

typical Raleigh scene that took for the hotly-contested U. place last Saturday as voters denatorial election. The photoflocked to the polls in piling up was made at Precinct No. 10 in

(not pictured, and Mrs. Mitchell were in charge A record vote was east in th

Ton Of Rock Crushes NC Construction Worker

NORTH CAROLINA'S LEADING WEEKLY

VOLUME XXIX

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA WEEK ENDING JUNE 8, 1950

leading advisors to study to plausibili of demanding a Second Primary

In Saturday's voting, Dr Frank P. Graham received a majority of the votes cast as effort was made by the state's voters to return him to the Senate seat he has occupied since being appointed Interim Senator upon the death of Senator J. Melville Broughton.

The Graham vote, however, did not reach a majority, with the vote cast for former Senator Robert Reynolds being the balance

REYNOLDS KEY MAN

The former Senator, whose home is in Asheville, now is key man in the boiling N. C. political pot. The state's voters are anxiously waiting to see if he will give in dication that his supporters join the Graham camp or make an al liance with the Smith forces.

Political observers opined at CAROLINIAN press-time that the Graham faction is most liable to get the ned from the Reynolds camp. It has been popularly rumored throughout the South that the aging polltician is desirous of a diplomatic appointment.

FOR SERVICE: C. F. Graves. of the Shaw University graduating class of 1801, now an educator in Efizabzeth City, N. C., was recipient of a Distinguished Ser-

Raines, New York, president of the General Alumni Association. and Dr. Nelson H. Harris, director of education at the University, took part in the presencressive finals exercises at St Augustine's Coilege into the starts ing point of differences of opinions between the school's executive branch' and the student body faction was quickly averted during the exercises held in Taylor Tue school's Board of Trustees. Following the exercises in which Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees, requests were made by James H. Hall and Robert E. DuBose, seniors, to be heard on a matter involving the day when two students protesting lack of their degrees were per holding up of their degrees by The students, however, were not allowed to tell the capacity audience on hand the implications of their plights, and the recessional got underway. THE REASONS DuBose, of Birmingham, Ala, and Hall, of Miami Fla., noted that their diplomas had been held up an executive order because of

MEMORIALIZED - The late

DIGNITARIES OF SHAW - Spaulding, president of the N. Among the nationally known | C. Mutual Life Insurance Co., dignitaries taking part in the and chairman of the Shaw Board | University of North Carolina, and Shaw U. 85th annual com- of Trustees executive committee; Dr Ceorge Relsey, noted church-78 students were to have received mencement exercises this week W. D. Carmichael Jr. comptrol were, left to right; Dr. C. C. ler, the University of North Ca-

of War and president-elect of the man, and commencement speak-

nesday from usually reliable som ces that a new effort will be mad save the Daniels brothers from the Norta Carolina lethal chan

The Daniels residents of Greenville, N. C. are now on Death Row at the State Prison scheduled to die June 9. They were found guilty of the murder of a white taxi driver in the eastern Carolina town, The CAROLINIAN was advise (Continued on page 8, this section

Man Dies When Ton Of Rock , Squashes Him At Haw River

REV. BATTLE IS AGAIN HEAD OF STATE'S ELKS

voting here last week, the K. P. Battle of Rocky Mount was reelected state president of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World.

tion by Atty. L. Charlotte, and E. left thigh. M. Butler, insurmington, Rev. Mr.

turned to the post that he has held for the past three years. All other state officers were re-elected. Judge Hobson R. Reynolds 8000 REGISTERED brought official greetings to the session from J. Finley Wilson, Exalted Ruler.

ANNUAL CONTEST

struction job at the Granite Finishing Millshere Tuesday morning as every possible bit of air rushed from every part of the huge tract to attempt to pender sevice to a 40-year-old Stegro laborer who was Dead of injuries precived when a huge rock, weighing approximately a ton, fell on him while he was working on the project here is Willie A. Miles, 40. of near Pleasant tle, a noted fra- C. M. Guest Construction Com- thering in the Fall to make bux get Robert S. Jervay, whom the tle, a noted fra-pany, was engaged in excavaling proposals for the 1951 General As-ternal and civic the huge boulder when its sudden-the huge boulder when its suddenworker, was op- ly broke from its moorings and First Negro institution to be visposed in the elec- crashed down upon him

When the stone was removance company ed, Mr. Miles was rushed to executive of Wil- mAlamaince General Hospital at Burlington where he died some 20 minutes after arrival, SPARTANBURG, S. C. -Taking advantage oftheir recently envoked full right to suffrage, more than 8,000 Negro residents The annual state oratorical con- of Spartanturg have registered (Continued on page 8, this section) | for the forthcoming elections.

