NEW YORK CITY — Plans for the violent overthrow of the United States government and the establishment of a vast Negro state in the heart of the Southland were described Tuesday by William O. Nowell, a former official of the Communists party.

The ex-official, and one-time employee of the Ford Motor Co. at Detroit, was testifying before

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina in the trial of eleven of the nation's top Communists for alleged conspiracy to bring about the forced overthrow of the United States Government through force and violence.

According to Nowell's testimony the master plan for the American Communists called for the forced overthrow of the government, the "liquidation" of all who opposed, and the setting up of a vast "Negro State" which would extend from Virginia to the Mississippi Delta.

This latter phase of the program, according to Nowell, had to his break with the Communists because of his dislike for their plans for the establishment of racial segregation under the "new order" which the Communists advocated.

Nowell, who received special training in revolutionary techniques, party doctrine and other aspects of the Communist program in Russia, declared that after he broke with the party he was forced out of his job at Ford's by the Communists.

In 1934, he said, he was attacked and then made a party com-

STATE TEACHERS
WIND UP PARLEY
KEEP PRESIDENT

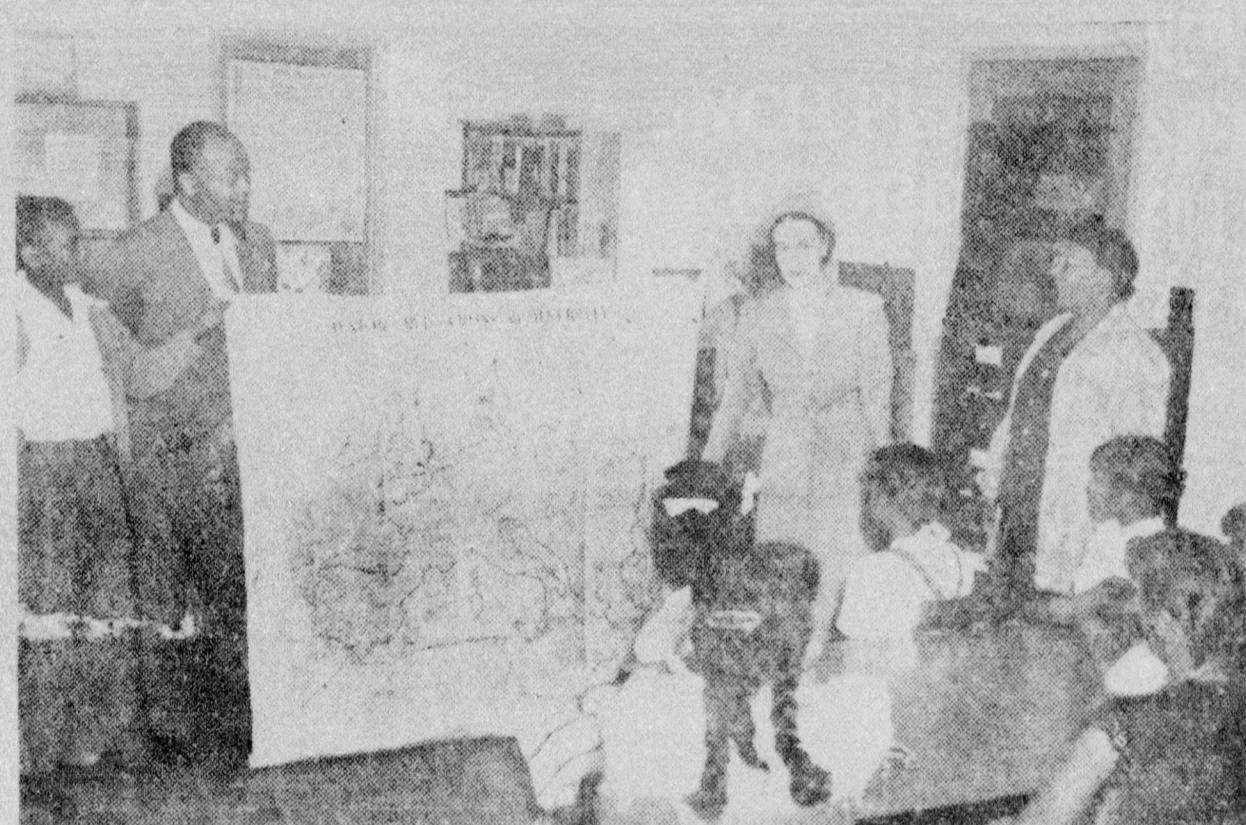

CHARLOTTE — The reelection of H. V. Brown as president, an address by Mrs. M. E. Tilly, Atlanta church woman and member of the President's Committee on Civil Rights, and adoption of a new constitution were the highlights of the sixty-eighth annual convention of the North Carolina Teachers Association at Charlotte last weekend.

Mr. Brown, principal of the Dilapidated High School at Goldsboro, succeeded himself as president of the state teachers' organization by virtue of an election which found him running comfortably ahead of M. D. Williams, the opposing candidate for the post.

Other officers who were elected by the body included A. H. Anderson, Winston-Salem, vice-president; Miss Willie M. Jeffries, Northampton Co., recording secretary; and the Rev. H. S. Davis, principal of Mary Potter of Oxford, treasurer.

Three new members were added to the organization's executive committee to replace those whose terms had expired. These were: C. L. Blake, Charlotte; Dr. F. D. Blum.

AMEZ's Conduct Easter Checkup

BY WM. STEELE

The Easter Check-Up session of the Central U. S. Conference of collection was taken to the amount of $75,000. Bishop Watson then made an appeal for Andrew's Chapel Church on the circuit. Monday, April 19th, Bishop E. B. Watson predicted the response was generous, a large for a one day session, representatives being present — both ministerial and lay — from a majority of stations and churches of the conference.

After devotional services highlighted by a soul-stirring sermon by Bishop Watson, a conference of the AME Zion Church met at Andrew's Chapel Church on the circuit. Monday, April 19th, Bishop E. B. Watson predicted the response was generous, a large for a one day session, representatives being present — both ministerial and lay — from a majority of stations and churches of the conference.

During the session, Presiding Elder T. J. Young presented to the church $50,000 set aside at the Annual Conference for them, making a total of $150,000 which was formally presented to the trustees for the ministry in trial demonstration at Tillotson College in Austin.

Clerk had to become a member of a church in that denomination before he could become a minister. The nearest Negro Presbyterian U. S. church in Texas is in Houston, so the local white church voted to admit him here.

Where does he live?" "Oh, about seven miles out, but I saw him in town a couple of hours ago, maybe they can tell you over at the City Market where he is now. He had his wife and his grandchild with him."

According to Mrs. Brown, the family had received two threats which excavation work was being done last June that they would never be allowed to move into the neighborhood. She said three men told her husband, "We don't want

Housing Bill Halted By Segregation Ban

WASHINGTON — The introduction of an amendment to bar segregation in housing projects built with Federal funds this week split Republican ranks in the Senate. The long-range Federal measure designed to meet the nation's need for more and better housing.

The amendment was introduced by Republican Senators Bricker of Ohio and Cain of Washington. The sharp debate, which followed, found the Republicans battling among themselves over a question of civil rights while Southern Democrats just sat back and watched.

Senator Capenert of Indiana urged adoption of the amendment which was bitterly opposed by Senators Taft of Ohio and Thyne of Minnesota.

They said that the issue raised here has been no discrimination but one of fighting for the amendment in its own state in the matter of public housing.

Taft claimed that there is no Taft on page 8, this section

When 13-year-old Clark won a scholarship by the young people's department of the Oak Cliff church.

When he finished high school in 1945, this group, knowing he wanted to be a minister, sent him to Stetson Institute, a two year school in Alabama.

Clark's father died by the time he graduated, and he sought aid at school. The white church young people encouraged him to continue his study at Tillotson College in Austin.

On the trip out, the rabby declared, "You're a lucky man to have had enough money to fight the case. A lot of men have been gassed for things they didn't do just because they just didn't have money. I'm mighty glad to see him out he did a lot of things for everybody."
