

PATRONIZE THESE ADVERTISERS

GOLDSBORO

Goldsboro Merchants And Business Persons Made This Page Possible. Give Them Your Trade.

THE WEEK IN GOLDSBORO

By E. A. THORNTON

The vacation bible school at the First African Baptist Church West Pine Street, under the direction of Rev. M. W. Morgan, completed its two weeks of Vacation Bible school Friday, July 9th, with a picnic outing for the children.

The school was held jointly with Antioch Baptist Church with between 150 and 200 children in attendance during the two weeks session. On Friday night a short program was given by the children, and the showing of the Handicraft work done by the children. Instructors in the school were: Mrs. Pandora Wooten, Mrs. Annie Ford, Mrs. Carrie Mae Leah, Mrs. Mary Sampson, Mrs. Helen Best, Mrs. Rosa Lee Howell, Miss Elizabeth Williams, and Miss Clara Lewis, and the Rev. M. W. Morgan, pastor, director. At the close of the school each child was given a certificate for perfect attendance.

Mrs. Naomi Massey of Norfolk, Va. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holt on North Centre Street. Miss Massey is a former member of the Little Theatre Incorporated. Miss Beatrice Watson has returned to Memphis, Tenn. after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Lavinia Watson on Chestnut Street. Henry Watson has gone to Washington, D. C. to spend his vacation with his brother, Harold Watson, Messdames Lorane Bennett and Esther Coahan, and little James Edwards Raynor, Jr. of Washington, D. C. are visiting their mother, Mrs. Martha Raynor, and family on East Spruce Street. Little James Edwards Raynor, Jr. is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. King Jones on Alvin Street. Mrs. Lulu Speight of Dayton, Ohio is visiting her daughter at 716 Canal Street.

Miss Mary Davis left Wednesday for New York City to spend the summer. Miss Alphonse Hodges has returned home after spending two weeks in Washington, D. C. and Baltimore, Md. with relatives and friends. The following summer school teachers spent the Fourth of July weekend at home, Mrs. Katie Zachary, N. C. College, Durham, Mrs. Zelma Douth, Miss Susie Faucette, and Prof. H. V. Brown, Hampton Institute.

Mrs. Frances Johnson Tyler who is employed at Langley Field, Hampton, Va. spent the weekend at home with her family on Beal Street. Prof. W. A. Foster and J. B. Tyler are attending summer school at Columbia University, New York City. Victor Walter Hyder of Hampton, Va. is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Eunice Thompson, on Greenleaf Street. Mrs. Annie Bell Coley Grant is with her sister who is ill in Washington, D. C. Leroy Williams, Sr. of Mamaroneck, N. Y. is visiting his family on West Pine Street. Robert Williams spent the Fourth of July at home. Mr. Williams is attending summer school at Hampton Institute. Miss Ruth Ferdinand has returned home after attending the Girl Scout Conference in Atlanta, Ga. Miss Naomi Kimbro of Durham is visiting the Ferdinands on Beal Street. S. W. Whittington, 306 S. James Street, underwent an operation at the Kate Biting Reynolds hospital, Winston-Salem, N. C. Sunday, July 4th. He is reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. Laura Foster and daughter, Cora are visiting relatives and friends in New York City. Mr. E. A. Thornton and Mrs. H. R. Cole were in Wilson, N. C. July 4th on business. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cole for Boston, Mass. to visit Mrs. Hatch who has been there for some time. Mrs. Pauline Carey and son, Thomas Ray, Jr. left for Detroit to visit Mr. Carey's parents, Mrs. Ruth Whitehead Wavley and daughter, Ruth of New York City are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Clay and family at 439 East Elm Street. Mrs. Vena Dawson and daughter of Newark, N. J. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Canty at 505 S. John Street. Little Miss Annie Mae Moses, of Washington, D. C. is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Ruth Canty, 505 South John Street. Mrs. Elouise Larkins, and Mrs. Mattie Bernes Smith are attending summer school at Columbia University, New York City.

The Fort Jackson Red Devils, who have won 40 of their last 53 games can credit much of their success to the fence busting bat of Sherkey Everett, their lanky first baseman. "Sharky" has been playing a superior game at first base for the Red Devils and is also the power hitter for the team. Included in his 385 batting average are 20 home runs which puts him in the lead in that department plus 75 many other base knocks. S. Set Everett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Everett on East Elm Street and his wife, Mrs. Mildred Everett is proprietor and operator of the Everett Beauty Shop at 903 E. Elm Street in Goldsboro. When not playing ball, Set Everett is a member of Hogs, Co. Section 2, at the Station Hospital Fort Jackson, S. C. The citizens of Goldsboro and Wayne County are very proud of the record Sgt. Everett is making while serving his country.

