RALEIGH-Holding the spotlight in the social news the past weekend was the annual AKA sponsored Debutante Ball held at Raleigh Memorial Auditorium where 50 young ladies were presented to society last Friday night. That night will doubtlessly be long remembered by those half a hundred young lovelies not only for the many happy moments they must have had but also for the many anxious and nervous moments during that long walk across the auditorium stage and that steep descent down the white draped steps. Many a proud mother must have held her breath until the apple of her ey had gracefully made her bow and descended what must have seemed an endless number of steps to the waiting arm of her marshall and finally reached the spot designated for her on the floor.

But they all made it and the traditional ivy leaf figure was bride of Richard E. Wimberty, Jr. in their beautiful white gowns at the Wilson Temple Methodist each carrying a lovely bouquet of Church 'ed roses and the faultlessly attired marshalls forming an attenive and handsome background.

The out-of-town queen was Miss Gwendolyn Charles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Charles of Louisburg and Brooklyn, New York. Raleigh debutable queen was Miss Ruth Carter, daughter of Mrs. John Carter of Bloodworth

At the luncheon held earlier in the day at the Bloodworth Street YMCA, more than 200 guests enjoyed a lovely meal consisting of turkey salad, hot rolls ,lettuce and sliced tomatoes, cake, coffee and tea. Mrs. Virginia Newell and Mrs. Thelma H. Anders presented to each debutante a gift on behalf of the sorority. These rifts were necklaces, compacts, or bracelets. The two queens received radios.

in the receiving line were M ton, Phi Beta Sigma; Mr. Frank wedding bells and hearts. Wade, Kappa Alpha Psi; Mrs. Minme Freeman, Journal and Guide Columnist; Mrs. Thelma An-Chairman of the Debutante Ball; Mrs. V. K. Newell, Basileus of the sponsoring chapter; Mrs. Alberta M. Levingston, Delta Sigma Theta; Mrs. Mildred T. James, Zeta Phi Beta; and Mrs. John Carter, Mother of the Raleigh Debutante Queen.

Assisting as hostesses were Mr M. McCauley, Mrs. G. Hunt, Mrs. H. Edmondson, and Mrs. Minetta Caton. A pink and green color scheme was used in decorations WEEK END GUESTS

by Mrs. Bertie Phillips and the color scheme carried out was green and white. The cake was decorated with white wedding bells and was atop a huge mirror. Around the mirror was latticed picket fence with white calla lilies. Mrs. Phillips carried out a rather unique idea in making the cake by including twelve accessories. These items were for Miss Peebles' bridesmaids, relatives and closest friends. They were tied with white satin ribbons and included such things as an old maid's thimble, a bachelor's button, a wedding band, wishbone, etc. On top of the cake was the traditional miniature bride and groom in an arch made of lillies of
