FALL-OUT' SCHOOL SUIT MAPPED

elores Williams of Raleigh ruled Miss Chavis Pool of 1950" in Raleigh last week during the stagthe second annual North Carolina swimming and diving championships, During the meet. the Greensborn team triumphed with Raleigh placing second -CAROLINIAN PHOTO BY

SHERARD

* IT HAPPENED

Not Yet, Bub

ROANOKE RAPIDS - When E. W. Walls, owner of a store near here asked Lawrence Mc-Phale, 17, where he was going last Friday and McPhale answered, "I'm just leaving," Mr. Walls possibly said "Not yet, Thees seem to be the sentiments expressed because at the tim he askd Mr. Walls was investigating a noise in his store, and found McPhale making his McPhale finally did leave. His destination was the county jall, however, He faces breaking and entering charges.

EDITION

TO A CEROLINGED

Liquor Crackdown Spreads

Wife Held In Slaying Of Husband Changes Tale, Fingers Two Men

EQUALIZATION

Chapel Hillians Seek Equal Staff And All Other Particulars

zens obviously became fed up with ommunity.

It was unanimously voted by 75 persons in attendance at a meeting at the Community Center here Monday that Attorney Herman L. Taylor of Raleigh be retained to handle the litigation in a suit which will seek to compel the lo. cal School Board not only to equalize facilities of schools here attended by colored children, but also to bring the curriculum, teaching staffs and other educational pertinents up to par.

The alleged run around which prompted the Chapel Hill Council on Negro Affairs and other local groups to join in an all-out effort to gain recognition of local Negro educational demands got underway recently when it was revealed that funds appropriated for the con-struction of a new Negro school building were roughly $100,000 less the amount needed to build (Continued on page 8, this section) of some sort at about 11 a.m.

ACTION IN KOREA: Negro troops blast away at the enemy somewhere along the Korea front lines with their 105-mm howitzer. These soldiers have just fired a round of ammunition, evident from the soldier who is holding his ears in left foreground. .

Littleton Youth DURHAMFEELS

tragedy occurred.

the small son of Mr and Mrs party reported that young David John W. Clark, local resident, was had been lost in the are of Heck's drowned in a fish pond near here Fishing Fond where the swimming party was being held, a searching The youth is reported to have party was organized by County been in a party with two or three Coroner Rufus Britton, who figurother boys on Sunday when the ed in the finding of the body, which shortly after the swimming party. In addition to his parents, the got underway, and was definitely young victim is also survived by tound to be victim of a tragedy five sisters.

Mother and Baby City's "Guests" loute 2 family spent last Saturday right as inmates of Institutions someone had "passed out" in the Church yard of the Trinity Methodist Church at about 9 p.m. Saturday night, found Mrs. Grace turday night, found Mrs. Grace Tooms in the walls of two of the five bed that many of them made their anthat many of them made their an

County Home Fire under city-county jurisdiction hers LILLINGTON - No serious dam- on the North Carolina-Virginia coin Hospital, the other, the moth- Harnett County Home here last and upward to 100 gallons of illicit or, aged 30, spent the night in the Thursday evening when a fire of whiskey were taken.

SAID SHE WAS GUILTY PERSON 22-Year-Old Girl Puts

WIFE ONCE HAD

New Light On Case After Stay In Jail

by STAFF REPORTER

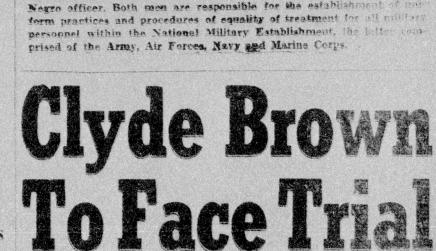

an who was arrested here last week and charged with the axe slaying of her husband, has changed her account of the killing this week and implicated two men, fingering one as the actual killer involved in the slaying to which she had first confessed guilt.

Held in jail pending thorough investigation of an account she gave! of the bloody axe murder of her husband on August 15, Mrs. Essie Roland told officers following a week in jail that she had lied when shetold them that she killed her husband, Johnny, in self defense with an axe as he approached her with a butcher knife.

MAN CONFESSES

According to Sheriff E. P. Davis, Mrs. Roland has later said Joe Wake Winston, a neighbor, was the person who administered the fatal axe blow to her husband. Winston, when confronted with the woman's testimony, admitted that it was he who struck the

Mrs. Roland, who was first fac-ing trial as the principal in the case is being detained as an accessory along with Thomas Marshall Cromwell, the other man who was allegedly on the scene at the Roland home in the Brassfield Township when the murder was com-concerning Clyde Brown, Win-ston-Salem youth charged with dicited funds in his behalf ed nordenied by the official of the Committee who was approached by this reporter. It is his perogatives to remain silent just as it was Betty Jane Clifton's right last week to refuse to speak on the subject of her attack Mrs. Gertrude Clifton mother of the young victim, told the CARO LINIAN last week that Beirg Jane had suffered a lapse of memory and was unable to recall what had happened on June 16 who after as-Legal entanglements have pre vented personal interviews with Clyde Brown to date. Assurance has been given, however, that acion on this particular will be forthcoming in the near future

R. P. Daniel former president of Snaw Chiversity, Raleigh, who will be maugurated Saturday October 14 as the fifth president of Virginia State College, See story in second section.