St. John M. E. Church, North John Street, opened its two weeks session of vacation bible school Monday, July 5th under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Everett with an enrollment between 80 and 100 children the first few days. The children are taught all types of handicraft and games. Members of the teaching staff are: Mrs. M. E. Everett, director, Mrs. Ruth Everett, Mrs. Esther Simmons, Mrs. Freda McLamb, Mrs. Helen Harris, Mrs. Gertrude Cox and Miss Mary F. Everett.

AMERICAN LEGION INSTALLS OFFICERS
At the regular meeting of Bryant-Best Post No. 215 American Legion on Tuesday night, July 6th, the following officers were installed for the new year: E. W. Wright, commander; Amos How, all vice commander; Jerome Best, adjutant; and finance officer; E. A. Thornton, service officer; W. A. Cole, chaplain; Rufus Wooten, and James Ford, set at arms. Comrade George E. Wilson was elected delegate to attend the State Convention of the American Legion in Asheville, N. C. September 10th to 13th. Adjutant Best, was named alternate. Jettro Hawkins, delegate to the Boy's State Conference held at North Carolina College, Durham, N. C. June 13-20 made a very fine report to the post of his experiences and the many helpful things which he learned at the conference. From his report the post was very proud of sending him. The American Legion Auxiliary has completed all plans for the joint meeting on Sunday, July 25 at 5 p.m. at the community center, at which time Mrs. Scales of Raleigh will address the group and participate in the installation services. Earl Whitted, Jr., will make his report to the Auxiliary from the Boy's State Conference. All veterans and their wives are invited to attend this meeting.

E. A. Thornton, district commander of District No. 4 American Legion, Division Six, Department of North Carolina, announces the appointment of Comrade George E. Wilson as director of athletics for District No. 4, of Division Six Department of North Carolina American Legion. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Central High School, Louisville, Kentucky, and Kentucky State College, Frankfort, Ky. He served three years in the U. S. Army during World War II and became First Sgt. and was in charge of the recreation program in his company while in service. Mr. Wilson is coach of the all-star basketball team sponsored by Bryant-Best Post No. 215 American Legion which won 7 and lost 5 during last season. He is well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed. His wife, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, and their three sons live at 617 Slaughter Street. Mrs. Wilson, the former Miss Bernice Hobbs and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hobbs, is a graduate of Dillard High School, and a member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. District Commander Thornton is calling a meeting of post athletic directors in District 4, to be held in Goldsboro, N. C. July 25, 3 p.m. at Thornton's Casino, 507 Alvin Street. The purpose of this meeting is to organize all posts in District 4. The purpose of this meeting is to organize all posts in District 4 into an athletic league. There are 10 posts in District 4.

SCOUTS IN TROOP 8 KEEP BUSY
All Scouts in Troop 8, Boy Scouts of America are very busy nowadays, working in the green tobacco, doing odd jobs, mowing lawns and helping Mother and Dad, trying to be ready to go to camp when Camp Carver opens on August 8th. Five boys have already sent in their registering fee for August 8th. By the opening of camp, Troop 8 is hoping to have at least 15 boys in camp.

THORNTON'S TEEN-AGE CASINO TOPICS
Well, the Fourth of July holiday is over, and now most of the boys and girls are nursing sun-tans from the effect of the holidays beaches, and others are still going away for their vacations. Miss Mary Davis, graduate of Dillard High School in June, left Thursday night for New York City to spend the remainder of the summer with relatives and friends. Well, same very fine young man will be very lonely for awhile, Miss Davis' lovely voice will be

13-YEAR OLD BOY USED IN $36,000 SMUGGLING RING

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The spotting of a 13-year old newsboy used as a decoy in a dope racket led to the capture and conviction of three narcotics peddlers here last week.

1st Lt. Marshall Bass, Jr., now stationed at Keesee Base, Japan, is the son of Mrs. Estella Bass and the late Marshall Bass, Sr. He is a graduate of Dillard High School, and when drafted in 1944, was a student at Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md.

Born and reared in Goldsboro, Lt. Bass took his basic training at Ft. Benning, Ga., and after a year or more of service was sent overseas where he has been ever since. Lt. Bass is now in the Regular Army and states his plans are to stay in the Army for quite a while because he likes it. While in High School and college, he was an outstanding player on the varsity basketball team. His hobbies are basketball and tennis.

White and Negro Girls Win Delta Scholarships

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Delta Delta Delta scholarships were awarded last week by the New York members of the Delta Delta Delta society, one to a white girl and the other to a Negro.

The two winners were Alice Oplis of Brooklyn, white, a graduate of the Manual Training High School and Minna Key of Jamaica, L. I., a senior at the High School of Music and Art.

Last December the organization voted to open its membership to any woman, regardless of race, without respect to creed, race or religion, an Old New York chapter (Alpha Sigma) followed suit.

Miss Key will continue her studies at Queens College, and Miss Oplis plans to study paleontology at Brooklyn College.

