News In Brief

whiskey here last week.

Mrs. Clark further admitted that she had been selling whiskey here for about a month. Officers found more than two and a half gallons of the fluid under a cot in the front room of Mrs. Clark's residence.

Big Jobs Means Big Bonds

GOLDSBORO — The bigger the job, the bigger the bond.

That's the way it's done in court around this section of the state, it was learned this week by a man who allegedly pulled several "big" jobs in the area.

Ollie Holt, 26, was bound over to superior court on a $17,000 bond last week after hearing before Mayor Scott Berkley on charges of taking a safe from a laundry, making off with $2,000 from a bus company, and taking part in several more "big-time" operations.

PHOTO FORUM

There be an argument when determining choices to be made in the House of Representatives where a coalition of Southern Democrats and Northern Republicans enjoy a majority.

The Committee, it is believed, wishes to make residents of the state aware of the technicity which gives the state's delegates the right to protest the nominee choice of the National Convention.

The announcement of the formation of the Committee, which was in the form of an advertisement, says:

"There is no reason, either in the laws of North Carolina or in the plan of organization of the Democratic Party of North Carolina, which join with Democratic parties of other Southern states in that which is by right of his desire to make a contribution."

Also, through the means of voting, he can make and keep notes for himself and others of his race thus proceeding out to himself that

ANTI-FAIR DEAL FLOGGING CASE

The concern of opinion is that the committee plans to educate the public on the highly-probable incidence of so splitting state delegations to the National Convenconstable, deceased; Dr. J. C. Ford, George Miller, 43, Showood Mill, 26; and Steve Edmunds, 23.

They are charged with taking white money and women into Robeson County, N.C., and returning them on the night of Oct. 6.

Aрест of the 10 men came during a sudden raid by 30 agents of the FBI and state authorities following a series of reported floggings by night riders in Cumberland County in which 5 black persons, white and Negro, felt to death.

The 10 were arrested very early before Commissioner Horace Johnson said the money was taken.

with his share of the money, Johnson said that the two confessed under questioning to the December 1950 robbery of J. S. Hall, W. H. McDaniel, A. M. Hauser and H. E. Carter, all of whom were attacked and robbed.

Charges have not been filed in the four cases nor have bonds been set. Johnson said further investigation would be made before these things were done.

STAYS IN RACE

Please call ... but I am not staying in the race ...

"If the aim is to scare me into withdrawing from the commissioner's race, whatever did it will be disappointed."

Long said he distributed campaign literature around the county Monday for the first time. He is the first Negro to run for a county office in more than 50 years, although Negroes have tried unsuccessfully for Charlotte city offices.

of savings accounts, by posting the pass book and ledger sheet at the same time. The bank is requesting all savings depositors to bring their old books so that their balance can be transferred to a NEW SAVINGS BOOK. The old books will be cancelled and given back to the depositor, along with the new book. In announcing this improved method of handling accounts, J. E. Strickland, Vice President and Manager of the Bank said it would save the depositor time and give them an accurate and complete record of each transaction.

The Mechanics and Farmers Bank has been operating in Raleigh for over 26 years, serving the people of Orange, Wake and Eastern Carolina, and is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which insures each deposit up to $10,000. Miss J. S. Fisher, one of the Bank's regular tellers, has been assigned to operate this new and improved posting machine.

BANK NOTES IMPROVED
