

HAMPTON PIRATES CLASH WITH 'FORCE' IN FISH BOWL GAME

HAMPTON, Va. — Hampton Institute's Pirates will have to pull out all the big assets of the 1948 football season on December 4 if they beat Wilberforce State College's mighty eleven in the first annual Shrine sponsored Fish Bowl Game in Norfolk, Va.

Through Saturday, November 6, with an open date coming up on Nov. 13 — Force had won seven straight games while rolling up 156 points of 19 for the opposition. The team, moyored North Carolina and T. 13-7, Kentucky State College, 20-3; Tuskegee Institute, 36-6, Atlanta College, 7-0; Tennessee State College, 26-7, in the Washington D. C. "National Classic"; Lincoln University, 13-6; and Shawnee State College, 41-0.

Coach Gaston (Country) Lewis will put on the field such men as Buck Walker, Sellers, who scored 176 touchdowns in 12 games since such teams as Tennessee, West Virginia State, Gainesville and Lincoln and last year received Little America honorable mention. Halfback Paul Ford, considered the team's fastest running back, co-captains Adam McElroy, 203-pound tackle, and Ray Carter, little quarterback, were Carter, 225-pound tackle, the center, and Kenneth Blackmon, a former All-American at twice an All-Midwest selection. Wilberforce, however, will have the best defensive line of the more Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Scap Lewis and Ray Lewis at ends, Bill Corbin and Al-American Tom Rial at tackles, powerful Luther Goodall and 232-pound John Stinson at guard; and Louie (Red) Williams at center. In all, Lovett and Raymond Payton, Hampton has a couple of backs who are averaging six yards a try on scrimmage at midseason, an around quarterback and an all-around kicker in Jim Dillard, and two fullbacks in Lloyd Poole and Bill Christian, the captain.

Although Wilberforce has much more impressive overall record, the visitor can afford to forget that the Pirates beat A and T. Team Wilberforce topped 13-7 by score of 21-6.

RATTLES AND FLA. JAGUARS TO TANGLE NOV. 20

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Two of the finest football aggregations in the nation will be seen in battle when the undefeated Florida A. and M. College Rattlers tackle the undefeated Jaguars of Southern University at Scottsdale, La., November 20, in a game which may prove the national grid champion of the season.

Both teams have gone through their 1948 season without a taste of defeat and both have high hopes of continuing to keep their team in the dwindling ranks of the undefeated. Who will remain unscathed is the question.

Bolstering the Rattlers attack will be the "scorpio-like" Ulysses "Crazy-legs" Curtis who has 78 points to his credit. James "Big Jim" Williams, Ace Rattler quarterback, may be missing from the Rattler offense because of injuries. Bernard Stephens, halfback, and Ulysses Harley, fullback, are sure to give thrilling exhibitions. Other backs to watch will be Oscar Norman, freshman sensation; Elman Wilkens, elusive and pounding fullback; and John Force, nondescript fullback.

The Florida forward wall will be strong with the fury of the fighting seven led by Wilbur Gary, All-American center, and co-captain along with Williams of the team. Making a great stand on the line will be Lonnie Wootten and Theodore Primus, guards; Dennis Goodrum and Edward Clark, tackles; and Tom Poole and Bradley Mitchell, ends. Helping out on the line and terrible in their attack will be the Fighting Fair brothers, Matthew and Joseph, who are crushing in their guard positions, along with Eugene Breton, Clarence Montgomery, Abraham Brown and Costa Kittles.
