Society AND THE

Feminine View Point

Evening has turned quite chilly as the sun goes down and sudden change comes again in our cotton frocks as the week began so sunny. The warm made one think of bringing out summer dresses. Nevertheless, Port City residents are quite adaptable to the very changeable weather around our city.

Our city has been the scene of much activity as the Annual Azalea Festival was had during the past week. Which was of little or no interest to the Port City citizenry as we have very little participation in it. It's just not our affair. I did even see the parade myself and heard that Sgt. John R. Russell, husband of Mrs. Margaret Russell, led the U. S. Marine Division. By the way Mrs. Russell, Williston teacher, was on duty from the local chapter of the Delta Sorority to the Region 10 meeting held in Dec. 22 during the week-end and getting back to the parade. I heard by grapevine that the Williston Indian Band in School Band did take part in the parade in the shopping district a few days ago and glanced through the pictures of the various floats and bands looking for the picture of Williston Band but looked in vain. "m-m-m-m-m", such drama.

Nevertheless, there are some grand events to look forward to, the 100th Anniversary of Community House, sponsoring a Friday the 13th Dance, 9:00 p. m. at the Community House Club, this promise to be an evening of fun, look forward to seeing you . . . and on Monday, April 16, 8:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Janie Wheeler on South Seventh Street at Church Street, there will be an Apron Social given by the Young Women's Missionary Group of St. Luke A.M.E. Zion Church, please come out and spend a pleasant evening.

And by the lie of visitors and week end guests, Mrs. Juanita W. Clitrite, Wilson teacher, spent the week end here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lucy Davis, Kinston teacher, was home for the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Davis on South Second Street. She also had as her guests, Mrs. Wooten and son of Kinston.

Had the pleasure of meeting Prof. George of Shaw University a few days ago who was in our city during the week end and Allen McKellar, Winston Wright, David Watson and Harvey Russell, salesmen from New York City. Pfc. Walter Lee Dry, of the Medical Corps, U. S. Air Force, Denver, Colorado, has returned to camp following a visit with his father, Solomon Dry and sisters, Misses Lottie and Irene Dry, and a peach of a trip was had Misses Leonard J. Greene, Jean R. Williams, Williston instructors, and Miss Maye L. Linn, Washington High School faculty member from Raleigh, N. C. These three ladies motored to Miami, Fla., for the week end. On their way down they stopped to spend a brief while with Rev. and Mrs. G. V. Peaks and family in Daytona Beach (no doubt you recall Rev. Peaks is former rector at St. Mark's P. E. Church here). Arriving in Miami these merry travelers stopped at the Mary Elizabeth Hotel where they had the pleasure of seeing Jackie Robinson, famous Brooklyn Dodgers' player, and his family, Roy Campanella, of the Brooklyn Dodgers also, Sugar Ray Robinson, and Miss Anne Gibson, famous women's tennis champion who makes her home with Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Eaton in this city.

While there they were dinner guests of Dr. Kelsey Pharr and just had a grand time dipping in the lovely Florida sunshine and dipping, blue waters. They also saw some homes, Robert Scott, Tom McGee and Frederick Galloway. Nice seeing Mrs. Ruth Jayner out following a period of illness. Pvt. Anthony Brown, U. S. Army spent the week end with his relatives here.

Miss Hazel Juliette Johnson, Peabody teacher, had as her week end guests, Mrs. Evelyn Humphrey, Blougen and Dalton Humphrey, all of Washington, D. C.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT Mrs. Rosa McGuire wishes to announce the marriage of her daughter, Altese to Mr. John Mills, Sunday, April 1, 1951.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIE SALE SUCCESSFUL Our troops sold 1,296 boxes in the current Girl Scout Cookie Sale, final reports are to be made April 5. Plans are now being made to celebrate the Girl Scouts' Birthday. Prizes will be given to the scouts selling the largest number of boxes, and the Eaton Cup will be presented to the troop making the best report. Last year this cup was won by Mrs. Monk's troop in East Wilmington. A prize will also be presented to one of the scouts at the Stanley's Jewelry Store at the Birthday Party which will be given on the evening of April 21, in the Recreation Hall of St. Luke AME Zion Church, Seventh and Church Streets, Plans are now being made for the Day Camp which will begin about the first week in June. Girls desiring to be Scouts may contact Mrs. Janie Wheeler or Mrs. H. B. Shaw, who will direct you to the group leader. Interesting programs will be provided for girls from ages seven through sixteen.

MUSIC STUDENTS TO BE The Life Workers' Council of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society will present the Music Students of Miss Carolyn Williams in their Third Annual Recital. You will miss a treat if you fail to come out and witness this display of children's talent. Mrs. Peatrice Mallate is president of the Council, Mrs. H. B. Shaw, District Chairman.

GROUND CONTROLLERS—Pfc. Walter J. Pollack, of Morgan, N. J., left, watches the enemy as Lt. William A. Williams, of Columbia, S. C., uses a high-frequency radio to inform Far East Air Force fighter planes of Communist positions somewhere on the western front in Korea. They are members of the Tactical Air Control group engaged in detecting enemy targets and directing fighters to them. In a radio-equipped jeep they roam the territory close to the front lines, working closely with United Nations ground forces.
