

GREENVILLE

ABOUT THE TOWN . . .

An increase of five in the number of teachers for Pitt County Negro schools boosting the total to 154 elementary school teachers and 25 high school teachers was announced last week.

Organization of the Teen Age Companion Club was completed Sunday, July 16. The organizers were: Alvin Cherry, chairman; Vera Smith, Sarah Wilcox, and William T. Wilcox.

The officers include: William E. Cherry, president; F. Curtis, vice president; Gloria Thomas, secretary; Maime L. Reddett, assistant secretary, and Marjorie Ross, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ellison and son, John Lloyd, have recently returned from New York after spending some time with their cousin, Miss Novella Johnson.

The Vacation Reading Club at the George Washington Carver Library has been largely attended for the past week, but the librarian is asking more children to enroll and read for the prize.

All children are eligible, there are no dues. Only come any Thursday at 4 p.m. and enroll. Register as a reader and begin reading, after you have read five books and report on them you will receive a silver star.

When you have read fifteen books you are eligible for a certificate, and will receive a gold star. The person who reads the greatest or highest number of books will be given a prize. First, second, and third prizes, will be given. The librarian, Mrs. Bebe Maye Atkinson, will be glad at all times to help you with your selection of books.

Miss Mamie Leigh Garetto, and her sister, Ann Elvon Garrette are vacationing in New York. Miss Mattie Lee Forbes, and Miss Irma Jean Taylor left Saturday for Belmar, New Jersey. The Sycamore Hill Baptist Sunday School is taking its annual picnic at the Cooper's Beach, Wednesday. All Sunday School members will be taken free, children and adults.

Milk cows on North Carolina farms produced an estimated 150 million pounds of milk during May. This is the highest production record for the month of May and equals the previous record monthly production set in August, 1944.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT PUGH

Candlelight Rites Mark Local Wedding

Miss Annie Brown, the daughter of Mrs. Evangeline Brown Chance, became the bride of Herbert Pugh at a simple but impressive candlelight ceremony which was conducted Friday evening by the Rev. P. H. Mumford at the home of the bride's parents.

The bridal couple were attended by Mrs. Charles Shivers and Mack Daniels who served as matron of honor and best man. Arthur L. Norcott and Mr. Anna L. Whitehurst provided a program of wedding music.

Mrs. Pugh was given in marriage by Willie J. Hester. She was attired in a powder blue crepe dress with pink accessories. The matron of honor wore a pink crepe street length dress with gloves to match.

The ushers were Charles Shivers and Arthur Midgett. Mr. Chance, the mother of the bride, wore a black and white bevered crepe dress.

Mrs. Chance and Miss Queenie Jones, cousin of the bridegroom, were hostesses at a reception which followed the ceremony.

The bride attended the Greenville High School and is also a graduate of DeSnoor's Beauty College of Durham. The groom is a graduate of the Kinston city schools.

The couple plans to live at 907 Cherry Street following a brief honeymoon trip.

FLORIDA GETS A NEW LAWYER

TAMPA (ANP) — Florida has a new lawyer, William A. Fordham, a graduate of Lincoln University (Mo.) Law school this year and a resident of Marion County, was admitted to the Florida bar as an attorney on a certificate of graduation from Lincoln University, without having to take the written examination.

There are very few colored lawyers in Florida despite the fact that it admits its residents, who have graduated from schools which are members of the Association of American Law School, without a written test. Fordham, a veteran is married and has two children. He has opened offices in the Anderson building.

NACG TO MEET IN ST. LOUIS

St. LOUIS (ANP) — The National Association of Colored Girls will hold its biennial convention in St. Louis, July 24-27, with headquarters at the Central Baptist Church.

This meeting will mark the first time the NACG has met separately from its parent organization, the National Association of Colored Women.

Workshops, talent night, an oratorical contest, and other activities will highlight the meeting.

A $100 first prize will be given to the winner of the oratorical contest. The subject will be "Civil Rights in America and the Negro." Workshops will present such topics as homemaking, arts and crafts, and social participation.

The NACG was founded by Mrs. Sallie W. Stewart, now president of the group's governing board. Mrs. Margaret Robinson of St. Louis is national supervisor, and Miss Estella M. Turner of Dayton, O., is president.

