GROUPS INVITED TO STAGE EXHIBITS

Washington (AP)—Negro organizations throughout the country were invited last week to erect exhibits of their work at the 14th Annual Convention of the National Council of Negro Women, Inc., Nov. 6-13.

Mary McLeod Bethune, founder-president of the N.C.N.W., extended the invitation in her announcement of the convention which will be held at the Departmental Auditorium of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Mr. Bethune explained that exhibiting may be erected in the lobby or corridors of the auditorium on the morning of Nov. 10. If desired, she added, the exhibiting organization may assign someone to explain the display.

3,000 ATTEND JAZZ CONCERT AT HALL

NEW YORK, (AP)—The grand affair of Carnegie Hall as well as the many pictures on the walls of the world's greatest concert hall made it one of the year's highlights. More than 3,000 people attended the concert...

The concert, which featured a jazz band at nine o'clock with Mr. Roy Hargrove, Duke Ellington and his band playing popular jazz with some variations of Semaphoric, "Dance of the Hours" and his other leading numbers, temporarily replaced the two strains of his latest, "You're My Love of Pittsburgh, Pa."

Mr. Levin, who has been with the band for the past four weeks, said "Dance of the Hours" and "Where are You?"

Following jazz and his vocal numbers by Harry Belafonte were featured and he was accompanied by Al Hall on the piano. The well-known bass player who has been with white bass players as well as Negro, drums and bass.

Two other featured groups with the same accompaniment were Dave Lambert, a bebop singer and Jackie Paris, who recently won the title of "Queen of the Bebop."
