CLAIM CHILD SPOKE WHEN SIX WEEKS OLD

Six-month-old William Brown, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown of Roanoke Rapids is an unusual child in that he has four grandparents and four great-grandparents living but according to his parents he has an even greater claim to fame in that he spoke two words when he was only six weeks old.

The youngster's parents do not say what the two words were, but they did give the names of little William's grandparents who are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Steane, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Winfield, great-grandparents; Mrs. B. C. S. Lynch, 99-years old, great-grandmother and George Siegel, great-grandfather.

PITTSBORO TID BITS

BY I. E. TAYLOR

Miss Waybelle Pattisall has recently returned from a very enjoyable visit with her sister, Mrs. Athelene Wofford of Washington, D. C.

A surprise shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ohio Wicker of Goldston last Friday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turner who recently announced their marriage. Mrs. Turner has served as home economics teacher of Horton High School for the last six years and Mr. Turner is the farm agent for Chatham Co. Mr. and Mrs. Ted R. Edwards were the house guests over the holiday weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wakesey. The Edwards live in Siler City.

Misses Nellie and Lilla Bland and their friends of Raleigh motored up on the holiday and spent the day with their mother, Mrs. Sophie Bland and other members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniel Honeycutt spent the week-end with Mrs. Honeycutt's mother and grand-mother, Mrs. Martha Busch and Mrs. Gertrude Lutterloh. The people of the city are spending some pleasant moments as they gather each evening at Mrs. Busch's Sweet Shop.

The 83rd anniversary of Stanton Temple CME Church gets underway next week, and there will be religious services each night. Several well known pastors will take part in the program, and all the friends and neighbors are invited to the services each night.

The Usher Board of Mt. Sinai A.M.E. Church is up and hustling to go over the top in the new church building program now going on. These young people have served notice that they are doing their part in the project.

ATOMICS WINNING STREAK UNBROKEN

Postponement and rain cancelled two of the Atomics' games for the week-end but on Monday they kept their winning streak intact by edging the strong Asheboro club 9 to 8 in the ninth inning.

"Prof" Dark started on the mound for the Atomics and fanned six and gave up two hits, but sloppy support allowed the visitors to pull ahead in the fourth inning 8 to 4.

"Tobacco Chewing" Horton relieved Dark and held the visitors while his mates pushed over five more runs in remaining innings. Horton fanned six and "Long Boy" Fuch got the only homer in the game. Garner was on the mound for Asheboro.

Postal Bias Case Heard By U.S. FEPC

WASHINGTON—Fifteen Negro complainants who charged they were denied employment as postal clerks in New Orleans solely because of their race were represented this week before the Federal Fair Employment Board by Clarence Mitchell, labor secretary of the NAACP; William C. Jaxon, welfare director of the National Alliance of Postal Employees; and Arthur J. Chapin, a national officer of the Alliance.

Testimony showed that Negroes have not only been denied appointment while less qualified whites were hired for postal clerk jobs, but also pointed out that Negro employees have for forty years been denied supervisory appointments despite high qualifications and many years of seniority.

Post office policy on this point was made clear by the introduction of a letter from Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson to Senator J. Howard McGrath, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in which the post office official stated that in almost all cases it is post office practice to appoint the senior qualified men to supervisory jobs.

Several Negro applicants for jobs testified that they had been denied appointment while whites with bad records were appointed. The NAACP labor secretary revealed that New Orleans postal officials when confronted with this charge, had declared that they passed over Negro applicants "for good and sufficient reasons."

The Poet's Speak
A day of joy a week of pain
A sunny day a week of rain
A day of peace, a year of strife
But cling to him, it's all thru life.

An hour of joy, a day of fears
An hour of smiles, a day of tears
An hour of gain, a day of strife
Press on, press on, it's all thru life.

OXFORD FUNERAL RITES HELD FOR MRS. E. REED

OXFORD — Mrs. Esther Ridley Reed, daughter of the late Rhoda Young Ridley, who died in New York City June 17, was buried here in her native Oxford, Wednesday, June 22.

Mrs. Reed was well known throughout the educational circles of this country. A graduate of Shaw University, she completed her post graduate work at Columbia University in New York City. For years she was assistant principal of the West Street High School of New Bern. She also taught at Houston College, Houston, Texas; Shaw University, her Alma Mater, and when she became ill, was guidance counsellor for the New York City Welfare department.

Her interest and influence were likewise felt in the civic world for she was one of the first women to serve on the New York City Municipal jury, and at one time was president of the State Federation of Women in her own North Carolina.

