to ministers, said the purpose of this day is to ask "Almighty God to give these young men the strength to endure prison and the other difficulties that they shall face in that spirit which removes the occasion of violence and injustice. "For we are faced with possible prospects of hatred and violence unless young men who take such a stand do so with a real . sense of humility and non-violence.

Bayard Rustin, executive co secretary of the league, indicated that ministers throughout the nation would be asked to advise resisters and the people of the United States to "consult God" in the matter of segregation in the armed forces. "We are asking ministers to urge all young men following the course of civil disobedience to remove hatred and bitterness from their hearts. Field representatives of the league are traveling all over the country setting up local organizations to coordinate the civil disobedience movement in particular communities. Thousands of pledges not to register for a jimcrow army, and buttons saying "Don't Join A Jimcrow Army." are being distributed. The league has also prepared a series of bul letins discussing many of the questions and problems that arise