Hostess groups will be the St. Louis Association of Colored Girls, Miss Marie Ann Carne, president, and the Missouri Association of Colored Girls, Miss Elizabeth Bland, president.

Counsellors to the St. Louis group for the meeting will be Mrs. Maiten, general chairman; Mrs. Emma I. Dickson, co-chairman, and Mrs. Clothilde Bass, president. St. Louis Association of Colored Women.

I'M FROM ALABAMA

BY JOHN HENRIK CLARK FOR ANP

I'm from Alabama—red clay still on m' feet,
 I gotta gal 'n' Alabama, who lives on de Chinaberry route.
 Yeh, I'm from Alabama
 An' dat's nothing t' brag about.
 Don' sen for m' gal 'n' Alabama
 So she kin marry me,
 Gonna brag dat gal t' Harlem
 An' how happy we gonna be
 Gonna build her a house on "Sugar Hill."
 Where day's never fallin' low;
 Yeh, I'm from Alabama.
 But I ain't goin' back no more

SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS ATTEND NYC YWCA PARTY

NEW YORK (ANP) — A gain crowd of 500 students, teachers, and visitors frolicked at the Emma Ransom house reception again last week at a party sponsored by the Emma Ransom house council and Alumnae club of the Harlem Y. W. C. A.

Students and visitors from Africa, Canada, and all parts of the United States attended the ball a summer season must for students since 1926.

Those serving on the party committee were:

Mrs. Minnie L. James, chairman, alumnae club; Miss Maime Watkins, chairman, residence council; Mrs. Virginia Pope, residence director; Mrs. Winnona Boud Logan, chairman, committee of management; and Mrs. Mabelle Williams, executive secretary, Harlem branch YWCA.

COATS BRIEFS

BY ALBERT STEWART

The Coats Clowns came out on the short end of a 112 score in their most recent game with the Piney Level "Hot Spots" who took the lead from start to finish.

The morning crowd at the Clowns' baseball diamond were very disappointed when they saw the Clowns taking the worse beating they have had this year.

Manager M. D. McKay, apparently feeling "mighty low" to see his team take such a sound trouncing amid the boos and catcalls of the fans was completely unable to pull the Clowns out of their slump.

The winning pitcher was Lubbie Smith, while the losing pitcher was Joseph Walden.

Rochell Matthews, the scoremaster seemed a little disturbed over having to keep marking down runs for the Hot Spots while being paid as the Clowns' official scorer.

Each week this column will carry a question, and its writer, Alfred Stewart, will seek to obtain answer from the residents of Coats. Only the two best answers will be printed, however, so try and make yours the best.

This week's question is "Who is the most popular ball player in Coats?"

The answers chosen as the best will appear in next week's paper.

SON OF LINCOLN'S BARBER BURIED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK (ANP) — Sol Johnson, 78, son of a man who was once Abraham Lincoln's barber, was buried here last week following impressive funeral ceremonies at St. Martin's Episcopal church.

Johnson's father, whose name was Sol Johnson, once served as barber to President Abraham Lincoln. He first met Lincoln when he tried in vain to get into the Union army. But was too young. Later, he became the first Negro in the United States to receive a civil service appointment. He was a clerk in the navy department.

The young Johnson also worked in civil service, spending 31 years as an immigration inspector. When he took his examination he made what was then the highest mark ever scored on that test.

While a youth he served a hitch in the navy. Later he attended Howard University where he took pharmacy, a profession he never practiced.

Johnson retired 20 years ago from the immigration service. He was living with his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Blackman, wife of William Webb Blackman, when he died.

Besides Mrs. Blackman, he is survived by four other children, Mrs. Catherine Reinhart, Mrs. Margaret Herbert, Charles Anderson Johnson, and Sol Johnson, Jr., two sisters Mrs. Elizabeth Ewing and Mrs. Beatrice Walker, a niece, Dr. Beatrice Walker, and a nephew, Dr. James Walker, and other relatives.

One of his brothers Will Johnson, was the second husband of Mrs. Eslande Goode, mother of the wife of concert singer Paul Robeson.

Unless freshly harvested sweet corn is precooled before it is loaded into refrigerated trucks, a very large quantity of ice is required to get it to market in good condition, according to tests conducted by two scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The answers chosen as the best will appear in next week's paper.
