

Gala Reunion Plans Made By St. Augustine's Alumni

RALEIGH, N. C. — In conjunction with the Commencement exercises of Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., there will be a reunion of the graduates of the Class of 1942. This is the first reunion of the kind to be held at the 20-year-old local institution.

Many of the graduates of the Class of '42 are expected to be present at the exercises.

Prominent among the reunioners will be Mrs. Joannita LaRocca Jones Kluggold, 441 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brooker, Rutherford, N. Y.; Dr. Johnnie Horton, Edenton, N. C.; Mr. Philip Sellers, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Clark, Petersburg, Va.; Miss Olive L. Tait, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Purdie Anders, Raleigh, N. C.

The seventh graders and a portion of the 6th grade of Ashley Elementary School in Fayetteville, made an educational tour last week of Raleigh and local points of interest. Chaperoned by Principal William N. McGee, the group is pictured following an inspection trip thru the CAROLINIAN Newspaper plant. From there, they were taken to the Planetarium in Chapel Hill. Role Of "Store-Front" Churches To Be Aired

NEW YORK — The story of a remarkable and dramatic petition, the storefront churches of East Harlem, will be told on the CBS Radio-TV Foundation Academy series, "The People's Story," Sunday, May 27, with Robert Frank as narrator. (CBS Radio, 10:30-11:30 p.m. EDT.)

The "storefront" churches, located more often in East Harlem than in other areas, are portrayed as one answer devised by the people themselves under the pressure of difficult living conditions, the most pressing of which is the housing problem. A "melting pot" neighborhood, it is decided, with Negro and foreign-born residents, predominating until recent years, East Harlem began to burst at the seams during the war years when there was a sharp rise of immigration from Puerto Rico.

Organized in a denominational pattern, 12 of these churches became not only places of worship but active social service agencies supplementing the efforts of the official public and private agencies whose resources in the area are greatly overtaxed.

To date the churches have made some progress in solving existing housing, rent and health laws, and in reestablishing relations between the various national and ethnic groups.

Among those to be heard are Robert F. Wagner, Borough President of Manhattan; Charles Abrams, housing expert; Marshall Kline, social worker; and three clergymen, the Rev. Don Berardelli, George Ford and William Webber.