Shot Customers ROANOKE RAPIDS - A busines man is facing charges here of shooting two persons, obviously his

This report was neither confirm

Herman Pope, 44 preper of a place of business here has been charged with the early morning shooting of Julia Sparks. George Daniels, 25, at the Pope establishment. Neither of the vine tims was seriously injured.

HAS BEEN ROBBED 6 TIMES

woe and defiance was told by the W. A. Eaton, the aged victim DIRHAM - The arrest of sie- aged victim of a victous robber related the following story: DURHAM — The arrest of ele. aged victim of a victous robber ven persons here during the past here this week — a robber who if was on my way back into the injury and age, told the CAROLINof illicit whiskey reveals that the an octogenarian had been robbed, bed me and ran his hand down sixth time he had been robbed. state wide drive to halt the distri. Blood was still on the floor of my threat," the victim stated. bution and sale of corn whiskey the little confectionery store at 6 "He then ran his hand in my is moving into high gear. Chestnut Street when the CARO pocket and took my purse, I had gency treatment. His shirt was lit-WINSTON SALEM - A tale of erally "soaked with blood."

Mr. Eaton further revealed that It's owner, the 80-year old vic- when he made an outcry, the asharlotte's memorable July 4 raid tim of a sadistic robber was then sailant hit him with a bottle and was a stranger to him and was colored and about 30 years of age.

Robbed

weekend on charges of possession brought to six the number of times store when a man ran in and grab. IAN that the occasion marked the When it was suggested that ha rest, the aged man said

"No - no need to rest This is not the first time - this has happened about six times. I guess the Smiling faintly, he said "I never

LEAF BRINGS RECORD PRICES

RALEIGH - With the highest grades or crude nondescript leaf were able to safvage the remnants Eastern Flue-Cured Tobacco Belt, leaf. the hopes of many farmers of the (Continued on page 8, this section) opened this week. The lowest but in some instances, farmers mid-year storms,

One, a baby, aged five weeks, spent the night in the class was done the Negro wing of the local border. In a sweeping highway price in a decade being paid by were bringing $12 with prices as of their crops and make appearance in the class was done the Negro wing of the local border. In a sweeping high as $70 being paid for the finer ance at the markets.

area are soaring, despite the fact | Hundreds of Negro farm owners | week with farmers and families on that many of them made their an- and tenant farmers of the Wake their way to market. The leading

Roads leading into the market-ing area have been sammed this

Jenkins of Route 2 so obviously intoxicated that a night in the local jail seemed the best prescription for her condition.

The wants of two of the five teat through the manufacturing sector of the illicit whiskey business with their the state last month.

When firemen from Lillington arbived on the scene, the fire had been quenched by neighbors and the fire the state last month.

This display of joviality on the well-organized raids on distilleries.

Prices ranging from $56 upward per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

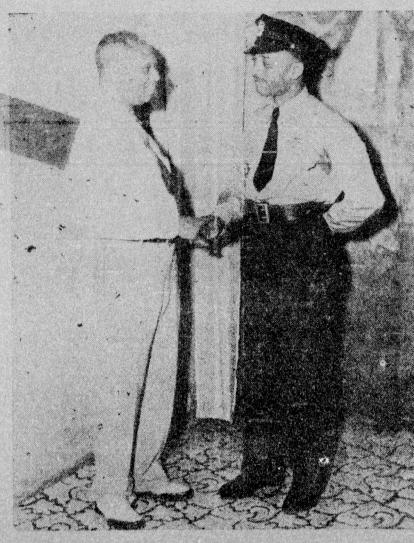

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have been listing the fire the state last month.

The largest illicit whiskey still per hundred weight have

FAYETTEVILLE GETS THIRD POLICEMAN - Edward Taylor, graduate of Fayetteville State Teasiers College and a member of the of the oldest families in Fayettabilie, was sworn in as a regular nucleim policeman on August 1. 160 is the third colored policeman who has been appointed since the swearing in of Dr. W. P. DeVane as Fayetteville's Negro city councilman. Two colored officers were appointed last year. They were Albert A. Banks and Fred Truitt, Also, Dr. De-Vane has hal two Negroes added to the recreation commission in the persons of Mrs. Marybelle Williston and Thurman Smith, Dr. DeVane told the Southside Civic Club that he hopes very soon to have two rural Negro policemen to take care of the suburbs of Fayetteville, fastest growing city of the Upper Cape Fear. Above Dr. DeVane congratulates Officer Taylor.

Drowning Victim GRACKING DOW

was brought to the surface at about

Police investigating reports that someone had "passed out" in the Church yard of the Trinity Meth-is moving into high gear. Chestnut Street when the CARO pocket and took my pur Following sensational crack LINIAN reporter arrived at noon five or six dollars in it." owns which have placed more on Monday. were taken into custody, a wave where he had undergone emer- a wholesale firm as he fled. of raids have swept across the

Eleven Rounded Up As

ABC Officers Step Up

Pace Throughout N. C.

Thousands of gallons of "mountain dew", "hard cuttin corn" and other illicit whiskies have been confiscated during the currently accentuated efforts by ABC and other officers. Only last week, initial steps made in the breaking up of a ring of moon-shine runners operating DISTILLERIES FOUND