ABOUT TOWN

BY SARAH VIRGO

RALEIGH—Here! What with all the excitement of the past week, here's hoping that you aren't too tired to read a little review of the happenings "about town."
Here goes!
Dr. Reginald Lynch and Ernestine Saunders, of Saint Augustine's College, attended a meeting of modern languages professors and majors at Meredith College Friday, March 9, 1951. The speaker of the evening was Professor Geduz, head of the department of Romance Languages at UNC. Dr.
Lynch and Mrs. Saunders were received and treated quite hospitably. The discussion was general and dealt with the teaching of the foreign languages.

On Sunday, March 11, Dr. H. L.
Trigg, president of St. Augustine's College, gave the dedicatory address of the Barton-Johnson School in Henderson, N. C. Also of the program was Rev. O. B. Burson, a recent graduate of Shaw University. Rev. Burson rendered the invocation. The program was well attended by both citizens of Henderson and Raleigh.

The St. Augustine's Choral Club presented the "Seven Last Words of Christ," Sunday, March 11, in the chapel of St. Augustine's. Soloists were Albert Henry, Nathaniel Moore, Albert Henry, and Theodore Fagan.
The music was very inspirational and moving. Mrs. Ramaire S. Lambert is the director of the club.

On Friday, March 16, the long awaited event came to pass. The Alpha Zeta Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Society presented its fifth annual Jabbawork and Dance. This affair was held in the Memorial Auditorium at eight p.m.
Several clubs were represented with varied and interesting skits.
Those winning the first three prizes were the YWCA Business and Industrial Club, "I Hear America Singing," Omega Psi Chi Fraternity, "The Road," and Alpha Kappa Alpha, "Glimpses of Negro Life in America—Good and Bad." The Queen of the Jabbawork for this year was Miss Valerie Wilson, her attendants were: Miss Jessie Lewis, Miss Priscilla Meehan, Miss Agnes Alston, and Miss Annie Horton.

Phi Lambda Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity held its social and business meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Troien, Saturday, March 10, 1951. Presidents of both the local colleges were present. Upon the close of the business session, refreshments were served.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority held its monthly meeting last week. The members are looking for the regional meeting to be held the middle of April in Washington, D. C. The group also plans to entertain the teen-ages of Wake County on March 31, at the Tuttle Community Center at 2 P.M.

Now aspiring to become full fledged members of the Raleigh chapter of the Gamma Xi chapter of the AKA are five young ladies.
The ladies, Misses Madeline Griffins, Geraldine Rogers, Mary Harris, Jessie Simpson and Marlene Saunders, are now members of the Ivy Leaf Club of St. Augustine's College. Here's wishing them the best of luck in reaching their goals, full fledged Alphas. Good luck!

CHURCH NEWS
The Winsome Bible Class of the First Baptist Church has organized. The chairman is Emma Cheek, co-chairman, Marlene Saunders, secretary, Audrey Jarrigan. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Laura Wimbley, their teacher.

Y Group Meet

RALEIGH—The Committee on Administration met at the Y on Monday night, March 5, at 8 p.m. with Mrs. D. M. Jarrigan presiding. Important business claimed the attention of the members with the membership being the outstanding event of the year. Most of the members of this committee became sustaining or honorary members.

The E. and I. Club met at its usual time to plan for the Bazaar and the skit for the Jabbawork.
On Wednesday night the B. and I. Club sponsored their annual spring bazaar. A group of soldiers from Fort Bragg were to be special guests. The group enjoyed hot dogs and cold cokes. Miss Rhoda Saunders won a lovely cake. Games and dancing were enjoyed by the group.

The B. and I. Club represented the YWCA at the Delta Jabbawork with a skit written by Miss Catherine Young.
This skit won first prize at the affair.
Miss Evelyn Young who is president of the B. and I. Club attended the E. P. and I. Conference at Greensboro. She brought back a very inspiring report of the activities. The group voted at this conference to make this group inter-racial.
Attention to all members and friends of the YWCA! The 1951 Membership Drive is now in full swing and we are reminding all of our members and friends that the "Y" needs you and your help more than ever. Come on don't let us down. Pay your membership dues $1.50 regular and 5.00

Chavis Heights News

BY MAY L. BROADIE

CHAVIS HEIGHTS
E. MAY L. BROADIE
RALEIGH—Miss Margaret Jones of 63 Washington Terrace celebrated her 17th birthday recently.
She received many nice cards and presents.

The Progressive Council of Eiks hold their regular monthly meeting Monday night with the Loyd Di-Ruler, Moira Perrell presiding.
Mrs. Eva Roberson of 614 East Davie Street, who has been ill and confined to her apartment was reported better this week.

Mrs. Blanche Dover of 209 Cuba Street has been ill and confined to her home for several days.
Miss E. M. Cress of 1303 E.
Jones Street, who has been ill for several months was reported better recently.

