The Raleigh Branch of the National Association of College Women voted unanimously in their last meeting to invite the 1932 National Convention to meet here. If that invitation is accepted (and it seems that it has good chances of so being) the Capital City will be the scene of at least three conventions next spring; the N.A.C.W., the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorosity, and the Kappa Alpha Psi

The members of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority held their final meeting of the year at the Y. W. C. A. with Sorors McLendon, Anders, Rice, Turner, Moore and Cumbo as hostesses. Chief items on the business agenda were the 1951 Debutante Ball and the 1952 Regional Conference.

Basileus Susie V. Perry gave a summary of the year's work. This reort included a review of all activities, both civic and social. Letters of thanks were releived from parents of the children whom the sorority had given a year's free lunch and some clothing.

Highlighting the meeting was the election of officers The new slate include the following: Basileus, Mrs. Virginia Newell; Anti Basileus, Mrs Martha Wheeler: Grammateus, Miss Janice wail; Epistolues, Miss Thelma Cumbo: Tamiochous, Mrs. Elsie H. Perry; Dean of Pledges. Mrs. Fannie Latham: Reporter, Miss J. Hicks. The meeting closed with a rededication service led by the outgoing president, with music by Mrs. Celia Wortham. The hostesses gave each soror a beautiful figurine. Sorors present were Delancy, Harris, Hicks, Newell. E. Perry, S. V. Perry, Latham, Edmondson, Whitaker, Butler, Cumbo, Anders, Rice, Moore, Turner, McLendon, R. McCauley, M. McCauley, Enton, Wortham, Larkin, Hunt, Wheeler, Batey, and Robeson. At the suggestion of Mrs. J. Delaney, the outgoing president, Mrs. S. V. Perry, received a vote of thanks for her excellent service during the past two years.

The Raleigh Branch of the National Association of College Women met last Monday night and they too have a new slate of officers to direct their destiny for the next two years. New officers are Miss J. E. Hicks. President: Mrs. Catherine Winters, Treasurer; Mrs. Mildred James, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Alberta Levingston, Financial Three Acts by Humperdinck.
