

QUARTETTE OF SPEEDSTERS—Standing on the top podium to receive their gold medals for their 100-meter relay victory in the Olympic games are four of Chicago's top female runners. The high school and junior college sprinters gave the United States a much-needed victory in the women's sports competitions. Up until that time women of the Iron Curtain countries had virtually run away with the show. Standing by are the second place German team and the third place Great Britain team.

Saxton Wins Decision Versus Akins Before A Very Small Crowd

BY LUX VIRGIL OVERBECK This was the first time as a pro me.

For Saxton, the notion took its toll and never been floated. After the first round, however, it was his best round, although the fight was all Saxton. He was beaten by a decisive margin, and was one of the loudest in his crowd.

A slim crowd of 1,072 paid $1.25 to see the bout at the Chicago Stadium, where seats 20,000 persons.

Akins surprised Saxton in the first round with a hard straight-right that sent the weller tumbling. After the bout, Saxton said he had a tough battle, but Akins' hit to the canvas. Saxton was surprised and hurt, emerged up at the orthodox batter. He said: "This guy is awkward. He takes the compulsory eighth count."

McFadden switched when he thought his manager, Blinky Palermo, Rockey Castellan, Sept. 2 at the Chicago Stadium. He said he wants a welterweight challenger. John Bratton and Billy Graham are bidding.

In his dressing room, Akins was said because he cannot get a shot at the 125 pound title. Of Saxton he said: "He is strong, but not the hardest puncher I faced. I wasn't hurt."

His manager, Lou Wallach, claimed that he should fight lightweights, but welters.

Joe Louis In Winston-Salem, N. C., Training For August 15th Match

WINSTON - SALEM, N. C. Joe Louis — former world heavyweight champion is now training here in the Twin City to meet Friday, Aug. 15th 8:15 p.m. Bowman Gray Stadium fight against Joe McFadden Winston - Salem and New York heavyweight challenger.

Louis is seriously trimming down in weight. He wants to whip McFadden under contract to Ray Arcel, his manager and trainer, New York City, and then try to demand a return match with the present world heavyweight champion, Jersey Joe Walcott of Camden, N. J. Joe is confident he can wrest the crown from Walcott's head because he defeated Jersey Joe in 15 rounds (split verdict awarded Louis, then the champion himself) and in a second match he knocked out Walcott in the 11th round. The first fight was in 1947, the second in 1948, both in the Yankee Stadium, New York.

Joe's lifetime boxing record is 71 bouts, 53 by knockouts, 15 by decisions, three losses—two by KO by Max Schmeling (1936 in the 12th), and Rocky Marciano (1951 in the 8th). A third loss was a 15-round decision opposed Ezzard Charles in 1950 whose claim for world heavyweight champion was disputed and he was rated in only New York State and the National Boxing Association.

—Beating The Gun—

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball stars who have had an opportunity to watch Wimber Moon, 18, Stockton, Calif. pitcher in action, predict a diamond career for him similar to Cleveland's Bob Feller. New Yorkers will get their chance to witness the young star when he appears at the Polo Grounds tonight (game) sponsored by the Hearst Newspeper.

It will mark the seventh annual Hemist diamond spectacle which gives young students and sandlotters the chance to prepare for big league futures.

Dave Thomas writing in the Stockton Times said this of Moon: "This Stockton college freshman will deserve the title of 'Satan Paige Jr.' from what he showed me in his seven inning stint from which San Francisco candidates for the United States All Star squad were selected by Boston's famed Rabbit Maranville. Standing 6-1, a right hander, his hand fairly hums on its way to the plate aided by some 150 pounds of muscle."

"He has a variety of pitches, a zipping delivery and has baseball fans like old Satch possess. A stiff named squatsmith, he impresses me lots at the bat."

PARADE OF QUESTIONS

(Q)—Will Jackie Robinson ever realize that the Hall of Fame will not consider him as a "bench jockey" rather than as an Eddie Collins or Frank Frisch type of lefeytone guardian? Hobby is a pit of mine, al, must he ape many of his ever various mates just because they have an "umpire baiting" complex? Does Robinson bat un-

Claude Berry

(A)—He is not an umpire bait-

GAY—You most certainly do

Rumblings Of Coming Wars Already Are Heard

BY AL WHITE

NEW YORK (AP)—As the football teams start practice this month, it marks the beginning of the seventh year of this rough grind for Marion Motley and Bill Willis two of the remaining ten original members of the famed Cleveland Browns.

