

Rosalie Williams' CAROLINIAN SOCIETY

(Items to this column may be phoned to 3-2404 or mailed to 215 E. Lee St.)

WITH THE COMING OF HOT WEATHER, Raleigh society has left the lovely parlor and reception rooms to find a bit of comfort on lawns. Mrs. Charles Williams was hostess to her Capital City Bridge Club on the lawn of her home at 714 East St. The weather did its best and the club was held up almost until almost the end of a most enjoyable session. Showers forced the party indoors to enjoy a delicious menu consisting of sliced turkey, jellied vegetable salad, potato chips, ice cream and cake.

Cotton dresses were the order of the day in attire. There were several attractive ones, but Mrs. Van Laborde's drew special attention. It was a sleek checked diagonaie suit, creation with chainstitch, studded state of the same material as the dress. The state was lined with a darker solid green. Mrs. Nellie Kate as general hostess and Mrs. Ruby Fisher was scorekeeper.

THE LAWN OF MRS. L. E. McCAULEY at 8 N. Tarboro St. will be the scene of the annual Lawn Party of the YWCA. The Women Activities Committee headed by Mrs. H. C. Perrin is spearheading the affair and it promises to be the best ever. All members and friends are invited to share in the fellowship of this party. The date is Thursday, June 21, from 5:30 to 8 p. m.

Honors will be the retired teachers of Raleigh and nearby vicinity. The theme of the party will be "Golden Memories." Invitations have been sent to the following retired teachers to be guests of honor: Mrs. W. H. Fuller, Miss Minnie Brooks, Mrs. Alice Dunston, Miss Lena Hunter, Mrs. Nannie Fuller, Miss Patte M. Love, Miss Mary Phillips, Mrs. C. J. Wortham, Mrs. Alice Jones, Mrs. Addie Logan, Miss Angèle Tucker, Mrs. M. M. Latham, Miss Mary Burdell, Mr. J. D. Mask, Miss Dora Stroum, and Rev. C. A. Pope. Persons knowing other retired teachers of Raleigh are asked to notify Mrs. H. C. Perrin.

Mrs. George Fisher was hostess to the Raleigh Chapter of the Links last Sunday at a picnic on Dr. Plummer's Farm. Members and guests spent a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eaton have returned from Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md., where Mrs. Eaton attended her class reunion. Their daughter Jeanne, who has been attending Morgan returned to the city with her parents. Miss Eaton will be a senior at her mother's Alma Mater during the ensuing school year.

MISS JULIA PERRIN has accepted civil service employment in the Quartermaster General's Division in Washington, D. C. This will give her preliminary experience before entering American University for advance study as a Junior Chemist. Miss Perrin is a 1951 graduate of Shaw University. She was accompanied to Washington by her mother and sister who have returned to Raleigh after an enjoyable short stay in D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Laws celebrated their first wedding anniversary last Saturday.

WILLIAM DAVID HENDERSON L. SANDERS III, was christened last Sunday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders of 236 Smithfield St. made this quite an occasion. Following the impressive ceremony held at St. Paul Church, guests were treated to enjoyable luncheon on the Sanders beautiful lawn during an ideal Sunday afternoon. There was turkey with all the trimmings on the menu. Included also were braised ham, potatoes au gratin, green peas, stuffed celery punch, ice cream and cake and hors d'oeuvres. Approximately 30 guests enjoyed the delicious luncheon.

An interesting feature of the luncheon was the assembling of four generations for a picture. They were Mrs. C. A. Henderson, great-grandmother, Mrs. South Leach, grandmother, Mrs. Naomi Sanders, mother, and Ruby Sanders. Assisting as general hostesses were Mrs. Coral Tucker and her daughter and Mrs. Daisy Branch and her daughter. The beautiful white cake bore the name of the honoree in blue icing and was set on a huge mirror which made a very lovely picture. The cake was made by Mrs. Bertie Phillips.

GOD PARENTS OF THE CHILD are Mr. Eddie M. Sanders and Mrs. Mossett Charles and Mrs. Bernice Green. The christening attire was a gift from Mrs. Green.

Mr. Neil from Smithfield; Miss Pearl Henderson, Mrs. Edna Moore and Mrs. John Moore; Mrs. John Moore and Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Green Knight from Durham; Mrs. C. A. Henderson and Miss Lena Henderson from Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Mills from Spring Hope; Mrs. Nellie Gordon and daughter from Clayton; F. and Mr. Joseph Michener from New Jack City. Pictures and other details should appear in next week's edition of the CAROLINIAN.

Delmas will hold the first of a series of Summer-Round-Up meetings Saturday of this week. Mrs. John Livingston, president of the local chapter, will be hostess at her home at 20 Bragg Street.
