EDUCATIONAL BIAS

New York (ANP) — The latest pamphlet issued by the Public Affairs Group has a non-profit educational organization, its title, "Education and Race: Barrier to College."

The pamphlet gives a complete view of the question of segregation in institutions of higher learning. It is based on several studies on the subject.

Many of the statistics contained in the study showing the extent of discriminatory practices and their results in this country are both startling and challenging.

It is pointed out that 85 percent of the estimated 75,000 Negroes in colleges were attending segregated colleges. The two reasons given for this were that Negroes cannot often afford the fees of the private Northern schools, and many students feel that they will have a fuller college life in a Negro institution.

The study further indicates the lack of "equality" in most segregated schools, and the unfortunate results of this inequality.

Methods by which the community can abolish discrimination are shown in concluding the survey.

Public Affairs pamphlets may be obtained by writing the Committee at 22 East 38th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

D. C. Negro Pupils Get Functional School

Washington (ANP) — Washington's Negro children, snatching from a post-war school shortage, now have one of the new type functional schools which is the type to be built in the city now.

The 18 room school is one of the first schools with new type planning worked out by the school superintendent and the director of public construction for the commissioners.

Among the innovations introduced in the school is the lack of wall space which casts shadows. It's bad for the children's eyes. The classrooms have windows from floor to ceiling and wall to wall. There are 24 shades in each room to regulate light according to time of day and position of the sun.

Rooms are made lighter and brighter by the use of pastel paint for the walls, with soft gray doors and trimmings.

The heating system combines heat and ventilation, bringing air in from exterior vents, eliminating the need to open the windows in the winter.

Construction director Huxton said that the building is absolutely fire proof.

DETROIT ROBESON MASS MEETING HELD WITHOUT INCIDENT

Detroit (ANP) — Paul Robeson spoke here before thousands of cheering people last Sunday, and there were no "Peekskill" incidents. There had been threats and rumors of threats. Whispers that a mob of "hoodlums" would invade the meeting and "give to that guy Robeson what he should have gotten in Peekskill" were heard in various parts of the city.

All types of pressure had been brought upon "Senny" Wilson, the owner and operator of the Forest Club where the meeting had been scheduled to get him to void his contract with the Detroit Committee to Welcome Paul Robeson.

It has been established that this pressure came from several ministers a few business people heads of social welfare agencies and interracial commissions. It has been charged that threats to take away from Wilson certain licenses which would cripple his business had been made.

It had been stated that the police department anticipating trouble planned to mass riot squads in the neighborhood of the meeting, prepared to keep order at any cost. A committee, however visited the police department and had been assured that every precaution was being taken and that any person—on either side of the fence—who started trouble, would be summarily dealt with but that no massing of squads was contemplated.

YOUNG SOPRANO WINS NAACP BRYAN AWARD

NEW YORK—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced this week that Pauline E. Phelps, young Mezzo soprano of Chicago and now a student at the Juilliard School of Music, is the recipient of the $1000 Nelson W. Bryan Memorial Scholarship for two years' continued study at Juilliard.

The scholarship was established by officers and men of the 547th Engineer Aviation Battalion as a memorial to Nelson W. Bryan, one of their members and a former musician, who was killed in a motor accident in France.

The money was given to the NAACP with the stipulation that it be used as a scholarship for some "demonstrating musically talented Negro boy or girl to pursue that talent at a higher level of education."

Miss Phelps, characterized as "one of our most gifted singers" by Dean Mark Schubart of the Juilliard School, was soloist with the Roosevelt College symphony orchestra, has received scholarships from Roosevelt College and the National Association of Gospel Choruses, and is the recipient of awards from the Julius Rosenwald Fund, the Juilliard School of Music, and the Sigma Gamma Rho sorority.

MALLARD HOME BURNED BY KLAN

LYON, Ga. (ANP) — According to information received here last week, the home of Mrs. Amy James Mallard, widow of the lynch mob victim, Robert Mallard, was burned to the ground by Ku Klux Klansmen last July 4 and farmers in the Altamaha river section have just decided to tell it.

Widow Mallard, who now live in New York where her daughter, Ieris Lynn, is a student at New York university, learned that her house had been destroyed by fire three months ago.

Mrs. Mallard's husband was murdered near his farm house last November and, following a trial in which she was accused of shooting him, the widow left this little town never to return.

Friends of the Mallards notified the widow's lawyer, Mrs. Cera Walker Bailey, because she had asked that chemical supplies belonging to a Boston concern be shipped North.

SOUTHERN FAIR HEAD REFUTES BIAS CHARGES

CHARLOTTE — Charges of discrimination against Negro school children at the Southern States Fair were denied this week by the Exposition President, Dr. J. S. Dorton, in a letter to Kelly Alexander, president of the North Carolina State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Mr. Alexander had protested the fact that "Negro school children were not extended the courtesies that were advertised for all school children of Charlotte and Mecklenburg county," and had asked that Negro children be allowed "to enjoy the opportunities in a democratic society."

Admitting that the "greatest problem" at the fair "exists in the fact that we do not have adequate dual toilet and sanitary facilities," Dr. Dorton informed Mr. Alexander that while "obviously we cannot share (these) without friction and dissatisfaction" all other facilities at the fair are available to Negroes. Garinger, superintendent of city schools, said he had been previously informed by the fair's public relations agent that "they were not prepared to take care of Negroes."

OUR JETHROE PROPHECY PERFECT

SAMMY JETHROE & Co. to the Boston Braves for a reported $200,000 (with added starter to boot) lives in with what we wrote in this space last August. We said then of the $300,000 price-tag Branch Rickey had placed on the last baseball stealster Ty Cobb.

"It's unfair to the speedy ex-Negro National League ace for Mr. Rickey to keep his price-tag at the $300,000 mark. A drop of say $100,000 (or more) will give Jethroe the big chance he deserves even if Jethroe is not in favor of bringing the Montreal star up to keep company with Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Donal Newcombe."

So at last it has happened as we predicted it might and for Sam Jethroe's sake, we are happy indeed. The signing of Jackie Robinson, Roy Robinson three seasons ago, ushered in a "Baseball Renaissance" for scores of talented Negro diamond stars. Now with Sam Jethroe bringing a pair of two-hundred grand we wonder what ex-baseball commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis would say in his "sourpuss" manner were he alive and in his customary "drives 'em out" way.

Had it taken place 12 days when Negro stars like Joe Williams and John Henry (Pop) Lloyd were in their glory, Jethroe might have snatched off $50,000 of the sales price for his own vault box. But today your guess is as good as "Red" Barber's as to whether Jethroe got a dime from the crafty and allegedly money-loving Mr. Rickey.

The Brooklyn franchise stockholders are the babies. Branch Rickey works for them and the best thing Mr. Jethroe can get out of this is a fat salary agreement, secured a long probability by the succulent and persuasive voice of the best "boss" trader in the diamond circles who of course is again Branch Rickey.

The men, Major Madison and Howard Jenkins, were fined $250. Jenkins accused Madison of trying to tell him how to vote.