Miss Mamie S. Hicks of 429 Auntin Street is reported to be improving from her illness. We hope for her a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Hester Perrell of 4 Chavis Way is reported to be doing well.

Mrs. Robinson had an interesting and stirring article, entitled "Live With A Hero" about her hero husband Jackie. Why not read it, you might like it, as I did.

Well, that's about all the happenings "about town" this week.
The Baptist Student Union of Shaw University will be host to the Annual BSU retreat and Planning Convention ETAOI ET ET Conference when it convenes on Shaw's Campus, April 7-9.

Over 300 delegates are expected to attend representing five southern states including Tennessee, S.
Carolina, N. Carolina, Virginia and Georgia.
The purpose of the Conference is to strengthen the work of the BSU on college campuses in the South.

The International Ministerial Alliance of Raleigh sponsored the first annual Shaw Day exercises at First Baptist Church, Sunday.

The address was delivered by Dr. J. Jasper Freeman, an alumnus of Shaw and pastor of the Queen Street Baptist Church of Norfolk.

Other persons appearing were:
Dr. T. P. Duhart, Mrs. A. S. Alston, Mr. E. L. Radford, Rev. J. W.
Jones and Dean William R. Strossner, acting president of Shaw.

A number of the churches in the city of Raleigh made contributions to Shaw and a general public offering was also taken.

P.S.—Don't forget the big event of the coming week, The Annual Convention of the N. C.
Teachers Association, to be held at the Memorial Auditorium.
Speakers include Dr. Benjamin Mays, J. Saunders Rodding and Thurgood Marshall. The public is invited.

CAROLINIAN
SOCIETY

RALEIGH—A new name and face appears this week on the CAROLINIAN staff of feature writers. We hope to make this a weekly column which will appeal especially to the feminine element of CAROLINIAN readers.
As possible and your cooperation is earnestly solicited. If you enjoy your club, celebrate an anniversary, entertain a out-of-town guest, or are connected with any social event, give me a call at 3-2343 or drop a line to 215 East Lenoir Street telling me about it and I shall be happy to include your news in this column.

Highlighting the past week's activities was the Delta Jabbawork held at Memorial Auditorium. A large audience was on hand for this colorful occasion. Ten organizations presented competitive skits.
First prize was won by the Business and Industrial Club of the YWCA, second prize by Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and third by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Miss Valerie Wilson, popular member of the younger set was crowned Queen of the Jabbawork. Delta Sigma Theta took this opportunity to thank patrons of this event for their very loyal support. Proceeds will be used to increase the numbers of scholarships awards given annually to worthy students of Raleigh schools.

Last Saturday night was the time and the lovely home of Mrs.
Thelma Kevk the scene of the last meeting of CLUB 4. This group has and taken the worthy project of donating books to the newly opened Washington Terrace Library. Mrs. E. D. Toole was husslely presiding. Mrs. Kevk.

The Queen of Hearts Club of which Mrs. Mary Pitts is the president, was entertained by Mrs. W. O. Yarbrough at their

ing well.
Perry Crutchfield of 1217 G-21 Street, celebrated his 24th birthday last Saturday. Happy birthday, Perry.

All friends are in deep sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. James Blount of 8 Chavis Way in the death of James Blount's great uncle, Johnnie Blount, whose funeral was held last week at the Lenoir-ville Church in Ashboro.

CIVIL DEFENSE
ADDRESS WS PTA
At the regular meeting of the Washington School PTA, which met in the school auditorium, Thursday night, March 8, the Science Committee presented Mr. George Cherry, director of Civil Defense who discussed the "How, Why and When of Civil Defense."

Officers of the Links Club, Mrs.
Julia Delany, president, Mrs.
Mildred Taylor, vice president, Mrs. Lottie Jordan, recording secretary, Mrs. Ruby Fisher, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Margaret White, treasurer, Mrs. Gertrude Harris, chairman of the Inter-racial Committee, Mrs. Lizzy Constant, chairman of the Civic Service Committee and Mrs. Mildred Taylor, chair of the Social Committee. Other members are: Mrs.
James Arthur Harbin, Ernestine Harbin, Willie Kay, Louise Mc-Clellan, Joseph McCauley, and Dora Otey. The Links look forward to celebrating their third anniversary in the April meeting.

Out-of-towners noted in life city during the past weekend were sales representatives of the Pepsi Cola Company. The public relations program of this company should be well received by Tar Americans because of the opportunities of employment offered to members of our race and the educational program through which substantial scholarship awards are given to students who rank high on computer examinations. Other out-of-towners included Dr. and Mrs. Harper Visk and Miss Loreta Caplan, and friends of Fayetteville.
Mrs. Thomas Hummel and daughter and Mrs. Martin Johnson and daughter of Oxford were here from Oxford.

Final call for this time. See you next week, RBW.
