

Coach, Squad Losses Harrass N. C. Eagles

By Ronald C. Freeman, Jr.
 DURHAM, N. C. — At a time of the year when the Spitt-T is promoting fashionable controversy, CIAA coaches are facing a somewhat old-fashioned problem.

For Coach Herman H. Riddick at North Carolina College, the question of who will fill the shoes of 27 gridmen stripped from the '49 squad is perplexing, to say the least.

As it replacement worries aren't enough, the Eagles face one of their toughest schedules without the services of former Assistant Coach Floyd Brown, all time N.C. basketball great, who has accepted a position at West Virginia State College.

NO PROMISES

With regard to the coming season, Coach Riddick says, "We're building the team this year as we did in 1947. However, there are no indications that the '49 team will be a duplication of the '47 team."

"I regret more than anything the loss of Coach Brown. He was a fine co-worker and will be hard to replace. He was an unusual individual; he was concerned with the interest and promotion of the SCHOOL first, and with BROWN second.

Fired upon by graduation, ineligibility rules, and scholasticism, the Eagles may find South Carolina State unusually uncooperative on October 1, when the Riddick-men invade Paimetto territory for their opening contest.

The biggest fanciest, and most valuable pair of shoes on the '49 squad belonged to All-American, All-CIAA halfback Carl Galbreath, 166-pounder from Fayetteville, whose June graduation cost the Eagles their leading ground-gainer.

Thomas Allen, 190-pound fullback; Grady Bethel, 153-pound halfback; Albert Jones, 188-pound fullback; James L. Jaeger, 180-pound quarterback; and Charles White, 167-pound quarterback have graduated.

Halfback Curtis Lynch, 203-pounder from Dallas, Texas, will be ineligible this year.

By night, among the gridmen who cover the holes and plug them, the Eagles will miss letterman Jerry L. Coward, 226-pounder from Washington, D. C.; Curtis Woods, 208-pounder from Omaha, Neb.; and Elwood Nichols, 203-pounder; 115 new men will be added to the from Morganville — tackles; Charles Harrison, 174-pounder from Kansas City, Mo.; Willie Moore, 190-pounder from Durham; and John Duckwilder, 185-pounder from Washington, D. C. — ends and William Middleton, 175-pounder from Charleston, S. C., center.

RATTLERS FACE TOUGH SEASON

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The Florida A. and M. College football squad will begin practice September 13.

Head Coach "Jake" Gaither and his staff are very pessimistic about the outcome of the 1949 season. This time they feel that this pessimism is justified because the Rattlers lost 11 men from the 1948 squad and the sad part of the loss is that eight of the men were first stringers. Four were first team of 1948 and the other four were first string defensive men.

Coach Gaither says he doesn't believe there is anything to be done to replace the loss of these lettermen. Coach Gaither and staff have a very great time to build an eleven to fight before they venture out on a tough schedule against very strong opponents.

The Rattlers will have 31 lettermen returning and approximately 115 new men will be added to the roster, including all the Rattler squad should number approximately 60 men.

The Rattlers' 1949 football schedule follows:

October 1, Benedict College; October 8, Fort Valley; October 15, Morris Brown College (Homecoming); October 22, Xavier University; November 5, Tuskegee Institute; November 12, Allen University; November 19, Southern University; December 2, Alcorn State College; December 19, Orange Bowl Stadium, Miami, Fla.

With this line up it is expected that Smith will have the best season for many years.

Cal Irvin will serve as head coach of Basketball and Coach Brayboy will assist him.

CURRY URGES LABOR TO FIGHT COLD WAR TACTICS

Sam Curry, Negro president of the big Chicago Armour Local of the City United Packinghouse Workers this week called on trade unionists to support the National Labor Conference for Peace to be held in Chicago.

The idea for the parley began last May with a plea for peace sent to President Truman by 16 Ohio trade union local leaders. In three months this movement has swelled to giant proportions, with working people across the nation asking for a grass roots conference. Curry appealed for a "workable alliance" with the Soviet Union as the basis for enduring peace.

The national parley of rank and file unionists, sponsored by 300 local union leaders, is aimed at stopping the drive toward a world atomic war of annihilation.

Curry, who works as a coal hauler in the Armour plant here, is chairman of the arrangements committee.

He pointed out that the main appeal of the conference is being made to "the rank-and-file of labor as distinct from the big-wigs, many of whom have already taken their stand in support of the atomic war."

"The struggle of the Negro trade unionists has always been an uphill fight," he said, "but today it is hampered by the backwash of

RAY ROBINSON K.O.'S BELLOISE IN 7TH ROUND

NEW YORK (AP)—A screaming crowd of 28,812 fans saw Ray (Sugar) Robinson, welterweight champion of the world, make a successful bid for a middleweight title but as he battered Steve Belloise into submission in a seven-round knockout.

Some times on the offense, more often on the defense, Robinson outmaneuvered, outboxed, and out-unched his slugger opponent. He won every round except the fourth and fifth, and the bell saved Belloise three times in the bout.

Belloise who came into the ring boasting that he would knock Robinson in seven could not answer the bell for the eighth round, and Robinson was awarded a seventh-round knockout.

A wicked left hook catching Belloise in the side finished him 3 seconds before the bell rang ending the round. The referee counted to five, and his handlers dragged him to his corner. He was still dazed when it was time for the next round to begin. This was the only knockdown of the fight.

In the first round Belloise let his intentions be known immediately by coming out slugging. Robinson, however, fought him toe to toe, and had the better of the exchange at the end of the round.

In the second frame, Robinson mixed up his attack, first battering the body then tuttoing the face of his opponent. He had Belloise in trouble at the end of the round.

By the end of the third round Belloise could hardly stand up. Robinson pummeled him around the ring, and had him all but out as the bell rang. Expecting to finish him in the fourth, Robinson was surprised when Belloise came back strong with a two-listed attack of his own. Robinson was forced to give ground and hold on, but rode with the punches Belloise in the side finished him 3
