premises of municipal improve-tends to explore the natural re- ments. The GI party is piedged courses of Liberia, such as iron to reorganize the police depart ore, lumber, cocoa, manganeso ment and fire the fire chief. gold, platinum tong oil, coffee E. Matthews, who has held office

Broughton, Graham, Fisk Inaugural Speakers

Dr. Chas. S. Johnson To Assumes Post As First Negro President

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The insuguration of Dr. Charles Spurge on foliason as the sixth president of lisk University on November 7. will climax the four-day Inaugural Program featuring the appearance of Frank Graham, president, Uniersity of North Carolina; Mordacai V. Johnson, president, Howard Unicesity: Marshall Field, II, publishr Chicego Sun, William H. Hastie, covernor Vivgin Islands; Harvie Branscomb, chanceller, Vanderbilt University, Mark Ethridge, pubisher, Courier-Journal, Frederick D. Patterson, president, Institute, Mrs. Franklin D. Rooseelt chairman Sub-Commission on Human Rights, United Nations;

DR. CHARLES S. JOHNSON

Mordecai Johnson, Mrs. Roosevelt, Marshall Field On Program

ternational Harvester Company Honorable J. Melville Broughton ormer governor of North Carolins; and Howard W. Odum, professor

University of North Catolina, WAS FORMER DIRECTOR

Doctor Johnson was Director of the Social Science Institute and the Program of Social Research at Pisk from 1028 until his recent election and will be the frist Negro to serve as chief executive of the University. He is succeeding Dr. Thomas F. Jones who is now serving Es i ssident of Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana.

In keeping with its 31 year Tradition of service to the public. Fisk University will present a series of (Continued on back page) addition agricultural extension workers appointed in the South through Bankhead-Blaine M. Madison, chairman of Flannagan funds since the the blind aid and sight conserva-1945 fiscal year, 197 or 21 per tion committee of the Ralei, in cent were colored, reports M. Lion's Club, spokesman for the 10cal club and the clubs of Garner. L. Wilson, Director of Exten-Fuquay Varina, and Apex deliversion Service of the U.S. Deed the club's greetings to the guests partment of Agriculture.

North Carolina leads the list of States with the appointment of 36 additional delored farm and home demenstration agents and supervisors; and Mississippi is second with the appointment of 31. The total number of rolored Extension Service gents and supervisors slood

Clubs of Wake County in cooperstion with the Citizens Committee headed by the Rev. M. W. Williams Same Speaking Date were hosts to the blind of the cou.ity in the first social event ever arranged in their honor at the Bloodworth Street YMCA here Thursday and visitors who totaled 100, and announced that the Lions plan to make the affair an annual custom for the Negro blind just as they have for the white baind in the county who gathered recently in the State School for the Blind for their second annual picnic.

Following the dinner which was served in the YMCA lunchroom, an entertainment program feautr-(Continued on back page)

Robeson, Wallace On

Baltimere (NNPA) - The platform with Henry A. Wallace, former Vice President, will be shared by Paul Robeson, actor and concert star, at a rally to be held at the Armory at 8:30 p.m., October 15, under the auspices of the Maryland chapter of the Procressive Citizens of American. Besides speeking on civil liberties, Mr. Robeson will sing Langston Hughes' bal-lad, "Freedom Train."

Mr. Wallace, who will deliver the principal address at the rally, will spend the day in Baltimore, attending a luncheon in his honor as the Belvedere Hotel and making a number of other personal appearances. Arrangements are being made to seat an audience of more than 8,000.

REV. COLEMAN KERRY, JR. Frank W. Jenks, vice president to-