

Handsome, styled and budget priced in this new wool-faced, room-sized rug. Woven in a very small, all-over textured design to give the rug a sense of a high piled woven surface, this rug is especially designed for the homemaker who can't afford an all-woven rug. Its high quality back gives it enough resilience to make a rug cushion unnecessary and are one of water, adds the special latch which securely "locks" the rug in place. Shown in beige, rose, burgundy, tan, and blue. The best features is priced as low as $10.00.

divided for silver and lined with tarnish proof velveteen. The bookcase units have adjustable shelves and may be used for books, china, or decorative accessories. Versatile pieces such as these are especially recommended as "Starter" pieces for young marrieds.

One of the clever pieces designed for use with television is this over-sized ottoman which conceals four, sized cushion top. See this and other new and exciting television styles at your favorite furniture store during HOME FASHION TIME.

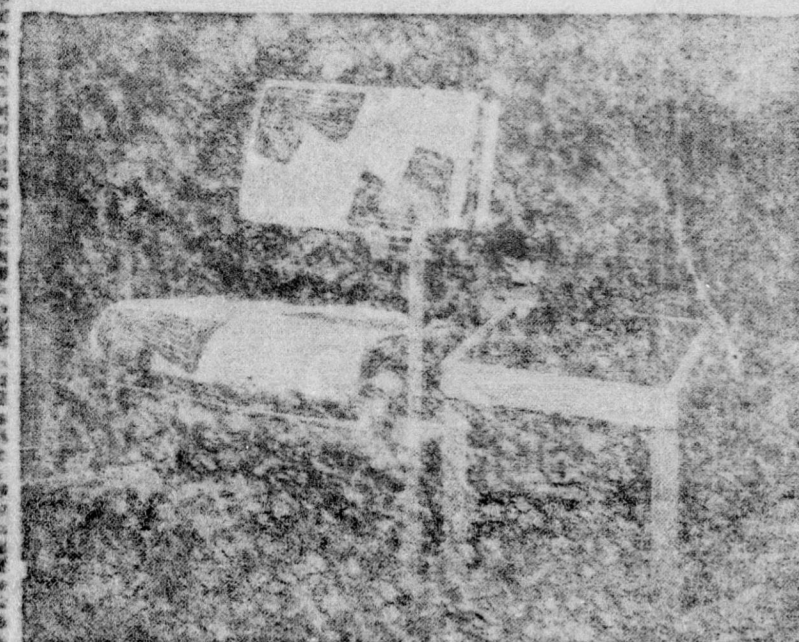

The versatility of the newest occasional pieces is demonstrated by these fashion-wise "Madonnas". The breakfast shown at the right is composed of the units shown in the living room wall grouping. The cabinet unit contains adjustable shelves, and a tier of drawers which are Here, a sunroom has been converted into a cozy den-guest room for your round use. The studio couch, which opens into a double bed, is covered in a crisp and white striped fabric to match the floor-length draperies. Inexpensive rattan chairs and tables, a pair of tall table lamps for good reading light, and a grass matting rug complete this charming room.

This beautifully textured carpeting with a hand-made look is a wonderful background for any type of furnishings because its simplicity is timeless. Shown only in 9 foot widths it is available in the smartest new decorative-appeal colors including: Dorskin beige, Woodland rose, Dover gray, and Powder green.

Detachable cushions are the big feature of this good-looking modern armchair. When the cushions are detached, the modern, abstract pattern covers can be slipped off and sent to the cleaners. There's also a set of matching end pieces for the two pieces and surprisingly modest. The stack table, made by the same manufacturer, is of harmonizing style.

Television enthusiasts will be especially interested in this stunning four-piece sectional sofa because of its large seating capacity. Sections are easily moved and permit a wide variety of room arrangement. Cushions covered in a lead design fabric are a smart contrast to the bold color textured fabric used for the outside back and base.
