JIMCROW HOSPITAL MIXED FIRES CLAIM FIVE TOTS

THE CAROLINIAN

10c Per Copy

NORTH CAROLINA'S LEADING WEEKLY

Worth More

VOLUME IX

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 22, 1951

Grid Injury Kills Youth

Pro's Eye A.&.T Star

ALL THE PEOPLE

whites will be treated without discrimination at the proposed new tubercular hospital which the State of North Carolina is planning to build at Chapel Hill, but For Second Season it is because the State had no choice but to bow to integration or lose federal support.

Original plans for the hospital in so-called liberal Chapel Hill which will be operated in connection with the "liberal" University of North Carolina medical school provided that it would treat only white patients, but bids for the $1,100,000 hospital which are now before the United States Public Health Service in Washington for approval, because Federal hospital construction funds will help finance the building. hospitals built with Federal funds, purely and so the State Tuberculosis Hospital Board signed a stipula-tion promising there would be no (Continued on page 8)

'Pro' Scout Has Eyes For Red Jackson

RALEIGH - Both Negroes and Aggie Quarterback Under Surveillance

By LIN HOLLOWAY

RALEIGH - A scout for a professional football team, who asked that his name notbe revealed told this writer Monday that the team he represents is "greatly interested" in A. and T. College's fleet-footed back, William "Red"

The scout, who had a hand in calling professional football's attion to such noted collegiate players as Hampton's Tom Casey, A. and T.'s Stonewall Jackson as well as many others, says that his organization first became in-The State Medical Care Com- terested in Jackson last season, mision hastened to explain here but waited until this year's openthis week that the Public Health ing game to ascertain whether Service forbids discrimination in the huge youth's grid ability was "by the breaks"

FAITH VINDICATED Jackson's acquittal of himself before a huge opening (Continued on page 8)

RED JACKSON . . . . eyed by Pros

FIVE CHILDREN UNDER SIX YEARS OF AGE DIE IN DISTINCT FIRES

RALEIGH-Fire claimed five all below six years of age, lost man Week exercises prior to re-North Carolina children during their lives. In the other, two children, also ported. the past week in two distinct ca-(Continued on back page) tastrophes.

UNTIL NEXT SUMMER.... A beautiful sight like this will be lest to in most sections of the United States. This levely is Mrs. Ruth Bowen, wife of the popular Billy Bowen of the world-famed lak Spots vocal group. Bowen, who was a featured saxophone player before joining the classy vocal group, is rated as one of the few triplethreat men in showbusiness, composer, musician and vocasist,

DEATH CLAIMS

scheduled to bear a huge portion team, died at Kate Bitting Rey nolds Memorial Hospital late Tuesday afternoon after being rushed to the hospital for treatment of an injury sustained in practice on the school's practice

Death was caused by a broken neck. The injury re-portedly was sustained as the members of the team held contact drills in the vicinity of a goal post. Funeral services for the youth were incomplete at CAROLINIAN presstime. The youth is survived by his mother, Mrs. Wilma Davis, employee of a local tobacco firm.

College Into '51 Sessions

RALEIGH - Approxixmateely 150 freshmen and new students arirved on the St. Augustine's College campus Monday to par-In one tragedy, three children, ticipate in the traditional Freshgistration, school officials have re-

Activities which engage the attention of the new students include placement testing, discussions led by personnel deans, weiner roasts, campus tours, free movies, and an address by the president, following the opening chapel service. A reception for new students was held in Taylor Hall Thursday evening at the close of registration. A series of faculty meetings began Friday morning with an ad-dress by President Harold (Continued on page 8)

Agents Set Meet Dates

RALEIGH - Thursday and Friday November 1 and 2, are the dates set for the Negro Farm and Raleigh Retail Furniture Associa-Home Agents annual meeting as a result of a meeting of the exe-cutive committee held here Friday at the Bloodworth Street YMCA over which M. W. Coleman, State President, presided.

The state-wide meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church in Raleigh. The pro-gram will include lectures, demonstrations, tours, busi-ness sessions, and election of officers.

Other Executive Committee members present at the meeting were Mrs. Rose Winchester, Greensboro: A. M. Tuck, Roxboro; Mrs. Rebecca Hall, Wilmington; Mrs. C. S. Wilson, Graham; Mrs. Annie B. Branch, Warrenton; Mrs. Mildred Payton, Pittsboro; Dorothy Tillman, Clinton; L. R. Ford, Roxboro; J. C. Hubbard, Durham; R. E. Jones, Greensboro; and W. C. Davenport, Raleigh.

