Williston Students Win $117 In Prizes

WILMINGTON — The division of Vocational Education of the State Department of Public Instruction conducted a contest for accredited high schools in North Carolina, Saturday, May 1, at A. and T. College in Greensboro, North Carolina.

The contest was supervised by Mr. S. C. Smith who directs the vocational work among Negro high schools. Twenty-eight pupils and four instructors from Williston Industrial School attended with nine participating in the contest.

For auto-mechanics first place was taken by Eugene Keitt and Ernest Johnson, first year students here at Williston, and third place by Allen Sidberry, Raymond Reddick and Raymond Barnes, second year students.

In the contest for woodwork eight schools participated and Loyd Moore, a first year student at Williston, and Thomas Harvey, a second year student, took second place. In the contest for brickmasonry Abraham Butler, a first year student, and Charles De Shields, a second year student, received third place.

The winners received a total of $117.00 in prizes.

Maple Temple Church

BY JOSEPHINE TERRELL

A special service honoring all mothers was held at the Maple Temple Congregational Church Sunday. Music was provided by the Senior choir. Flowers were arranged beautifully around the altar. All visitors were welcomed by the pastor.

At 6:30 the regular praise services began and at 7:30 evening services began with the Rev. Turner delivering the sermon in the absence of the pastor.

The Woman's Club gave a "spiritual tea" at 5:30 Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mary Alston. The club met with Mrs. S. Gregory at 1408 Pender Street Monday night. Next meeting will be held at the church. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Lessie Dunston of South Haywood Street and Miss Leona Hayes, both members of the church, are home from St. Agnes hospital after undergoing serious operations.

On May 23 at 3:00 p. m. the Rev. Hall of the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church will render services at the church. The Five String Gospel Singers will accompany him. The services are sponsored by the Woman's Club. All are invited to attend.

A baby contest will be held at the church Sunday at 3:00. It will be sponsored by the Pastor's Aid and Floral Clubs. All are welcome.

The students were accompanied by their advisers, G. E. Exum, Bricklaying instructor, B. F. French, instructor in Auto Mechanics, and Miss E. M. Yeargin, Coordinator of Diversified Occupations and also Secretary of the State Trade and Industrial Personnel Organization.

Insurance Groups Aid United College Fund

NEW YORK (ANP) — Negro life insurance companies gave generously to last year's fund-raising campaign of the United Negro College fund, it was announced last week by W. J. Trent, Jr., executive director of the fund. This statement came as a prelude to National Negro Insurance week, May 10-15.

According to Mr. Trent, 25 of the 52 companies belonging to the National Negro Insurance association contributed. With 32 accredited Negro colleges participating in affiliation, the fund raised more than $1,000,000 a year, which goes to aid its memberships in meeting operating costs and providing scholarship aid for deserving students.

"Our life insurance companies," stated Mr. Trent, "are our biggest businesses. The fund feels it quite significant that these solid companies considered it wise to assist Negro education, and we are grateful for their support in the objective which the fund is doing."

The voting machine was first used in a New York City election in 1892.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

BY The Rev. Mabel Cary Philpott

THE GREATEST LINE EVER WRITTEN — John 3:16

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

This is a broad claim to make. I am not unmindful of the many immortal documents that have been written. Declaration of Independence, Emancipation Proclamation, the Signing of the Armistice, and many like these, yet I am bold to claim this honor for my text. Why?

I. BECAUSE OF WHAT IT TELLS US ABOUT GOD.

1. Where do we get our knowledge about God?

From Nature. See Ps. 19:1. But nature tells us nothing about His love for us.

From Conscience. See John 3:9 and 1 John 3:20. But our conscience is silent about His love for us.

From the Bible. It is set forth in many ways, parable and precept. But nowhere is it reduced to such simple terms as here.

2. Why does it surpass other passages?

It presents the overflowing love of God.

It presents the suffering love of God.

It presents the substitutionary love of God.

II. BECAUSE OF WHAT IT TELLS US ABOUT OURSELVES

1. What does it tell us about ourselves that others have not already told us?

2. It tells us that we are the objects of God's love. He never loved another thing. When He made the world, He admired it, but when He made man He loved him.

3. It tells us that we are immortal. He is offering us eternal life. There is nothing else immortal. All the works of man shall perish, the sun, moon and stars shall burn out, but the soul of man is eternal.

4. It tells us that we are perishing. Perishing in spite of God's love, in spite of our immortality.

III. BECAUSE OF WHAT IT TELLS US ABOUT OUR SALVATION

1. It is of God, every whit.

2. It is a gift. Not earned, or merited.

It is offered to all, regardless of color, faults, former records, hard cases, etc.

4. It is hung on but one condition, Faith. Believe it and accept it and thank God.

5. It is eternal. Shall never end, not as the agreements of men which may become scraps of paper.

The Rev. Mabel Cary Philpott (Sister Gary) is a native of Abingdon, Va. completed her high school training Bristol, Tenn., and attended the Morristown Normal Industrial College, Morristown, Tenn. studied some phase of religious work in New York City.

She is serving her 25th year in the ministry. To her credit goes the building of two churches and two parsonages. She served as Conference Evangelist in the East Tennessee and Virginia Conference and Central North Carolina Conference for 12 years.

In this city she is the pastor of the Second AME Zion Church. Since coming to this station 12 years ago she has increased her membership from 12 to 351, her Sunday School Department from 7 scholars to 306, has an organized Junior Church, that is active.

She has completely rebuilt a new modern edifice with a seating capacity of approximately 700 at cost of $14,000 and paid for and built a lovely seven room parsonage. This resourceful and energetic pastor has labored without ceasing. She is credited as one of Zion's outstanding ministers and has the unique distinction of being the only Negro pastor with a regular weekly broadcast program that is heard every Sunday evening at 8 P. M. Station WRAL. A pastor builder, radio personality is the reference in regards to Sister Gary and her work.
