

YOUTH SPEAKS

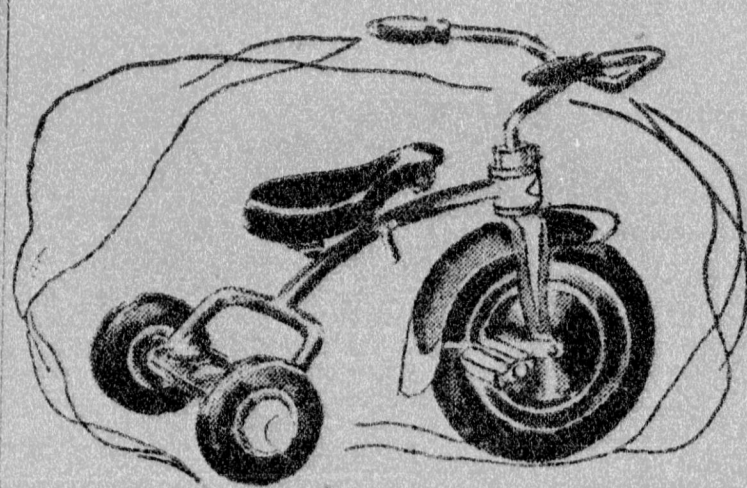

By Bill Veale

Aw Ma, I Don't Wanna Go—

"Yes, I know, I have a ball in my right hand, and a peppermint stick in my left. There's even a hank choaked with pennies in front of me. But Ma, I just don't wanna go in the house." Little Jackie Lane McCoy really isn't in the mood for posing, or going inside despite the efforts of his mother, Mrs. Felix McCoy. But he certainly is holding everything, isn't he? Jackie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix McCoy, Apartment A-11 Washington Terrace.—CAROLINIAN Photo by Bill Veale

Plan Big Program Soon

RALEIGH—The Raleigh Branch of the National Association of College Women is enjoying one of its most successful programs in recent years. Each meeting will be highlighted by a special feature which is of interest to the members and which is in keeping with the local theme "The College Woman's Responsibility to Her Community." Meetings are held once a month on each second Monday night. The special feature of the November meeting was the presentation of Attorney Herman Taylor of Raleigh on the subject "The Rights and Limitations of Women under North Carolina Law." Special features for following months are: December: Presentation and induction of new members and a discussion led by two representatives of the North Carolina Department of Health; January: Founder's Day Celebration with a Box Supper to be held at St. Augustine's College, with new members as special guests; February: The meeting to be held at the Richard B. Harrison Library with a discussion of Current Books and Art; March: International Night with foreign students from local colleges; April: Youth Clinic sponsored by the Youth Activities Committee; May: Weiner roasts with seniors from local colleges as guests and an excursion to the Morehead Planetarium at the University of North Carolina. Officers of the Raleigh Branch are: Mrs. Rosalie B. Williams, president; Mrs. Ann Ferebee, vice president; Mrs. Ethel Clark, recording secretary; Mrs. Emora Kee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mary W. Pitts, treasurer; Miss Priscilla Adams, financial secretary. Present at the November meeting were Mesdames Alma Williams, Elsie H.