Members of the scholarship committee included Maude Watkins, Eva Wade and Theresa Jackson.

Good Old Pre-War Atlantic Ale IS BACK AGAIN

EXTRA STRONG ON QUALITY

112 South Carolina St. Goldsboro

MASONS CONVENE SUNDAY ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Preparations are being made for more than 5,000 delegates, lay members and affiliated bodies for the 92nd annual convention of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of California in San Francisco starting Sunday, July 18, according to Past Master Walter H. Sanford, general chairman of the grand sessions committee.

The grand lodge this year returns to the official home where it was founded in 1857 as the 9th Masonic Grand Lodge to be set up in the United States.

Two of the original Prince Hall Lodges, Humboldt No. 1 and Victoria Lodge No. 2 will be the official hosts to the Grand Sessions this year and assisted by the Naom and Bertha Chapters, O. E. S. and the California Poppy Court Heroines of Jericho.

greatly missed in the junior choir at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. Miss Cora Foster and mother are visiting relatives and friends in New York. Henry Watson is spending his vacation in Washington, D. C. with his brother, Harold. Who will be lonely now? Misses Bessie Speight, Kelsey Warren, Retha M. Heath, Laura Foster, Dorothy Hollingworth, Elouise Newsome, Clatee Siedman are leaving soon for Connecticut. Miss Dollie Best, one of Goldsboro's finest young ladies is always busy, she never shirks from her duties in church and Sunday school. During the vacation Bible school she was there giving her service as an instructor in the Junior Choir at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. Well, we join Mr. Hicks in being proud of this very fine and talented young lady, Miss Edna Mae Dortch, and Miss Wilberia Bass are doing nicely nowadays. They are working hard in order to enter college in September.

LAURENCE T. LIGHTNER

L. T. LIGHTNER IS OUTSTANDING IN LOCAL BUSINESS

Laurence Thompson Lightner, erstwhile of Goldsboro, N. C., now a funeral director and licentiate was born in Chester, S. C. in 1884. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lightner and the eighth child of a family of thirteen brothers and sisters.

After completing high school at Bowdoin Institute, Chester, S. C., he graduated from Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N. C., with the degree of A. B. in 1907. In September of that same year he joined his oldest brother, John, in a beef grocery and confectionary store in Atlanta, Ga. He stayed in that business until 1917, then left that business in charge of his youngest brother, Allen, who still operates it in greatly improved surroundings on Auburn Avenue.

He then went to Raleigh, N. C. and spent two years in apprenticeship and in the study of a course of embalming in the Theod Brown Embalming School which he completed in 1919. After successfully passing the Georgia State Board of Embalming he came to Goldsboro and opened a funeral home in 1919. He married Miss Corrie McHenry, the principal of one of the schools in Atlanta in 1918. She lived and helped him in his business in Goldsboro until 1945 when she passed on to her reward in Heaven.

He joined the Presbyterian Church in Chester, S. C. when he was 15 years old, and during the ten years he lived in Atlanta, he was an elder and church treasurer. Mr. Lightner has always tried to be helpful in any way that he could, and as a result has won thousands of friends throughout Goldsboro and Wayne County. He now owns and operates one of the best equipped funeral businesses in Eastern North Carolina. The people of Goldsboro and Wayne County are very proud of the record and success he has made in Goldsboro.

- WANTED -

NEWSBOYS

HEY BUDDY

WAIT A MINUTE THERE'S GOOD MONEY IN SELLING

The Carolinian

SEE MR. E. A. THORNTON 507 ALVIN ST.

YOUR LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE

Proprietor

THE TEENAGE CASINO

PICTURE OF HEALTH — Little James Edward Raynor, Jr. the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Raynor of New York City, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. King Jones on Alvin Street. Little James or better known as "Butch" will be with his grandparents for two weeks. Little "Butch" says what he likes most, is more milk and better milk.

Home And Farm Group Attend Conference At Greensboro's A. & T.

Approximately 100 Negro farm and homemakers left Wake County Thursday, July 8, to attend the twenty-sixth annual State Conference of Farmers and Homemakers at A. and T. College, Greensboro.

The conference dealt with tours, exhibits, classes in corn, pasture, small grain and cotton production, feeding management and breeding of dairy animals, poultry, sweet potatoes, farm lighting, foods and various demonstrations.

The Wake County delegation left at 8:00 A. M. and returned the same day at 7:00 p. m.

For a delicate onion flavor in sandwiches, slip the knife, with which you are slicing tomatoes for sandwiches into an onion several times while slicing each tomato. This will contribute a flavor to the sandwiches which will be a pipant but not strong enough to be unpleasant.

Jim's Garage

ON WILSON HIGHWAY NO. 117 GREENLEAF SECTION We service All Makes of Cars ALL WORK GUARANTEED JAMES PHILLMORE, Prop.

