

Ouana Wins Cheers At World Premiere

BY THEODORE CHAS. STONE

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — The world premiere of "Ouana," an opera in three acts, based on the Haitian story of John F. Kennedy's father, was given a hearty welcome by a notable audience in the Central High school auditorium here last Friday and Saturday evening.

Distinguished musicians, artists and various leaders from all walks of life gathered here to witness the much talked-of opera which drew a large group of singers and musicians in a highly satisfactory manner.

Dr. White shared honors with Zigmund George-Gaska, the conductor, in directing the South Bend Opera orchestra, which provided the support for the cast, chorus and dancers.

Leading roles were sung by Ruth Reese, contralto; Carmen Male branch, soprano; a native of Port Au Prince; Fritz Vincent, baritone; a native of Port Au Prince; Earl Thompson, Lemmyou Amoureux, tenor; Ollie Mae Grayson, George Toole, J. W. Slinger and Mildred Williams. The Katherine Flowers dancers of Chicago and Vernon Duncan, also of Chicago provided the dances.

The presentation was made by the Harry T. Burlingame Music Association. Mrs. Josephine M. Curtis, music director; James Lewis Casady, was the stage director and the Partners assisted with the lighting and the costumes.

At the conclusion of the performance Dr. White, Mr. Mathews and Mrs. Curtis were given a prolonged ovation.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR — Benjamin (Boony) Friedman, All-American football immortal who has just been appointed director of Athletic Activities at Eastern University.

JOHN W. PARKER
STREAMLINES COLONY — General Manager John W. Parker has perfected a job of streamlining Paul Green's symphonic drama "The Lost Colony" which opens in the Waterfront Theatre at Manteo on Roanoke Island, N. C., Saturday night, July 2 for its ninth season. Without lowering the high standards that has made the show one of the most outstanding outdoor productions in the world, Parker has cut corners which observers believe will make this season, the most successful from a financial and attendance standpoint.

POWELL URGES PROLONGING OF CONGRESS MEET

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I believe that both houses of Congress should stay in session through this hot old Washington weather until at least one of the bills made by each of the political parties is carried out — and I believe the FEPC should be the one," declared Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., last Tuesday night.

This district was made on the American banner of the FEPC, the most important network of the Mutual Broadcasting system where Congressman Powell debated with Congressman O. C. Fisher, D-Tex., on the question as to whether there should be a federal FEPC.

Congressman Fisher, opposed FEPC legislation on the grounds that such a measure was only an attempt to create a Bureau in Washington which would dictate to the little merchant down on Main street as to whom he should or should not employ.

Such a measure might soon be taking the employer for whom it should or should not work, contended Fisher.

"The rank and file of the American people oppose this bill," stated the Texan.

"I don't know who you consider the rank and file," declared Powell as he pointed out that every major religious organization in America, Catholic, Protestant and Jewish had gone on record favoring the bill. FEPC legislation was included in both the Democrat and Republican platforms. All of the labor unions, CIO, AFL and the National Brotherhood have testified before the subcommittee favoring fair employment legislation. Eleven states with approximately 65 million people or half States now have FEPC legislation of the population of the United on their statute books.

