FOR WHOM THE BELLS RING—And wedding bells rung as Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Potter leave Walker Memorial Baptist Church in New York City where they were joined in matrimony August 29. The Reverend J. W. Tate officiated at the ceremony.

Hicks-Potter Vows Are Spoken In N. Y. Church

NEW YORK—In an impressive formal ceremony, Miss Elsie Lee Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hicks became the bride of Elmo Potter at Walker Memorial Baptist Church, August 29. The Reverend J. W. Tate officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, nuptial music was presented in a sacred program. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown fashioned of imported organza with a double-peaked collar, three-quarter length sleeves, and a pleated front bodice with tiny pearl buttons. The full skirt had a long sweeping train, and her fingertip veil was of illusion, which fell from a tiara of seed pearls. In her arms was a bouquet of white Calla lilies centered with a white orchid.
