

Chavis Heights News

BY MAY L. BROADIE
 Mrs. Carrie F. Price was the dinner guest Sunday of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Keidell, Sr., of 21 Chavis Way.
 The Chavis Heights Tenant League held its regular meeting Monday night in the Administration Building with the president, J. Webster, presiding, Joseph Paul of the Veterans Annex was guest speaker and outlined some very bright and timely ideas.
 The next meeting will be held Monday night, April 13, at which time all families of Chavis Heights are expected to be present.
 Mrs. James Phillips of 705 Oaklin Road has been ill for several days. Her many friends wish her a quick recovery.
 Mrs. Georgiana Hunter of 9 Hyde Terrace was called out of the city because of the illness of her brother, Leander Jeffries who is very ill in Durham.
 The Booker T. Washington Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Reid of South East Street with the president, John Chavis presiding. After the business of the meeting, a delicious course of ice cream and cake, salt nuts was served by the hostess. All present enjoyed a delightful evening.
 All families of Chavis Heights and elsewhere are in deep sympathy with Mrs. Corina Hunter and family of 9 Hyde Terrace in the passing of Mrs. Hunter's son-in-law.
 A foolish idea a day keeps the mind working, at least.

Anniversary Vespers Honor Orphanage Head

BY JOSEPHINE TERRELL
 Vesper services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 in the auditorium of the Colored Orphanage in honor of the seven years of efficient service performed by Superintendent T. A. Hamme.
 The boys and girls of the institution joined the workers in dedicating the program to pay tribute to the purpose which the present administrator championed — that of offering protection to homeless boys and girls as well as giving them an opportunity to prepare themselves for useful citizenship which is made possible by contributions of the many friends of the institution to the Student Loan Fund.
 The program, an outgrowth of an Essay Contest, evaluated the topic, "What The Orphanage Means to Me" and gave every inmate an opportunity to express his views. The judges, teachers from the campus school, announced the winning essays, which were read to the audience and the prizes were awarded by Dr. E. E. Toney.
 The Rev. G. C. Hawley presented the speaker, the Rev. T. H. Brooks, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oxford who made a very inspiring address, using as his subject, "The Grasshopper versus the Giant", and urging the children not to be discouraged because their efforts seem small but to continue to strive until their goal is reached.

Maple Temple Church

BY JOSEPHINE TERRELL
 Regular worship services were held at Maple Temple (Congregational Christian Church Sunday morning. Music was supplied by the senior choir. The pastor, preacher, grand and noble sermon.
 Sunday School was very well attended by many children, adults and visitors. We were glad to have Mrs. Rosa Penny back to church again after being confined to her home for several months after being injured in an accident.
 Will the circle be unbroken? Yes, again the circle of our church has been broken by the death of a true, faithful and loyal member, Mrs. Emmie Barnes. For 2 years and on it her death was president of our Osher Board and faithful in all other church work. Her funeral was held at the church Sunday evening at three o'clock with the pastor in charge. Interment took place in Mt. Hope Cemetery.
 At 6:30 o'clock we had our Home Mission Service with President William Keith presiding. We had a brief business session which was followed by an old-fashioned program meeting. Evening worship services began at 7:30 with the singing, choir again rendering music and being assisted by the Vocal Choir.
 Due to the illness of our pastor, the message was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Shippman of Shaw. His subject was "In All Things Be Patient", found in the 6th verse and 11th chapter of Corinthians. Our hearts really rejoiced while he preached a wonderful sermon. We were happy to have many visitors including Robert Rafter from St. Matthews Baptist Church, W. D. Sanders accompanying the Rev. Mr. Shippman, Mr. and Mrs. Watson and others. They were made welcome by the pastor.
 The Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Martha O'Neal of East Davie Street. Refreshments were served. All members are asked to be present at the next meeting.

Enola Laws, Git-Smythe Heard Over WPTF

RALEIGH — Miss Enola Laws and Harry Git-Smythe of the State University Music Department were heard over Radio Station WPTF in a half-hour program Sunday from 9:50 to 10 o'clock, and will be heard again at the same hour Sunday afternoon.
 Miss Laws, a talented soprano soloist, offered a group of vocal selections while Mr. Git-Smythe, widely known as a concert pianist, furnished several instrumental numbers, and accompanied Miss Laws. The invitation was extended the two artists following an audition given Miss Laws by station officials.

 The program next Sunday will offer the following vocal solos, "On Wings of Song," F. Mendelssohn; "Sylvia," Ole Speaks; "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Saint-Saens; and "Floods of Spring," Rachmaninoff. Instrumental numbers will be "Chopin Preludes, Opus 28," "Nocturne in B, Major, Opus 32, No. 1," Chopin; "Tango in D,"

Democracy must have much more than political equality if it is to bless the people of the world.
