THE BIBLE says that not even a Alexander of Los Angeles, cur- act of kindness is a gesture of transcendant worth. There is a story told about a certain rich man which clearly illustrates how immeasurably great a single deed of love may be.

Warned that his end was not far off, the rich man ordered everything he owned to be sold and the proceeds to be used to buy a large diamond that he could hold in the hollow of his hand and carry with him even in death.

After his instructions had been carried out, the man fell into a deep sleep and dreamed he stood before the cates of Paradise. To his great dismay, he found he had lost the diamond.

He related his loss to an angel at the gate who told him not to worry, that one good deed on earth would be worth far more to him When he heard this, the man grew even more disturbed. He confessed that he had no memory of any kind act done by him while on earth. "Not even one?" The angel prod-
