RALEIGH — Lovers of the legitimate theatre in Raleigh were treated to a most enjoyable evening last Thursday when the Barter Theatre of Virginia presented "Pursuit of Happiness." The program was under the auspices of the Shaw University Faculty and a near capacity audience was on hand in the Crosby Garfield Auditorium to witness it. Among those of us present, not many had laughed so much in a long time as we did as while watching each of the characters pursuing happiness. And since the performance, there have been many chuckles as the hilarious antics were reviewed. To all clubs and organizations: let's bring more of the same to Raleigh.

TALENTED RALEIGHITE

Miss Willie Ruth Fuller, daughter of Mrs. Alice Fuller Jones of Fayetteville Street was guest soloist over radio station WOXF in Oxford, N. C. recently. She appeared on talent program sponsored by Mr. Edward Littlejohn. Miss Fuller is a graduate of Payne's Business College and for the past two years has been a successful secretary-receptionist to Dr. E. E. Toney of Oxford.

ABOUT TOWN

BY SARAH VIGRO

RALEIGH — If there here was a "going away" party for one of our members, John Bryant, who attended the press conference in New York. The affair about the weather, that always a little get-together was held at Phyllis Gibson's home on Martin Street (Saturday) when the "old man" finally peeped through. He was real sport to see "him" smiling on the trees and making live rhinestones and diamonds. Yes, it was quite picturesque.

The Southern Regional Conference of the Child Welfare League of America closed their three-day meeting on Saturday morning. The record attendance of 625 (300 in status) including many Negro delegates participated in the general sessions throughout the conference.

Among the distinguished speakers were Governor Scott, Dr. E. E. Winston, Elwood Street, Dr. Gordon Blackwell, Dr. McNeill Potest, and many others who led the discussion of the conference.

Now for a bit of chatter of the doings around Shaw University.

National Vocational Emphasis Week will be observed at Shaw March 17-21, with talks in Greenleaf auditorium at 10 a.m.

The speaker for Monday was John R. Larkins, consultant of the State Board of Public Welfare. The speaker Friday is Robert S. Turner of the Employment Security Commission. The public is most cordially invited to attend all of the speeches.

Owen Phillips, director and actor in the Barter Theater's Production, "The Pursuit of Happiness" appeared here a Thursday evening at the Crosby-Garfield School auditorium, under the auspices of the Shaw University faculty.

The play was both well acted and well received by the audience. Thus an enjoyable evening was spent.

Guess what? Six lucky students of Washington High School returned on Sunday, March 16, 1952 from the Peace Conference held at Columbia University in New York City. They were Misses Julia Bryant, Nurry A. Turner, and Mary J. Falcon; and Messrs. Thomas De Laine, Gaston Pulley and Maxine Johnson. Beside attending the classes of the conference this excited group saw many historical places, Radio City, NBC, Apollo Theater and other such famous spots.

The head President Truman while luncheon at the Astoria Waldorf — Astoria that is real ritzy huh?

Oh yes, accompanying the group was their teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Harris.

Those enjoying the evening were Mesdames Lida Chandler, Lydia Mitchell, Ella Rich, Marcia Curtis, Francis High, Susan Jones, Iola O'Neal, Edelle Woods, Martha Mitchell, Martha O'Neal and Rosa M. Wood.

MISS HAYWOOD ENTERTAINS
Miss Lillian Haywood entertained the Minnette club last Wednesday at her home on W. Lenoir Street. After the business session members gave a surprised birthday party to Mrs. Wilhemina Ivey, who received many lovely and useful gifts.

A delightful menu was served and a beautiful birthday cake, made by Mrs. B. Phillips was widely enjoyed.

Club members present included: Mrs. Birter Phillips, Mrs. Ethel Jones, Mrs. Wilhemina Ivey, Mrs. Lovie Ellis, Mrs. Hattie Day Vance, Mrs. Essie Phillips, Mrs. Grace Sills, Mrs. Carrie Burgess, Mrs. Geraldine Phillips, Cecelia Phillips, Elizabeth Bridgford, guest, Miss Edna Haywood.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Bridgford on Manly St.

Members of club wish Mrs. Zenobia Dunston, who is ill in St. Agnes Hospital, a speedy recovery.

SHE'S ENGAGED — Dr. and Mrs. Charles Furlong of Smith, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise Elaine, to James Robinson, son of Mrs. June Robinson of Altoona, Pa. Miss Furlong is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania from which she will receive the master's degree in social work this June. Mr. Robinson is a graduate of Penn State and is a third year medical student at the University of Pennsylvania. The wedding will take place in late June.

Also in Raleigh on Sunday was the Reverend Mr. Simeon Griffith of Edenton, North Carolina who conducted the morning services at St. Augustine's College. His sermon was most inspiring.

Dr. Marguerite Frierson, and Miss D. Ruby Walker attended a county-wide meeting at the Furka School in Wayne County. The overall theme was "guidance" then came the role of the teacher and that of the principal.