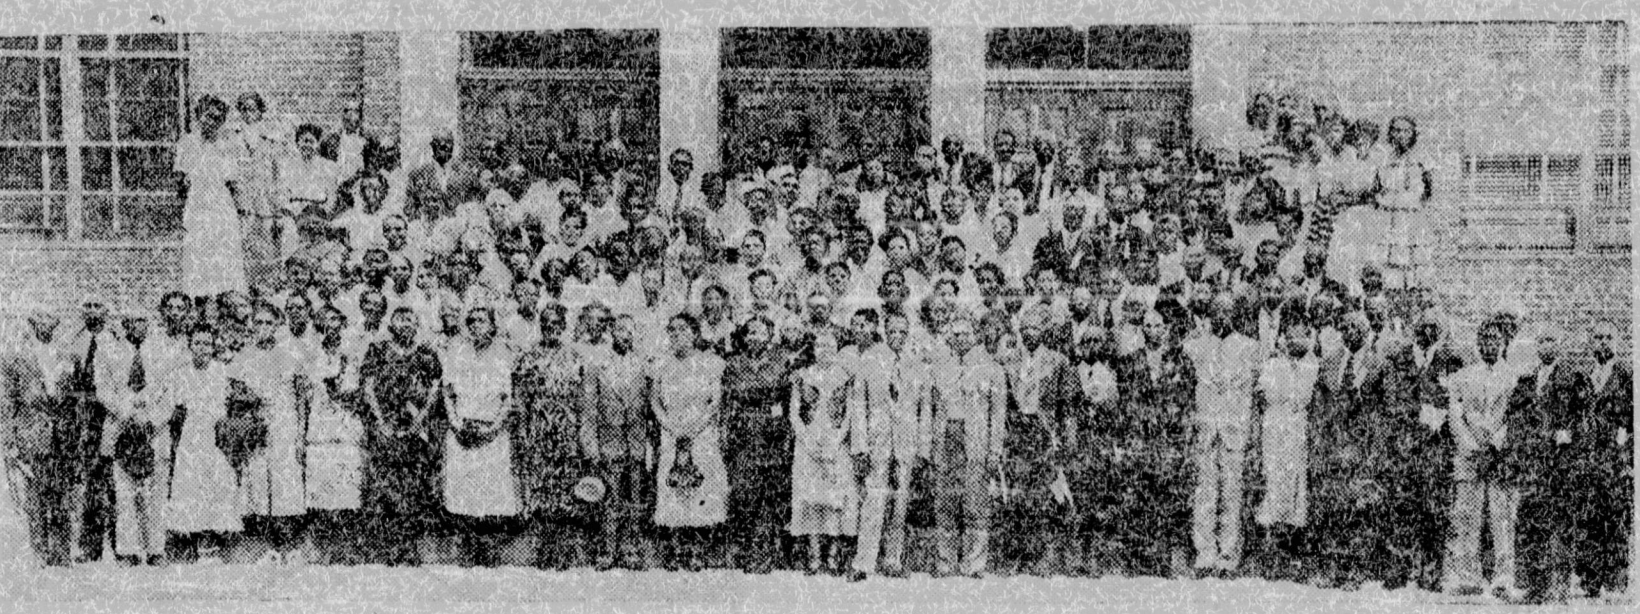

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

NEW YORK (AP) — Miss Ruth M. Graham of Corona, Queens, was awarded a $150 scholarship to Yassar college last week. Miss Ruth is a member of the board of directors of the National Yassar Club, New York and is a member of the Yassar Club of Queens.

DIZZY LAUDS JACKIE

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Although Brooklyn's clubhouse winning streak came to an end here against the Cardinals, baseball fans in this border-line Major League city have hailed Jackie Robinson as one of the most valuable men in the National League.

One of Jackie's greatest admirers is Dizzy Dean. Said the former St. Louiser: "Robinson and Stan Musial are the best but players in the league."

MINISTERS AND MISSIONARIES MEET AT SHAW

The Annual Ministers' Institute and Missionary Training Conference was held last week at Shaw University. The conference offered a full program of instruction, spiritual messages, and planned recreation. Delegates and conference leaders are pictured above.

In the center on the front row are officers, teachers, and featured speakers on the institute program. They include Mrs. J. E. McGrier (8th from left), supervisor of the Junior Department, and from left to right, Mrs. Ellen S. Alston, Conference Chairman; Dean William R. Strasser of the Shaw University School of Religion; Mrs. Robert P. Daniel, Miss Ann W. Ferber, and Mrs. S. D. Calloway, conference instructors; Dr. C. L. Franklin of Brooklyn, N. Y., Institute lecturer; President Robert F. Daniel; Dr. N. L. Scarborough, president of Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention; Dr. J. T. Hainston, institute chairman; the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, Gateville, Institute Speaker, and the Rev. O. L. Sherrill, Raleigh, secretary of the Institute.

TARHEEL ROUNDUP

THE TRUTH HURTS

Raleigh — Edward Hudson is one driver who tells the truth. Police investigated an accident at 328 Fayetteville Street and found that a 1938 Pontiac sedan, operated by Hudson, had collided with a parked Ford pickup truck, owned by Otto Reed of 1221 Fayetteville Street. The truck was knocked about 45 feet across the sidewalk and into a concrete wall, resulting in an estimated damage of $100. The Pontiac was not so badly damaged and no one was injured.

When asked if anything happened to cause him to hit the truck, which he said was properly parked at the curb in front of the residence, Hudson replied: "Nothing happened. It was just careless."

Hudson was arrested for reckless driving.

SENTENCED FOR KNIFE ASSAULT

Raleigh — James Horton, of 228 West North Street, was sentenced to 12 months on the road for assault with a deadly weapon. He was convicted of cutting Leon Miller, Jr., of 15 West Johnston Street, with a knife during an argument over one dollar that he owed him. Miller testified that he was cut three times across the back.

Bruce Holland, of 308 1-2 W. South Street, got 30 days suspended on payment of $25 and cost for assault and battery on Ames Womble, of the same address. Holland was ordered to pay cost of repairs to Womble's glasses.

FAMILY FEUDS

Albemarle — An entire family went out to get a member of another in the rural area a few miles southwest of here last Saturday afternoon.

Police reported that Mattie Lee Ruffin gathered her boy and girl and two friends from the streets of the city and together they marched on the home of Jeannah and Louis Williams, three miles northwest of here to "get" James Revell.

Revell had allegedly dropped the word that he was responsible for the death of Mrs. Ruffin's son, Clarence Ruffin, Jr., whose death was reported on June 2, 1949.

ELLEN S. ALSTON, CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN

Chairman, Dean William R. Strasser of the Shaw University School of Religion; Mrs. Robert P. Daniel, Miss Ann W. Ferber, and Mrs. S. D. Calloway, conference instructors; Dr. C. L. Franklin of Brooklyn, N. Y., Institute lecturer; President Robert F. Daniel; Dr. N. L. Scarborough, president of Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention; Dr. J. T. Hainston, institute chairman; the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, Gateville, Institute Speaker, and the Rev. O. L. Sherrill, Raleigh, secretary of the Institute.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

A beautiful complexion is your most precious charm. You know there is something about a lovely skin that attracts attention and admiration.

People with sallow colorless faces, who look pale and drawn may find their red blood cells are weak, puny and faded caused by the lack of Calcium, Vitamins B and Iron; then too, a loss of blood may cause your color to fade. These conditions are observed very often in young girls and middle-aged women.

Of course, continued pallor may, come from other causes—see your doctor regularly—but don't wait! Start taking HADACOL now—and as vigorous blood carrying the 5 B Vitamins and Minerals (Iron, Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese) surges throughout your whole body, bringing these nourishing elements to your vital organs, digestive system, heart, lungs, kidneys, and to your skin, to repair or to replace the cells and tissues that have been sickly. Then greater freshness and new pep should make you look better, and have a healthy looking complexion with firm flesh filling out hollow places.

No matter where you live, no matter who you are, and if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation a trial. Easy to take, pleasant to taste.

Get a bottle today from your drug store—HADACOL. Take HADACOL to reclaim your healthy color, your enjoyment of life. Yes, to look your level best, take HADACOL. Trial Size only $1.25—Large Family Economy Size $3.50.
