A Surry County farmer, James Cock, fed more hay last winter to one cow and one mule than he has fed this winter to eight cows and two mules. The reason: Last spring he seeded a five-acre permanent pasture of Ladino clover and orchard grass which has given excellent grazing.

REV. UNDERWOOD HONORED BY MOUNT ZION

BY WILLIAM T. GRIMES
ROCKY MOUNT — The Mount Zion Baptist Church honored the Rev. R. W. Underwood on his ninth anniversary as pastor of the church with an enjoyable program Sunday evening at 7:30.

The Rev. E. Lucas acted as master of ceremonies. Remarks of appreciation were given from various departments of the church and community by the following:

From the church deacon A. A.
Smith, the Sunday School by Mrs.
Sarah Yeons, trustee board by Deacon R. C. Gay, the BTU by Mr.
Madison Wilson, Missionary Department by Mrs. A. B. Byrd, Usher Board by Mrs. Bessie Macklin, ministers and Deacon wives by Mrs.
Annie Wells, pastor's aid by Mrs.
Nellie Hill, city wide religious and civil organizations by William T.
Grimes, speaking for Mrs. L. Y.
Brown who could not participate because of illness.

Music was furnished by the Junior and senior choirs under the direction of Miss Lillian Wells, the gospel choir under the direction of Mr. B. F. Byers, quartet composed of Messrs R. L. Levister his son, Alves, R. R. May, William McIntyre and Allot Michell.

Mrs. Blanch Bostic gave a beautiful reading appropriate for the occasion and Miss Mary McIntyre interpreted Largo by Haudel on the pipe organ.

It was observed that some of the outstanding accomplishments under the administration of Rev. Underwood were, first he helped to unify the church, renovated the parsonage, painted the church interior, paid off a long standing mortgage and burned it, finished the Sunday School annex, purchased the lots next to the church and put in a pipe organ.

The committee responsible for the anniversary was composed of the following persons, Deacon A. A.
Smith, chairman; Mrs. C. B. Sessoms, Deacon, James Davis, Mrs.
Nellie Hill, Deacon R. C. Gay, Deacon Joel Wells and Mrs. Lizzie Cogdell.

Through this effort $100.00 was raised and presented to the Rev.
Underwood in appreciation for his fine leadership. In return the pastor thanked the church for its support and attributed the success of his administration to their efforts birthday cake as a token of appreciation, he presented to the church his picture to be hung on the wall of the Sunday School Annex.

The Annie W. Holland parent teachers' association celebrated founder's day on March 12 honoring the founder, Mrs. C. B. Sessoms who was presented a beautiful birthday cake as a token of appreciation. Speakers on this program were Mrs. Carrie Horne who spoke on the life of Mrs. Annie W. Holland, Mrs. Lucille L. Debnam gave the history of the local PTA. Solo by Mr. Q. Miller after which Prof.
O. R. Pope introduced as principle speaker Miss Minnie R. Lawrence, supervisor of Elementary Schools of N. C. Music was furnished by Ebenezer Baptist Choir, Mrs. Ar-cenea Yancy Hines is President of the PTA.

Mrs. Mamie Smith of the Rocky Mount vicinity died in the Park View Hospital Saturday, March 18.
Mrs. Smith was a faithful member, devout christian, and a missionary in her church. She is survived by one son, Johnnie Mack Smith, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Johnnie Smith, seven grand children, 3 sisters, 3 brothers and a host of friends. Interment took place in the Unity Cemetery where the remains was put away in the most elaborate steel casket and marble vault.

PERSONALS

St. Paul Baptist Church sponsored a program and debate Sunday night, "Resolved that boys are better church workers than girls".
Judges for the program were: Prof.

UNIONS HELP PUERTO RICANS

NEW YORK (ANP) — Despite their normal differences and rivalry, the CIO and A. E. of L. unions have combined under the leadership of Mayor O'Dwyer in an effort to help alleviate the economic and social conditions surrounding 50-000 or more Puerto Ricans living in New York, most of them living in lower Harlem has increased steadily over the past six years.
The overcrowding and poverty in their native land led them to emigrate to New York. Shunning the tasks as farm workers in seasonal crops which most of the migrant West Indians have gone into the Puerto Ricans have concentrated principally in the cities. Unlike West Indians, they are American citizens and once here could not be deported or returned home so long as they lived upright lives.

The committee of six labor leaders from CIO and six from the A.
E. of L. will meet next week in an effort to develop methods whereby the islanders may get better housing, develop English and Spanish classes and learn something about the protection of labor laws.
Puerto Ricans have superseded Negros and whites too as representing the largest influx in the labor market of New York according to Manuel Cabranes, director of the Puerto Rican employment and migration service.

SEX OFFENDERS

NEW YORK (ANP) — On Wednesday, the New York Assembly unanimously passed Gov. Thomas E.
Dewey's recommended bill providing for undeterminate sentences up to life for sex criminals. It was one of the last bills passed by the legislators, before their 1950 closing.

The bill provides for expansion research programs dealing with sex offenders and the transfer of psychiatric services from the Department of Correction to the Department of Mental Hygiene.

BOOK IS AID FOR CHURCH SCHOOL

Harvey, George W., "Sunday School Publishing Board's Commentary on the International

Bible Lessons for Christian Teaching," 113 pp., and "24th Annual Flashlights," 219 pp., Sunday School Publishing Board, National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Every Sunday School teacher in Baptist churches, particularly those of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. should have a copy of the 1950 Sunday School lessons printed in one book, "Sunday School Publishing Board's Commentary," and a copy of the pocket sized "Flashlights," which includes brief summaries of these lessons.

Both volumes are edited by George W. Harvey with the aid of Marshall A. Talley and Mrs. C. M.
Davis being utilized for the lessons.

The lessons include complete lessons for every Sunday of the year of 1950. Here, the Sunday School worker can see how each lesson fits in with other lessons of the year. He can also see how these lessons fit in with themes of quarters of the past six years and the planned theme for quarters of the next six years.

Good church members who wish to become up-to-date with Baptist doctrine can read this book and get some benefit.

Each lesson is designed to first bring out a Bible scripture, then the Baptist interpretation of this scripture, and finally how to utilize the lesson in every day life.

Notes on how the lessons should be taught to primary, intermediate, junior and senior students also are included. Final sections include Oriental sidelights by Talley and blackboard review by Mrs. Davis.

In the Oriental section is given some background on the writer of the scripture and the latter gives visual aid suggestions for the lesson.

A merory selection and a song are suggested too.

"Flashlights" is a vest pocket analysis of the various lessons included in the big book. It serves as a neat little review of the complete book. It can be used as a daily reminder to the church member on how he may live his Christian life.
