St. Paul Junior Church Presents Program

RALEIGH — The Junior Church of St. Paul A.M.E. Church celebrated its first anniversary Sunday. The New Junior Church was founded under the guidance of our very ambitious and energetic pastor, the Rev. T. F. Duhart. This department has a membership of 125. They are at work each Sunday morning in their chapel.

The Junior Church's programs are designed to meet the spiritual needs of the children as well as to serve as a social and civic organization. The leaders have as their goal: "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." "Doing what is right is best for us; and a good example for others."

The celebration began at 11 A. M. with a professional play by the Junior choir, Ray Moore, secretary of the Junior Church, presided, assisted by Wayman Hodge and Willie Meltzer. Margaret Mann gave the history of our new Junior Church. The Sunbeam group gave a selection and Wallace Peace a solo.

The very finely message was brought by the pastor, the Rev. T. F. Duhart, who, as usual, brought a message from God. Sunday night's program was of a literary nature, with Joyce Gray presiding. The choir was again in its place and at its best. The 23rd Psalm was repeated by Doris Beas.

Others participating were Catherine and Marie Sturdivant, Catherine Assay and Ruth Carter. G. E. Brown, a senior steward, brought the message of the evening.

And said unknown parties will further take notice that they are required to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake County at the Courthouse in Raleigh, North Carolina, within ten days after the 22nd day of December, 1947, and answer or demur to the petition in said action or the Court may, in its discretion, appoint some disinterested person to represent their interest and the petitioner will apply to the Court for the yellow demand in said petition, and said unknown parties will further take notice that the Order of the Court upon which this publication of notice is made follows:
