SENATE DEFEATS JIMCROW BAN IN SCHOOL AID BILL

WASHINGTON — Efforts to write an anti-segregation amendment to the nation's $60 million federal aid to education bill were given a sharp defeat in the United States Senate on Tuesday. The amendment, introduced by Republican Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, would have denied funds provided by the measure to states which require separate schools for white and Negro students. The Massachusetts Senator introduced the amendment with the declaration that passage of the bill without such a safeguard would amount to federal aid to segregation, since it would enable many southern states to continue to operate dual school systems. Other friends of the amendment pointed out that recent Supreme Court decisions have held that such a provision would be unconstitutional. (Continued on page 8, this section)

CAMPAIGN WAS WELL ORGANIZED — Above is shown one of the 65 cars which were used by supporters of Dr. W. P. Devane to transport voters to the polling places. Groups such as this one above were carried from their homes to the polls and then on to their jobs in one of the best organized campaigns in the history of the city's residents.

MORON NAMED NEW PRESIDENT OF HAMPTON

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The Board of Trustees of Hampton Institute today unanimously elected Atorzo G. Moron, President of the College. The 1947 graduate of the institution had been Acting President since October. Dr. Channing H. Tobias, Chairman of the Board, issued the following statement: "I have been associated with many committees in my time, but never have I been associated with a committee that has taken its work more seriously and done its work more faithfully than the committee on the nomination of a new president for Hampton Institute. This committee is composed of representatives of the Board of Trustees, the Faculty, and the Alumni. For more than a year this

7 Meet Defeat in N.C. Council Tries

Dr. W. P. Devane, Fayetteville physician, was swept into office as a member of that city's city council Tuesday on the crest of one of the heaviest rallies in the history of the city. Dr. Devane, whose popularity among the Negro residents of the city had virtually assured his election before the ballots were even received, received greater support as the result of an attempt to bring him to withdraw from the race. Following an unusually heavy Negro turnout, the candidate was appointed by an incident. The man who offered him $10,000 to abandon the Council race, where he had the grounds that it would only bring additional work to the city while he would remain a member of the city council. Although the vote would not say whom the representative placed a sum of money on the table and kept opposing $10,000, which would have Dr. Devane's name on the ballot. In Raleigh, Charles A. Hayes, a former member of the city council, was the favorite among the field of about a dozen candidates for the city council. Other Negro candidates for all terms of city council posts met with defeat in Durham, where he

Negroes Barred, Picket Tex. Gov.

AMSTON, Tex. (AP) — Texas Gov. Beauford Jester today urged one member of the group, which included 11 white students from the University of Texas. Spokemen for the mixed body were Sheffield Quarles, Bishop and David Williams, told the governor that Negroes are not looking for a fight, but citizens of the state. At the university, the application of the state's anti-segregation law is being made. Their petition for educational facilities at the University of Texas is being made. The state and senate made no attempt to offer any kind of recognition of the 75 man facilities because they would not group when it appeared in the

COMMITTEE REPORTS LYNCH BILL TO HOUSE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first of the civil rights bills, starting on its usual journey through Congress, was given a stamp of approval by the Senate Judiciary subcommittee with a vote of 11-7. The dissenting vote was cast by Sen. James O. Eastland, Democrat of Mississippi. Those voting for the measure were Sens. Harry M. Kilgore (D., W. Va.), chairman of the subcommittee; Homer Ferguson (R., Mich.); Frank C. Donner (D., Mo.); and Herbert R. O'Connor (D., Md.). The bill is expected to go before the full committee next week, but there is no indication as to when it will finally reach the floor, even if it is approved by the full committee.

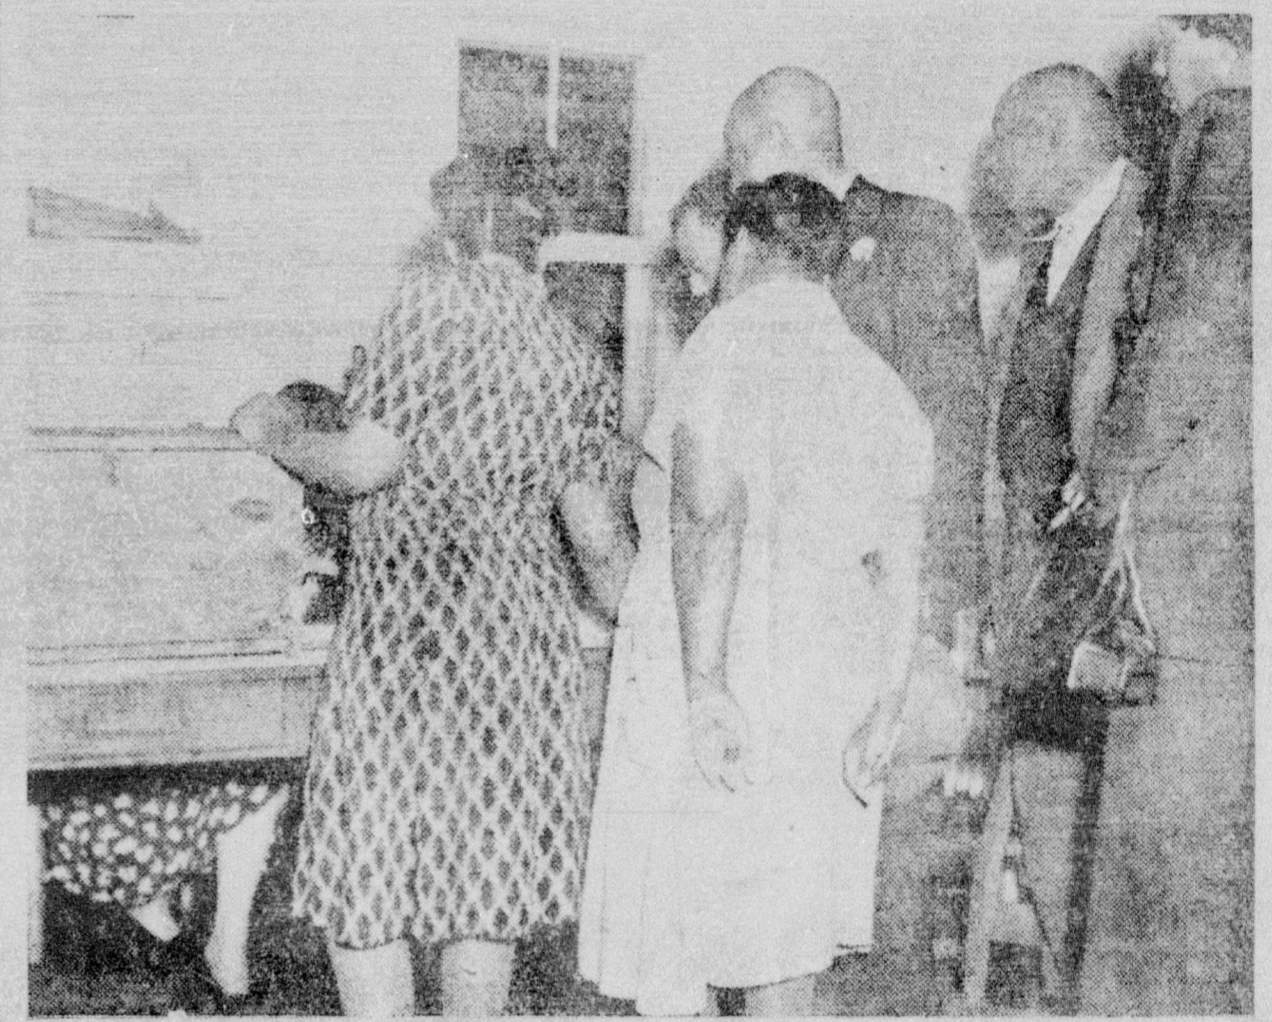

This bill will subject to federal prosecution any state or local official failing to take all reasonable steps to prevent lynchings and other acts of racial violence. It also provides for the appointment of a special attorney to investigate lynchings and other acts of racial violence. HERE WERE THE USUAL DISCUSSIONS — During a poll in the voting supplies of the various candidates gathered for the polls to discuss the merits of this or that candidate to present the outcome of the election and to give their versions of how things could be done better. Above, W. A. Fuller makes a pretty powerful argument for support of Governor Scott's Roads program to L. T. Lightner, James I. Williams, Thomas Wade, Samuel Clemens and George Henderson as they keep an eye on the voting at the 16th precinct.

FIFTEENTH PRECINCT VOTERS — Some of the residents of Raleigh's Fifteenth Precinct are shown as they prepared to cast their ballot in the city's cumulative election which was held Tuesday. During the primary which was held on April 25, Mrs. Josephine Davis, second from left, was brought to the polling place in an ambulance since she had just undergone an operation. On Tuesday, however, she was able to utilize more conventional means of transportation. Others in the group include Mrs. Lennie Dunston, William Drake, Claude J. Jones, and Miss Pearl Wortham.

HERE WAS PLENTY DOING IN FAYETTEVILLE — In Fayetteville, where the heaviest registration in the city's history was followed up by a determined and successful drive to elect Dr. W. P. Devane as the city's first Negro city councilman, voters swamped the election officials. (Photo courtesy of Fayetteville Observer)
