MAPLE TEMPLE

"Ye are the light of the world, a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid." Matt. 5:14.

Holy Communion of our Lord's Supper was celebrated Sunday at Maple Temple Congregational Christian Church, corner E. Martin and Camden Streets with the Rev. M. F. Booker our pastor and deacons in charge.

The choir sang very beautiful songs for the occasion. The Lord really met us. We had a glorious time. The Rev. Mr. Booker preached a splendid sermon using as his subject "A Lamp for Our Light." Matt. 5:14.

We all enjoyed the Sunday School lesson which was very interesting.

At 7:30 p. m. the evening service began with a testimonial service. Our pastor's sermon was found in Isa. 58:11 "And the Lord shall guide you continually. And satisfy your soul in drought and make fat thy bones, and thou shalt be like a watered garden and like a spring of water whose waters fail not."

All visitors for the day were welcomed by the pastor. We were happy to have visitors from Stafford, Wilmington and also White Plains, N. Y.

The Woman's Club met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. F. Booker. Members were met at the door by Mrs. Booker and received in the living room by the Rev. M. F. Booker. After business we all enjoyed punch and cookies served by Mrs. Booker. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Josephine Bennett on South Street.

Everybody is invited to attend our mid-week prayer service every Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Library Completes 14 Years Of Service

The Richard B. Harrison Public Library completed 14 years of service to the Negroes of Raleigh and Wake County, November 12th.

The library has made rapid growth during the period. Books have increased from 900 to 10,000. Borrowers have increased from 150 to 14,000; the circulation has increased from 2,300 to 66,305, and the city, county and state appropriations raised from $2,250 to $22,000.

At the beginning, there was one librarian; today, there is a staff of eight. Three of these are trained librarians and two have college degrees.

Last year a new bookmobile was purchased to serve the people in the rural areas. The bookmobile travels through the county 4 days each week, loaning books to 60 stations and schools.

For the past 9 years the Harrison Library has been giving library service to the patients at "Sam" Agnew Hospital. Once a week the regular librarian visits a book truck to the bedsides of the patients and supplies them with books and magazines. At Christmas time, the librarian plays carols selected from the library's collection.

The branch library at Chavis Heights is open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, from 1:00 to 9:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Story hours are held regularly and the library sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association.

The children and teen agers are given the benefit of the facilities of the Harrison Library each summer at Chavis Vacation Camp. Last summer 1,500 persons were registered with 150 children taking part in story hour, arts and crafts and book clubs for the different age groups sponsored by the Children's Department.

Special emphasis is being given to the adult program this year with book reviews, second Sunday exhibits, hobby shows and a Book Fair, being planned to interest adults in the use of the library.

Perhaps the most outstanding event in the history of the library during its existence was the purchase of a library building by the Negro people themselves. Before this time the library was housed in rented quarters.