Funeral rites were held at the Mount Olivet Baptist Church of New York where Dr. O. Clay Maxwell is pastor and at the First Baptist Church of Oxford, where the Rev. Theodore Brooks is pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Brooks conducted an eulogistic form of service in order that the many tributes of love and respect coming from the various sources might be heard. The Rev. George W. Watkins, former pastor of the Oxford Baptist Church and a schoolmate of the deceased paid a glowing tribute to her rare and worthy values.

Mrs. G. C. Shaw wife of the late Dr. G. C. Shaw, spoke of her early school life. Prof. Warner Cannady, a classmate of the deceased at Shaw spoke of her outstanding qualities of character and scholarship.

The Rev. G. E. Cheek of Shaw spoke as a representative of the president and faculty of Shaw. Dr. H. S. Davis, principal of Mary Potter Academy of Oxford, made remarks. The Rev. O. D. Stanley of Durham read the Scriptures and the Rev. C. C. Staton, of Weldon offered the invocation.

The obituary was read by Miss Marguerite Frierson of Augusta, Ga. Resolutions from the Shaw Club of Oxford, of which Dr. E. E. Toney is president was read by Mrs. Cornelia Broady, along with other resolutions coming from Mt. Olivet Sunday School of New York City, The Missionary Circle of Oxford, N. C., The Bethlehem Baptist Church of Seaboard and the Timotheon Bible Class of the First Baptist Church of Raleigh.

A tribute of respect and devotion in the form of a paper coming from a friend of the deceased, Mrs. B. H. Rogers, was read by Mrs. B. M. Redding. A solo was delivered by Mrs. Bessie Perry Taylor.

Interment took place at the Ridley Family Cemetery. The many beautiful floral offerings bore mute testimony of the love and esteem in which the deceased was held.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. C. W. Young of Seaboard, N. C., Mrs. Elma Green and Ruth Statham of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Elizabeth E. Chavis of Oxford, and two brothers, Frank P. Ridley of Raleigh and J. H. Ridley of New York City.

Among the out of town friends attending were The Rev. C. C. Staton and the Rev. N. K. Dunn of Weldon, Mrs. S. C. Calvert, and Mrs. Esther Barnes of Seaboard, Misses Maude Freeman and Lillian Moore of Fayetteville, Miss Marguerite Frierson of Augusta, Ga., and Mrs. Jemina Pratt of Raleigh.

Mr. Mitchell challenged the rule of the Fair Employment Board denying the public admission to hearings of this kind, asserting that this secrecy provides special protection for government officials who discriminate.

OHIO GIRL "GOV." DENIED D. C. TRIP

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Joan Rankin, 16-year-old girl elected "governor" of Ohio by the Buckeye Girls' State, and other girls elected to offices must stay home during the annual Girls' Nation in Washington, D.C., because of the discrimination in the nation's capital.

Mrs. Leslie M. Merritt, educational head of the program sponsored by the American auxiliary, said the decision was made to save the Cincinnati Girl from "embarrassment" posed by social discrimination in Washington.

The Ohio house of representatives is considering a resolution condemning the step taken by the auxiliary, and the Washington American Veterans committee has invited Joan to be its guest during Girls' Nation as a result of this situation.

Led by the Ohio State Democratic league a number of other organizations, both local and national are asking the American legion to help fight jimcrow in the nation's capital.

Also joining in the support of Miss Rankin are the national N. A. A. C. P. plus the Ohio state, Columbus, and Cincinnati chapters of the NAACP.

Negro Girls' State officers were elected in two or three other states. Whether they plan to send their to the Girls' Nation or not has not been publicized.

AFRICAN MISSIONARY VISITS COUNTRY FOR FIRST TIME IN 36 YRS.

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Albert Schweitzer, world-renowned medical missionary, musician and philosopher, debarked from the Holland-American liner, Nieuw Amsterdam here last week on his first visit to this country since he decided 36 years ago to abandon a career as a musician and philosophical writer to work with African natives.

Now 74, the doctor heads a hospital at Lamarene in French Equatorial Africa, which is engaged in caring for natives stricken with leprosy.

"When I return to Africa," he said in speaking of his work, "we are going to try a program for leprosy, using the latest American discoveries. We have 150 lepers now and it is a difficult problem, as they must be kept upward of a year and they come to the hospital with their wives, children, dogs and chickens.

Dr. Schweitzer is attending the Goethe bicentennial celebration at Aspen, Col., where he is scheduled to deliver an address.

"Our program for farm prosperity should also seek to expand the domestic market for agricultural products, particularly among low income groups, and to increase and stabilize foreign markets."
