

SEARCH ON FOR MAN WHO SHOT WOM, CHILD

WARRENTON —

Warren County officers are searching for a 20-year-old man in the second shooting in Warren county in the past week.

Robert Jones, who has been charged with shooting Mrs. S. W. Williams and her 15-year-old daughter on Monday night at their home, was the single gunman in the shooting.

The shooting at the Williams home was the second in the Warren area in the past week. Last week Handmade Grains shot off a wife's foot in what officers described as a "friendly" shooting.

Deputy Sheriff L. C. Roper said the shooting at the Williams home was the second in the Warren area in the past week. Last week Handmade Grains shot off a wife's foot in what officers described as a "friendly" shooting.

When Mr. Jones was arrested, he was charged with the shooting of Mrs. Williams and her daughter.

State Welfare Ruling Protested in Lenoir

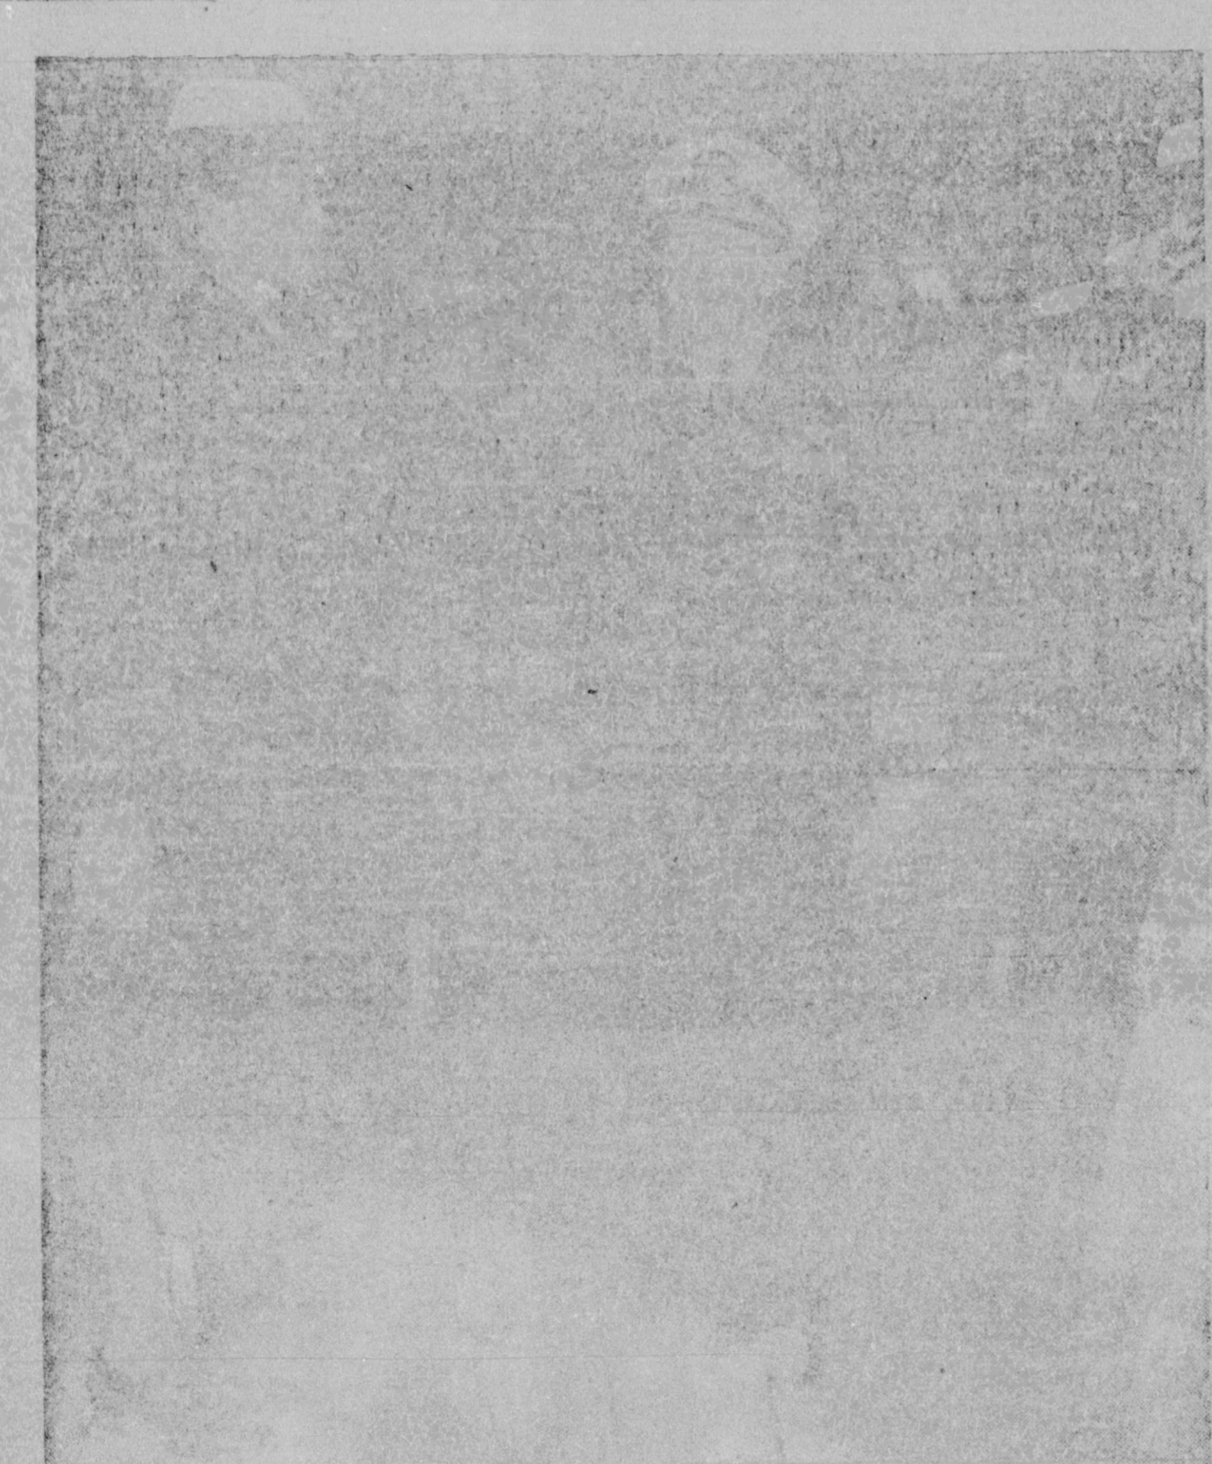

KINSTON —

The Lenoir County Welfare Board Sunday announced a proposed state ruling against a person's right to sue for damages for the loss of a limb or other valuable property by a negligent contractor.

The county board members said the ruling was "unfair and unjust" and they would protest it.

The ruling, which would limit the amount of damages a person could recover for the loss of a limb or other valuable property, was announced by the state welfare department.

The county board members said they would protest the ruling to the state welfare department.