BUDGET GROUP fatally injured when mindated by INSTITUTIONS a top of rock.

the State of North Carolina will be visited during the months of July and August when the State Advisory Budget Commission Mr. Miles, an employee of the makes it biennial tour before gaited is the N. C. College in Dur- Negro project, was at one time a The stone struck the man on his ham, where the commission will ... Harris of head and then lodged itself on his stop Wednesday, July 19 before inspecting the University of North Short and Bears Lumbers Com-Carolina the same day.

Other stops include: Thursday, July 20: Training School

State Teachers College. Monday, July 24 State Train- tions and headed war bond ing School for Negro Girls, Kin- drives. The project will be call-Wednesday, July 26. Elizabeth ity State Teachers College. Monday, August 14: A. and T.

Tuesday, August 5: Winston-Sa-

Wilmington Housing Authority has selected to be memorialized by the new 250 unit low-rent school teacher, postmaster, hookkeeper and manager at the pany's commissary, moster printer and newspaper publisher. The Merrison son of a Methodist presiding elder and S. C. legislator, Mr. Jer-Friday, July 21: Fayetteville vay came to Wilmington in 1911. He worked for better race relaand Goldsboro State Hospital | ed Robert S. Jervay Place. Surviving are Miss E. G. Jervay, teacher in the Wilmington school system; P. R. and T. C. Jervay. publishers of the (Raleigh) CA-ROLINIAN and Wilmington JOURNAL respectively.

In Wilmington Treatment Fraud Case liam Wheeler, popular local phycharges of perpetuating a fraud in (Continued on page 8, this section) which false statements were made to the Veterans Administration, this week paid off fines totaling $100 after a hearing in Federal Court before Judge Don Gilliam. The physician was fined $25 in each of four counts of making false statements on medical examinations. Under contract to make treat ments for the Veterans Adminis tration. Dr. Wheeler was charged with uilling and receiving pay from the administration for treat ments to Charlie Nixon and Rufu The court charged that Dr Wheeler received pay for 75 treatments in Nixon, while he made only 18; and received pay for 48 treatments on Jackson while he Pleading nolo-contendere, Dr. Wheeler, through his attorney, Eggar Yow, said he blamed the mistake on faulty bookkeeping and after investigators checked his records, Dr. Wheeler voluntarily refunded $1,400 -all the money he had received from veterans' examinations, Yow said.

IN-LAW TROUBLE CAUSES DEATH

has been blamed for the death of killed his ofice nurse in what has lover's quarrel here early Monday a 22-year-old man here and the been termed a "lovers fight." arrest of his wife, also 22 Confined to the Lee County jail early this week was Mrs. Ella Lee Cromocter, a local resident, who is charged with the butcher-knife killing of her husband, John.

(Continued on page 8, this section)

Find Love Angle In Nurse's Death

Court Takes $100 In Fines From Medic

WILLIAMSTON, N. C. - An conection with the death of undercurrent of sympathy coupled Miss Odeas a Keys, 25, former with rage is in evidence here as nurse in Dr. Early's offices and this usually sleepy western North Carolina community attempts to Miss Keys, whose family resides recover from the excitement cause in the tural sector of this county, ed here early this week when a was shot and killed in an alterca-SANFORD - "In-law" "trouble popular young physician shot and tion allegedly growing out of a > Released under a $5000 bond Monday night after a hearing before Justice of the Peace R. T. Johnson is Dr. Edward L. Early, 38, who will face a hearing the third week of June on charges of murder in his alleged girl-friend

morning A physician called to Dr. Early's living quarters late Sunday night made futile efforts to stem the flow of blood from a gaping bullet wound in the woman's forehead. She Continued on page 8, this section)

ENUMERATORS BEGI WORK: After concerted effort the pacts of the press and sev eral Wilmington, N. C. civic an fraternal organizations, Negr gensus enumerators have bee placed on the job of counting noses in the Scacoast City Fly enumerators are shown abov just after being sworn in headquarters in the Acme build ing, Wilmington. Left to right they are Mrs. G. V. Peak, Mr French I. Davis, Mrs. Esthe Hall Webber Ernes Spicer, an Miss Dorothy Sutton, Mrs. Ven net Chandler and John W. Ba com also qualified. Mrs. Chand ler decimed appointment @ Bacom could not be reache - Photo by Vanderbilt Studie

STERN WARNING

A clear wasrning the the Oir of Raleigh will not tolerat speeding any reckless driving was given this week when Utal Rand of Garner was fined $100 and cost in City Court for speed-