This year may be Motley's last competition for that heavy-duty fullback slot he's been in, and the amazing duties have taken their toll on the man who was "Mr. Fullback" during this heyday in the All-American Conference and further, highly respected when that organization was merged with the once National League.

But the years of stellar play have taken their toll. Right now, strong dashing Emerson Cole is number one candidate to supplant Motley, should he fall by the wayside. Backing up the third-year Cole is a dashing 195-pounder, Sherman Boward, who came from the erstwhile Yanks — now the Dallas Texans.

While Howard lacks the sheer weight of Motley or Cole, he makes up for it in football savvy. He's one of the best pass receivers among the league's backs.

Cleveland will go with six outside stars this year, the old reliable Motley and Willis topping the list. Horace Gibson, six-year man and Left Ford, the two extra-super ends; Emerson Cole and Sherman Howard, fullbacks.

Over in New York, the Giants bargain basement star, Emile Tammell, the cost them nothing — he just walked into the Giants office one day and asked for a job — and so completely Babbergasted the man behind the desk, he sent Em to Steve Owen for a trial turn. On again for his fourth year with the Polo Grounders, Tammell is rated the greatest defensive back in the business and is one of the biggest "rubs" in what Stod Steve Owen of Oklahoma calls his "umbrella defense" against the wide-open passing attack now so popular in the pro game. With Tammell among the 56 going out for the Giants will be popular Stone-wall Jackson, a 220-pound fullback who is learning fast what the pro game means. This is Stony's third year as a Giant.

Again this year, the Green Bay Packers come up with two colored stars, one of them the great tackle from Michigan, Tom Johnson. The other is end Bob Mann, also of Michigan.

The Cards offer Ollie Matson, the Bear, a Pacific Coast unknown, Eddie Macon, and the 300-end and Ramon come up with their usual complement of colored stars. Only the Rams on the Coast rival the Cleveland team in the number of Negro players they always carry.

Washington has yet to see the 11.

Most of the teams will take 56 to 63 men into camp. From this number, the league quota of 333 will have to be reduced by another league to demand their services and the former minor football leagues out of operation, semi-pro football on the wane everywhere, a fellow has to be a sort of super-man to win a place on a league team these days. That's why training grinds can be murder.

A FABULOUS WHIT—With the stretch kick which has brought audiences to their feet all over the world, America's 100-meter specialist Mal Whitfield breasts the tape to win his second gold medal in the Olympic games. With a time of 22.7, Whitfield beat out Arthur Wint of Jamaica, B. W. I. (No. 297) and Gunther Ulzheimer of Germany in the thrilling race. Whitfield and the other Olympic aces are in London for the post-Olympic games.

13th Annual North-South Baseball Game Slated For August 10th

GREENSBORO — The 13th Annual North - South Selects All-Stars baseball classic is Sunday, August 10th at 2 p.m. in Memorial Stadium, Greensboro, sponsored by the A. J. Hammonds 20-year-old baseball association.

Nominated for roles in the North All-stars lineup are William Red Jackson of Alexandria, Va., graduate of A. & T. College, pitcher and second baseman; Chas. Brown, Philadelphia, shortstop; Harry Helm, Pittsburgh, third base coach; Elmer Washington, D. C., leftfielder; Fred Chapman, outfielder; Vic Harris, Pittsburgh, Pa., manager of the Homestead Grays; Homestead, Pa., is directing the 1952 North Selects All-Stars. He once piloted the Grays to four straight Negro World Series championships for the late Cumberland team. Poses and Seward H. (See) Posey, deceased brothers, Edward (Eddie) Posey, D. C. pitcher; Edward King, Cleveland, Ohio, pitcher; First Lieutenant Ovide H. Jeffries, Kansas City, Mo., pitcher; Albert John, Puerto Rico, pitcher; Willie Ferguson, Canada, N. J., pitcher; Johnny Jones, Philadelphia, infielder; outfielder.

