St. Ambrose Church Will Have Woman's Day Program Oct. 29

RALEIGH — The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Ambrose Episcopal Church, seeking every opportunity to bend every effort toward greater cooperation and understanding for the achievement of unity and world fellowship, extends a plea to the public of Raleigh for joint action in the observance of Woman's Day. This is the annual public emphasis on missionary work to quicken the sense of our common brotherhood and fellowship. In response to our need for a deeper, inner spiritual life, the Woman's Day Program purports to bring to people in and out of the congregation, fresh vision and zeal.

The program will be held in St. Ambrose Episcopal Church Sunday, October 29th at 9:00 p. m. The guest speaker, Mrs. Mae D. Holmes is a striking example of self-sacrifice and humble service. Under her leadership, the school for girls at Kingston, N. C. is making great progress and filling a recognized need.

It is in united effort and service that one realizes the fullest meaning of the challenge: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Only through mutual helpfulness can we achieve the "Good Life."

YWCA ACTIVITIES

Y-Teens of Sojourner Truth YWCA celebrated National Roll Week October 24 through 25th. During that week they've been trying to recruit new Y-Teens, interpret the "Y" to other pupils in the schools and show the Y-Teens what belonging to the "Y" means to them. Y-Teen skit, "Y-Teens are Y-Teens" in all of the Crosby-Garfield HF 1-Pd-SB schools — Crosby-Garfield, Oberlin, Lucille Hunter and Washington High. It was amazing how all of the schools participating enacted the skit in such a fine way.

Roll Call Week was inspiring and interesting, giving the Y-Teen Clubs a start. Many new members have been recruited. Clubs have been organized for the year and officers elected. The officers for each club are as follows:

Oberlin School Y-Teen Club — president, Jean Evans; vice president, Yvonne Hunter; secretary, Charlee Hinton; assistant secretary, Joanne Price; Interclub Council representative, Cora Server; ad. adviser, Mrs. B. O. Pettiford.

Lucille Hunter Y-Teen Club — president, Deloris White; vice president, Gloria Ann Hill; secretary, Clementine Johns; assistant treasurer, Lucille Jones; Interclub Council representative, Jean Wilder; ad. adviser, Miss Dorothy S. Lane.

Crosby-Garfield Y-Teen Club — president, Thelma Harlee; vice president and program chairman, Ewendolyn Forbes; secretary, Barbara Lawson; assistant secretary, Marjorie Dublin; Interclub Council representative, Juanita Haywood; service chairman, Gloria Young; and social chairman, Mrs. White.

Washington 8th Grade Y-Teen Club — president, Mamie Willis; vice president, Eloise Snow; secretary, Rosobud Whitaker; assistant secretary, Ruth Pulley.
