

SHAW DOWNS ST. AUG. 20-0 IN CITY CLASSIC

SATCHEL MAY FACE OPERATION

CLEVELAND ACE SENT HOME DUE TO OLD AILMENT

BY VERNON JARRETT for AP
Satchel Paige — one of the most fabulous mowed performers of our time — is ill. A serious stomach condition caused the Cleveland Indian front office to give him permission to discontinue baseball activities before the season officially ended.

JACKSON GOES FOR SHAW — James L. Jackson, Shaw quarterback, is seen starting on a ten yard trek as the Bears met the St. Augustine Falcons Saturday night in the big intra-city classic. Shaw won 20-0. Jackson ended the would-be St. Augustine's center, Twilite (26) —

tra Bellamy (25) Shaw halfback, and Bill Purcell (25) Shaw fullback. Jackson and Bellamy are from Alexandria and Cape Stone Gap, Va.; Purcell, Cap May, N. J.; and Quiret, Baton Rouge, La.

LITTLE BLUES IN 36-0 WIN OVER DUNBAR SCHOOL

Washington High School's Little Blues made it a late night for Lexington's Dunbar High Friday night as they rolled over the rivals for a 36-0 score. The contest, a non-conference tilt, marked the second win of the season for the Falcons, team which this far has rolled up a total of 52 points in their two opening games against none for their position. The Blues started Friday night's scoring by marching down the field for 39 yards from the Lexington 45 to the six to set up a touchdown by Lewis. The second touchdown was scored from the two yard line by a late play. The crowd was brought to its feet a few minutes later when the Falcons lined the leather from the 34 yard line for a touchdown. In their first two points the Blues were rolled up 33 yards to the end of the quarter. During the next period it was the Falcons' turn to lead. There came a late interception by a Dunbar High School pass and the Falcons were in the end zone. The Falcons from the half back in the box of a double pass. Paige did not make the trip to Chicago last week and is believed to be "taking a rest" in Kansas City, where he established residence several years ago. One member of the Cleveland ball pen said he thought the Satchel was still "bothered with gall stones" and may have to undergo an operation before he will be ready to play in organized ball again.

At the end of Paige's first season by major league ball, he was reportedly advised to have his "stones" removed. However, during the first half of the 1949 season, the ailment appeared to be in good form, and all as a relief hurler, he saved several games for Bob Feller and Bob Lemon. Probably his outstanding performance was against the Chicago White Sox in Cleveland, when he went 11 innings to take the night cap of a twin bill.

The actual age of the former Kansas City Monarchs virtuoso may never be known to the public, but it can be said with considerable accuracy that he has shown brilliantly against younger men. His career runs average ranked him number four among the Cleveland roster of 10 men.

TSU TIGERS PLAN FOUR HOME TILTS

More experience, more power, and better passing will make the Texas State University Tigers something to worry about in the upcoming Southwest Conference football race. Head Coach Alexander (Duke) Durley, has a team in his eye when he talks about his "red line" which he says will be a "good" as they come. He has a flock of little fellows with big passing arms and he has the big backs to get opposing forward walls. Experienced reserves are scarce, but if the Tigers get away without crippling injuries, they will be hard to handle. They will be tough for anybody and you might look for some surprises, football critics warn. The TSU coaching staff is shaping up the ferocious Tigers for the season's first game against Southern University on September 24. The local gridlers will journey to Scotlandville, Louisiana to battle a stubborn team that won the 1948 Negro National Championship. All of the Tigers home games will be played at Buffalo Stadium. The schedule of home games: Sept. 20 — Tilton College (1-1); Sept. 27 — Bishop College (1-1); Oct. 28 — Prairie View A. and M. College (1-1); Nov. 5 — Grambling College (1-1); Dec. 10 — Wiley College (Homecoming).