Southerland Grill

COLD DRINKS AND BEER 221 WEST PINE STREET ADDIE COLE, Prop.

JUNIOR MISS — Charming and lovely, Cass Cecilia Heath, the daughter of Mrs. Nina Heath, No. 8 Bizzle Street, is a member of the junior class at Dillard High School, popular Majorette in the Dillard Band, member of the junior choir, St. Luke Disciple Church, and a member of Troop 13 Girl Scouts of America. Her hobbies are softball and basketball. She is leaving during the week for Connecticut.

FOYE'S BARBER SHOP

405 SOUTH JAMES ST. ODELLE FOYE, Prop.

POWELL'S

5c To $5.00 STORE 609 S. SLOCUMB ST. "YOUR FRIENDLY NEIGHBORHOOD STORE" We Appreciate Your Patronage

The Green Parrott

327 SOUTH JAMES ST. HOME COOKED FOOD BEER — WINE — SODA Mrs. M. S. Pennington, Mgr.

Moore's Grocery

WE BUY AND SELL FRESH COUNTRY PRODUCTS 565 CREECH STREET FREDERICK MOORE, Prop.

JAMES STREET NEWSSTAND

318 SOUTH JAMES ST. LATEST MAGAZINES AND PAPERS

THE GOODY'S SHOP

Home Baked Cakes and Pies of All Kinds — Delicious Pastry Cinnamon Buns, De-nuts and Hot Rolls 223 W. PINE ST. JAMES E. BARBER, Mgr.

THE L. T. LIGHTNER MUTUAL BURIAL ASSOCIATION

403 SOUTH GEORGE ST. PHONES 627 AND 859-W L. T. LIGHTNER, Prop.

SERVICE DRY CLEANERS

Cor. S. James and Elm Sts. Branch Office N. John St. ONE DAY SERVICE We Specialize In Women's Silk Dresses and White Sweaters PHONE 1578-R

If prepackaged fresh vegetables are kept at a temperature of 42 degrees W. during marketing operations they will keep from two to three times longer than if no attention is given to refrigeration, say USDA specialists.

Saving Fat?

Are you saving your used fat? Industry needs fats and oils today as much as they did during the war. Salvage that teaspoonful of grease in the bottom of the frying pan.

Nicky's Soda Shoppe

HOME MADE ICE CREAM "THE BEST IN TOWN" DINNERS — SANDWICHES 333 S. JAMES ST.

Community BARBER SHOP

ALL MODERN EQUIPMENT A Regular Barber Wanted 193 W. Elm St. — Phone 404-W JOSEPH E. BLUE, Mgr.

Southerland Grocery AND MARKET

Groceries, Meats, Country products, Ice Cream, Cold Drinks Cor. Chestnut and Slocumb Sts. WE DELIVER — PHONE 9109

GET YOUR NEWS IN THE CAROLINIAN ADVERTISE IN THE CAROLINIAN NEWS DEADLINE Thursday EACH WEEK

THORNTON'S TEEN-AGE CASINO — AND Shaving Parlor

SANDWICHES, SOFT DRINKS, ICE CREAM 507 Alvin St. E. A. Thornton, Prop.

DeVANE AUTO REPAIR SHOP

We Service All Makes of Cars 312 S. JAMES ST. PHONE 903-J Herman DeVane, Prop.

VINSON'S GROCERY AND MARKET

General Groceries and Fresh Meats 402 S. GEORGIA AVE. COUNTRY PRODUCTS WE DELIVER

Moye's Grocery

Fancy and Staple Groceries Fruits and Vegetables 401 SOUTH JAMES ST. PHONE 9134

McIntyre Fish Market

LIGHT GROCERIES ICE CREAM AND DRINKS WE DELIVER Cor. 1st St. and Elm Sts. Phone 1625-W. P. McIntyre, Prop.

DOCK'S PLACE GROCERIES, FRESH MEATS OF ALL KINDS

Complete News Department, Magazines, Etc. JAMES MOYE, Prop. 612 W. Pine St. Phone 9168

Club El Morocco

One Mile Out Mount Olive Highway 117 Home Cooked Food and Beer Open Sundays 4 p. m. - 2 a. m. Week Days 7 p. m. - 2 a. m.

Silver Moon Bar

ALL KINDS OF SOFT DRINKS BEER 229 W. PINE STREET ALEX SWIFT, Mgr.

Jernigan's Grocery

For Groceries - Meats 800 DEVEREAUX STREET FREE DELIVERY ANYWHERE "ROBIN HOOD FLOUR" PHONE 1585-J

Iner's Beauty Parlor

"YOUR CONVENIENCE IS OUR PLEASURE" Mrs. L. E. Thomas, Operator INEZ SWINSON, Prop. PHONE 1488-J HOURS: 9 A. M. TO 7 P. M.