FISS U. SENIOR TO ATTEND YOUTH CONFAB IN D. C.

Miss Anna Pearl Silvers, Fisk University senior, has been named by the President's state committee of Missouri to attend the Missouri White House Conference on Children and Youth to be held in Washington the week of December third. It will be the largest working conference ever held dealing with the problems of children.

The Fisk Student's name was submitted to the committee by former junior high school principal Mrs. Winifred Page Brown of the James Milton Turner school in Kirkwood, Missouri, Miss Silvers' home town.

Miss Silvers' trip is to be sponsored by the civic clubs of St. Louis in recognition of her community activities. She will be the only Negro student representative from Missouri.

In high school Miss Silvers was a member of the National Honorary Society, and Vice President of her graduation class. As an honor graduate of Vashon high school she received a scholarship to St. Louis University, which she held for two years before winning a Juliette Derricotte scholarship to Fisk.

This summer Miss Silvers represented Fisk at the Mount Holyoke college, South Hadley, Mass.

SOJOURNER TRUTH YWCA NOTES

RALEIGH—The Women's Activities Committee of Sojourner Truth Branch YWCA had a most successful Harvest Festival and Bazaar Monday evening, October 30th at 7:30 p.m. The Bazaar is an annual affair which everyone looks forward to each year.

Mrs. L. F. Perrie, who is chairman of the Women's Activities Committee, was most pleased with the result. Each committee made a real nice showing. The members of the different committees presented Mrs. Flower and flower arrangement—Mrs. L. Constat, Food and party—Mrs. S. Toven, Candy Center—Mrs. Ann Hardie White, chair and Novelty Center—Mrs. H. Danderson, Canning and Preserving Center—Mrs. Mildred Jantzen.

The special feature of the evening was given to the following people:

To the first male guest, Mr. H. M. Crockett, the first lady guest, Mrs. Margaret Robinson, to the first couple, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neal, to the first person, Mrs. Fred Perrie, to the first person, Mrs. Ada Johnson, to the person choosing ship, reading "Lucky You", Mr. James O'Neal, to the person choosing ship reading "Lucky Me", Miss Rena Mitchell.

Everything was wonderful and we can look forward to next year's Bazaar.

The Y is very fortunate and happy to have Mrs. O. L. Smith in the absence of Mrs. Ruth Walker. Mrs. Sherrill will be acting as part secretary and housekeeper until Mrs. Ruth Walker is able to return. She will be looking forward to seeing all of you at the Y.

We are also wishing the rapid recovery of Mrs. Walker, who has undergone a major operation.

schmidt, where she was one of 24 student assistants to the thousand institute members.

The Branch Y-Teens sent 34 bags of school supplies to Y-Teens in the Y-Teen Refreshing Station. The gifts are for them at Christmas time.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Everyone is invited to the World Fellowship Tea, Sunday, November 12, at 3:30 p.m. when Miss McDowell will be with the foreign division of YWCA with a complete speaker. Miss McDowell has just returned from her tour.

CARD OF THANKS

SHAW STUDENTS HEAR ATTY. F. J. CARNAGE

RALEIGH—Students of Shaw University heard an address at chapel services Friday evening, October 6, by Attorney F. J. Carnage of Raleigh. Attorney Carnage in his address said that human rights and dignity are a part of democracy. Segregation and restraint of one's liberty deprives the Negro of his dignity. This inhuman system of caste, he contended, was a stain on our American way of life.

There has been a struggle going on in our country to make ourselves free citizens. We should not ourselves take leadership in the opposite. We should join forces and work with all civic organizations that we can in order that we might live a more free life.

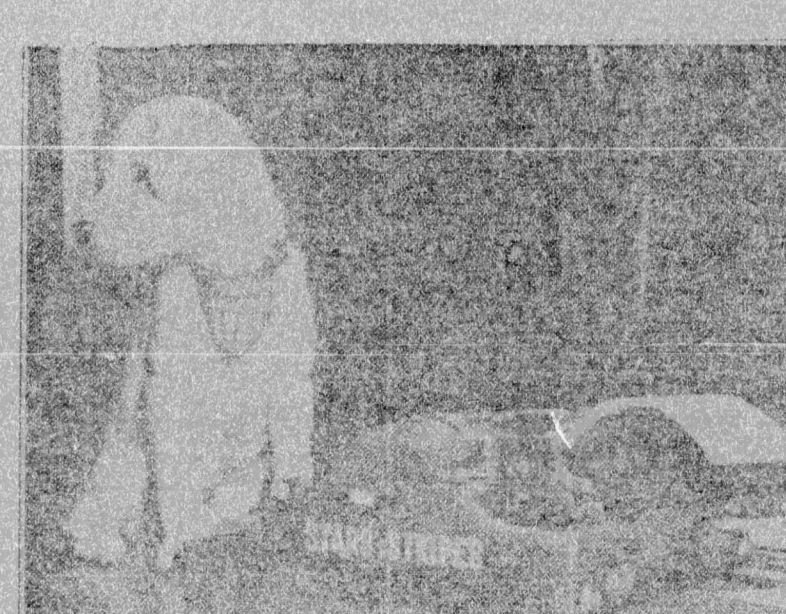

Attorney Carnage is a prominent lawyer in Raleigh and was elected to the City School Board in April 1948. He received his B. S. degree from Shawan College and a L. L. B. from Shaw University.