BEARS POWER TOO MUCH FOR SAINTS

The Shaw Bears, displaying too much power for their crosstown rivals, rode to a 20-0 score over the St. Augustine Falcons Saturday night before a big crowd in Chavis Park. The Wilcox-coached eleven in the second period and twice in the third. Not until the waning moments of the fourth quarter did the Falcons slip into Shaw territory and then only to the 15. The bruising Shaw forward wall broke through consistently to smother St. Aug. plays before they could get started. The Bears held the Falcons to two first downs while picking up 15 themselves, and throughout the game drove the Augustine's back for a net loss of 65 yards rushing. The Saints managed 44 yards through 150 passes. Roland Miles to John Middleton, and Miles to Albert Clark. The Bears made their first tally with only three minutes left in the first half after they had taken over on their own at two passes. James Jackson to Twilite Bellamy, and Jackson to Donald Ford, who later-

On the following day with a representative of the state attorney listening in, Frazier denied that any threats had been made on his life. When questioned about the previous day's statement, he answered "I was just excited, that's all. I was excited." Alvin Napton, assistant state attorney, declined after the meeting that his office would probe gambling in the boxing game. In giving the okay to the bout the commission ruled that 50 percent of Bratton's purse would be withheld until the question of his managers would be settled. Bratton gained the opportunity to fight Beau Jack when Kid Gavilan was injured in a street brawl in New York. In an unusual step he refused to name any persons involved in the threat incident.

Lincoln Lions Top Albright College 14-12

Lincoln University — The Lions of Lincoln University outscored the Lions of Albright College last night in a 14-12 packed game that was decided in the closing minutes with a score of 14-12. The intercollegiate tilt was played before an audience of 7,000 people in the Albright College stadium at Reading, Pa. Both teams appeared to be evenly matched, and fought hard up to the final whistle, which found James Cooke running on his own ten yard line after intercepting a last minute desperate drive intended for Albright halfback Krause across the Lincoln goal.

BRATTON AND BEAU JACK O.K.

CHICAGO (AP) — Following two days of stormy hearings during which Johnny Bratton's manager, Howard Frazier, declared that gamblers had threatened his life and his fighter's life, they cleared the statement, the Illinois State Athletic Commission approved Johnny Bratton as the Sept. 30 opponent of Beau Jack at the Chicago stadium. The commission was called to determine whether the International Boxing Club could stage the bout on Bratton's signature without the signatures of his managers, Howard Frazier and Donny Spill. Bratton was replacing Kid Gavilan on the card, the first of a series of Chicago promotions by the IBC. With this simple question to be answered, the following event developed. Manager Frazier faced an Oct. 3 hearing on whether he will retain his license or not. The IBC and rival promoters Irvy Schoenwald and Jack Bergu-

Albright opened the scoring early in the second quarter when Lincoln opened the door to the goal post by punting on her own 35 yard line. Successive backs by Zutnow and Savare took the ball to the two yard marker and a first down. Hanley plunged for the touchdown. Morgan missed the try for extra points. Albright held a 6-0 advantage at half time, and the second half opened with Albright being so hot on a 15 yard holding penalty and being forced to punt to the 32, and after a first down on two line backs by Joe Harris, Howard Thomas took over the ball to put on a thrilling 75 yard dash on a clever off tackle play for the first Lincoln score. Harry Tunnell's placement scored perfectly through the uprights. Albright again drew ahead early in the fourth quarter when Lincolnbushed a vigorous passing attack spearheaded by dynamite John Krause, who caught two successive passes for 2 yards to Lincoln's 47, and for 20 yards to the 15 yard marker. From here, Joe backs by Zutnow and Krause gave Albright a first down on the Lincoln 3, and on the next play Krause scored when he caught a pass still down on the profitable side of Lincoln's goal line. Morgan again missed the try for extra point. The thrill play of the game followed immediately when Hestand Pulley brought the crowd to its feet on a brilliant 76 yard dash in the middle of the field, and added by a key block thrown by fleet-footed Howard Thomas, was over the goal line standing up. Tunnell again made the conversion for the final score of the game. Outstanding performances were turned in for Albright by their stellar halfback, John Krause, who sparked his team throughout the game; Bill Krohto, who tore through Lincoln's line for 40 yards in five successive tries; and Al Hanley, who heaved the passes which kept the Lincoln readers on edge throughout the game. The Albright line was especially firm, forcing Lincoln to take 4 the air and to try slipping around the ends. Stars of the game from the Lincoln viewpoint were Reginald Pulley, who ran the 75 yard kickoff return for yardage; Howard Thomas, who slipped off tackle for the first Lincoln touchdown, and of course brilliant blocking by the rear for Lincoln's offensive; Jolly Joe Harris, whose rumbustious of punt returns command attention; and Robert Smith's long distance punting. Lincoln's line however was definitely on the ragged side.