Episcopal District Set

Mrs. Alice G. Mickens, of West Palm Beach, Fla., (right) whose appointment as National De-fense Bond Chairman of the National Association of Colored Women has just been announced, is preparing an intensive campaign among the 50,000 members of that organization. The Defense Bond Drive will cond Episcopal District of the A, M. E. Church will open at Kit-trell College Monday evening, September 24. with Dr. G. D. Carnes of Wilmington presiding, and will continue throughout the week, the Rev R. W. Wisner. president of the college said Mon-

by American GIs in World II

Others who will appear on the Monday program include the Rt. Rev. L. H. Hemingway, Bishop of the Second Episcopal District of the A. M. E. Church, will deliver the principal address; the Rev. R. H. Green, the Rev. S. M. Rid-dick, President Wisner, and the Rev. Edward S. Guiles, dean of the Kittrell College School of Theology.

Bishop Hemingway will preside at the Tuesday sessions when educational reports will be made by district presiding elders, while the Tuesday evening session will be presided over by the Rev. D. Williams. The evening sermon will be delivered by the Rev. S. D. Suber, and remarks will be made Bishop Hemingway.

There will also be worship (Continued on page 8)

Raleigh Merchants Prepare Yearly Home Fashion Week

leigh and environs are making

Pictured at left is Miss Dorothy I. Height, noted civic and social worker, who recently was appointed a member among a group of 48 outstanding wom-en of the newly created Defense

Advisory Committee on Women in the Services. This committee was named by Gen. George C.

patrons find the door of member stores spread wide in "open a record $2500 in merchandise.

This year's observance, which is to be held next week, has been officially an-nonnced in the following manner by Robert F. Long. furniture buyer for Raleigh's Ivey Taylor Company, and secretary of the Raleigh Re-tail Furniture Association.

Mr. Long says: "Here it is Fall again, a season of the year when we all get Home (Continued on page 8)

"Home Fashions Week" observance of member-stores of the Raleigh Retail Furniture Assertion During this annual occasions. OCT. 18 WILL BENEFIT RESEARCH

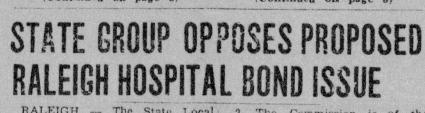

RALEIGH - The third annual house" fashion; are recipients of JJunior Tarheel Classic football will recall that the annual beneoutstanding savings in furniture game will be held at Chavis Park fit event not only aids the Shrincos s; and participate in many gift Field here on Friday night, Oc- ers' worthy causes, but also feaoffers, which this year will total tober 19 at 8 p.m., it was annount ures a stellar brand of football ced here this week. The annual gridiron extravaganza which will pit the Raicigh Junior Football League champlens against the crack Norfolk, Virginia City League championship team, is being sponsored by the local Kabala Temple No. 177 for the benefit of Shrine Cancer and Tuberculosis research and hospitalization.

In addition to the game, other conscious after a Summer out of events are planned, it was leardoors. Come September and we ned. Among these events are a begin to look forward to the new projected parade and half-time played by youth many of whom have become outstanding high school and collegiate gridiron stars. The 1950 Junior Tarheel Classic ended in a 13 to 13 stale. mate when the Raleigh championship eleven and the Dorie Miller Community Center team from Newporf News, Va, battled for interstate supremacy.

Member Shriners of the Kabala Temple have already launched an ambitious promotion of the event. Patrons desiring pree-game tickets are asked to contact the Shriners in their communities.

Government Commission Monday opinion that the $2,000,000 which disapproved the controversial pro- would be secured through sale of sposed $2,800,000 bond issue for ex- bonds for use at St Agnes and pansion of facilities at St. Agnes Rex Hospitals would be adeequate and Rex Hospitals and for build- ties is clearly obvious. ing rural health centers in Wake Disapproval of the bond issue which would provide for public support of privately-owned hospitals and enable Rex Hospital to continue to refuse Negro patients, leaves both St. Agnes and Rex without necessary funds to carry on their expansion programs, but in some respects is a victory for Negroes and whites Negroes still may not be admitted to Rex, although facilities at St. Agnes are inadequate, but refusal of the Local Government Commission to approve the bond issue may be the beginning of a movement which would culminate in construction of a public mal opening of the sixty-ninth hospital with facilities available session of Livingstone College will for Negroes and whites.

1. The Commission is aware that Freshmen. overcrowded conditions at Rex ties is cleaerly obvious.

3. Application of $2,000,000 of proceeds from sale of Wake County bond as gifts to Rex and Agnes Hospitals would be without legal precedent in local government finance in North Ca-"Since other methods of furnishing the same capital improvements for Rex and St. Ag-(Continued on page 8)

Livingstone Will Launch 69th Year On September 25th

take place Tuesday September 25, The commission's reasons for at 230 p.m. in the large auditordisapproving the bond issue were him. During the present week, is taking up with orientation for the Six new members have been and St Agnes Hospitals are mat- added to the faculty. Considerters of general information, and able repairs and remodelling have the need for the planned facili- been made during the vacation