The Young Ladies of the B. and I. Club spent a glorious Fourth of July at Fort Bragg, where two of them, Misses Vivian McLenon and Essie Myers participated in a beauty contest. The contest was followed by swimming and water sports. A lovely formal dance closed the day's activities. A large number of B. and I. girls looked lovely in their beautiful formal dresses as they danced to sweet music. The group returned to Raleigh by bus after the dance.

There is no one denying that it is equally good for all white shoes. The specialists advise reading the label on the clothes to be sure it is recommended for the type of leather or fabric in the shoes. In general, white shoe soap is best for white smooth leather, because it cleans without drying and hardening the leather. Dressing that includes whitening material like chalk is suited to cloth shoes. Old dressing should always be brushed out before applying more. Shoes of white suede or other napped leather may be "powder-cleaned" rather than being cleaned. Use one of the buffer bags of chalk-like material sold for the purpose.

A BAG FOR THE BRILLIANT MISS - Any time is gift time, especially when some young lady in whose future you are interested has made you happy. In these serious times young people should be rewarded for their efforts, not elaborately, just something to let them know you are proud of them. Here's a gift that will fascinate a young woman's heart, make her proud to show her gift, and last the thing to use with all of her summer and early fall clothes. Little Miss Miles, charming and useful, is exhibiting this beautiful pearl cotton crocheted bag. Don't go downtown and spend twenty or thirty dollars for a bag, write to the Home Sewing Bureau, 460 Manhattan Avenue, Suite 4, New York 26, N. Y., enclosing this picture and instructions free of charge will be sent to you.
