HIT COVENANTS IN N.Y. VETERANS HOMES PROJECT

NEW YORK — Thurgood Marshall, special counsel for the N. A. A. C. P. last week called upon Federal Housing Commissioner Frank D. Richards to cease issuing mortgages for the financing of Levittown an FHA insured vet project in Long Island, until the signing of racial restrictive covenants is removed as a condition of occupancy.

In a letter to Commissioner Richards, Mr. Marshall pointed out that such restrictive covenants were declared unenforceable in the recent United States Supreme Court decision.

YOUR SCRIBE

By FREDRICK L. BURNS

A few years ago the eyes and ears of the county were turned to Juvenile Delinquency. The radio, the newspapers, and from nearly every pulpit you could hear that the generation was going to the bad. Then all of a sudden you could hear no more.

night. She is only inviting trouble. I can't see how a mother can see her daughter bring home new shoes, new dresses and coats and never asked her where she got them from. People like this should have their heads examined.

Whatever the answer the children of today are practically the same today as they were last year or year before last. In order to cope with the situation the parent-teachers associations, and drien and see what method applies to them.

There is another case of a mother with 3 daughters' ages ranging from 11 years to 17. The oldest daughter recently married a soldier who has gone overseas. I am told that nearly all of his buddies try to see his wife every day.

Some relief can be had through parent-teachers associations, and with frequent talks with your teacher and your principals. Whether you know it or not they have the interest of your child at heart and will do every thing in their power to help you to place your child on the right track.

The other daughters have the impression that they must do as the older sister and the mother does. The mother allegedly had a sergeant for a boy friend and he spent more time there at night than he does at camp. I am giving you these examples to show that most of the parents are wrong and how in the world can a mother say anything to correct her daughter when she has set an example before them?

One of the hardest problems parents have is the rearing of girls. Most girls after they get into the teen-age group start thinking of boys. That is natural. Some of the greatest teachers will tell you that girls should have boys of their age group come to their homes but under the supervision of the parents.

It may seem hard to be strict on your child but it is harder still to see your own child in trouble. Mothers should teach their children sex. They should tell them about the things that they will experience in life.

By removing the imposition of a racial restrictive covenant one step and inserting it into deeds and leases after the Federal Housing Administration has insured the mortgage, Levittown owners have been enabled still to secure federal support for a racially discriminatory project. The imposition of these racial restrictive covenants is a matter of public notoriety.

Train a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. See you next week.

PHYSICIAN FREED IN ABORTION CASE

WHITE TO BE BOOK AND AUTHOR CLUB LUNCHEON GUEST

NEW YORK — Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will be a guest of honor at the Book and Author Luncheon to be held by the American Booksellers Association and the New York Herald Tribune on Nov. 23 at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

A jury headed by Miss Shelly B. Covington deliberated nearly 24 hours before the verdict was announced. The foreman said, "We were 11 to 1 for acquittal all night. I had to get down on my hands and knees to convince one man that Dr. Brown was innocent." Judge Henry A. Scheinhaut delivered the verdict.

Other guests of honor at the luncheon will be General Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, and Burl Ives, entertainer. Mrs. Ives Van Doren, literary editor of the Herald Tribune, will preside.

Dr. Brown did not testify in the case brought against him by Miss Lee Jeanette LeFaro. She charged that he performed an abortion for her in September at his office for $300.00.

Very quietly I investigated and found every word of it to be true. It may seem silly or old-fashioned on my part but I can't see how a parent can permit her daughter to go out car riding at night and return any hour of the eight years ago, the board wished to grant him time in which to recuperate.

She also claimed that Dr. Brown returned her $300 to "get out of town" when she was to tell of a deal in which the doctor supposedly paid her attorney, Ellis Klein, $75 more. Klein denied what she said about him.

This case marked the fourth time the doctor had been involved in abortion cases. On two of these, the jury could not agree, and in the other the witness failed to prosecute.

THURMOND BLASTED FOR WITHDRAWAL OF HASTIE INVITATION

COLUMBIA, S. C. — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People this week assailed Governor J. Strom Thurmond, Dixiecrat standard-bearer, for ostentatiously withdrawing his invitation to Gov. William H. Hastie of the Virgin Islands to visit the Governor's Mansion here.

This action was branded a breach of even common courtesy. Stating that he did not know Gov. Hastie was a Negro, Gov. Thurmond asserted that the invitation was "a mistake."

In a letter rebuking Thurmond for his action, Rev. J. M. Hinton, president of the South Carolina State Conference of NAACP branches, declared, "The statement attributed to you in newspapers today concerning Hon. Governor Hastie of the Virgin Islands, if true, is a breach of even common courtesy due and official of the United States Government."

"You would not have been honoring Governor Hastie. But the United States government that he represents... This mission does not belong to you, but to the taxpayers of the state."

Earlier this week, Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, returning from Paris after serving as a consultant to the UN General Assembly, denounced the States Rights Party for its "blistering diatribes continually leveled against

Dispute Claim That Md. U. Is Open To All

BALTIMORE (ANP) — A statement issued recently by the board of regents of the University of Maryland that applicants for its graduate schools are considered without regard to race, brought a formal denial here last week by the Maryland Committee for Equal Educational Opportunities.

Howard H. Murphy, chairman of the committee, declared that the practice has been true only in the law school.

He said that Negro applicants to other graduate schools have been refused through "various subterfuges," and also pointed out that in some cases, the university had failed to reply to Negro applicants.

The regents' statement denied racial discrimination in graduate school admission. It was issued after an all-day hearing on the advisability of setting up Negro graduate schools.

Murphy said that the regents' announcement should result in a "cessation of discrimination in the future" and that his group welcomed it as "a declaration of policy."