Vic Harris, Pittsburgh, Pa., manager of the Homestead Grays, Homestead, Pa., is directing the 1952 North Selects All-Stars. He once piloted the Grays to four straight Negro World Series championships for the late Cumberland team. Poses and Seward H. (See) Posey, deceased brothers, Edward (Eddie) Posey, D. C. pitcher; Edward King, Cleveland, Ohio, pitcher; First Lieutenant Ovide H. Jeffries, Kansas City, Mo., pitcher; Albert John, Puerto Rico, pitcher; Willie Ferguson, Canada, N. J., pitcher; Johnny Jones, Philadelphia, infielder; outfielder.

Harris developed Lake Eastern, Cleveland Indians' first base, have Hopkins pitcher - outfielder of the Dallas Eagles of the Texas League who has a pitching record of 14 wins, 6 losses, and as a leftfielder is hitting .345, as well as Wilmer Fields, outfielder of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League.

The nominees for representing the South All-Stars, managed by Spencer (Babe) Davis, present skipper of the Winston-Salem Pond Giants Winston-Salem, N. C., and four-year manager of the Atlanta Black Crackers of the Negro Southern League, with Atlanta, Ga., headquarters, who also piloted the Black Crackers as a representative of Indianaapolis in the Negro National League when the original Club bankrupted; are Lamb Barber Durham, first baseman; Blue Daniels, High Point, shortstop; Rip Manning, Greensboro, second baseman; Willie Gary, Cartersville, Ga., third baseman; Beekley Smith, Richmond, Va., leftfielder.

Raymond (Wheatie) Gats, High Point pitcher and rightfielder; Charlie Morrison, Statesville, centerfield; Roland Eller, Winston - Salem, catcher; Hank Hicks, Danville, Va., shortstop; Elwood (Lefty) Davis, Fort Bragg and New Orleans, La., pitcher; Spud Schoolboy Chandler, Greensboro, pitcher; David (Hogey) Jones, Wilmington, N. C., pitcher; Private Jim Lewey, U. S. Army and Winston - Salem pitcher.

The nominees for representing the South All-Stars, managed by Spencer (Babe) Davis, present skipper of the Winston-Salem Pond Giants Winston-Salem, N. C., and four-year manager of the Atlanta Black Crackers of the Negro Southern League, with Atlanta, Ga., headquarters, who also piloted the Black Crackers as a representative of Indianaapolis in the Negro National League when the original Club bankrupted; are Lamb Barber Durham, first baseman; Blue Daniels, High Point, shortstop; Rip Manning, Greensboro, second baseman; Willie Gary, Cartersville, Ga., third baseman; Beekley Smith, Richmond, Va., leftfielder.

Raymond (Wheatie) Gats, High Point pitcher and rightfielder; Charlie Morrison, Statesville, centerfield; Roland Eller, Winston - Salem, catcher; Hank Hicks, Danville, Va., shortstop; Elwood (Lefty) Davis, Fort Bragg and New Orleans, La., pitcher; Spud Schoolboy Chandler, Greensboro, pitcher; David (Hogey) Jones, Wilmington, N. C., pitcher; Private Jim Lewey, U. S. Army and Winston - Salem pitcher.

Yankee Farmteam Boasts

First Rate Islander Star

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Carroll Zone in response to an invitation by Rudis M. Loveland, president of Pacific Little League, organized a team of white boys, who been denied a waiver by a Negro team.

Last month at the close of the local tournament, Pacific Little League became champions of USA, while Ishamian Little League were the champions of Local-rate or Negro team.

Stotz, in fairness to the champion teams, refused to issue a request invitation to the white team to represent the Carroll Zone in the Little World Series, except the Ishamian Little League or Negro granted a waiver or lost in a play-off tournament with the white team.

Not only is Powers great hitter, he has led the league in batting most of the season and second in runs batted in and slugging — but he also is the most versatile player on the team.

So far this season, Powers has not played in any one position over a stretch of time. He has filled in at third base, first base, shortstop, center field and right field for the Black.

The big question among a number of fans is whether or not he employee of Balboa Heights, stated that he would rather lose his Little League franchise than play the Negro team, and this was responsible for Negro players' parents who had first decided to grant the waiver, renegeing on an earlier promise.

TALLAHASSEE — registration for upperclassmen at Florida A. & M. College will be held Friday and Saturday, September 12-13 for the fall semester.

G. And M. Tailoring
Alterations Of All Kinds —
Suits Made To Measure —
Laundry — Dry Cleaning

EXPERT
Tailoring
A Specialty

SEE G. & M. FOR
THE VERY LATEST
IN AIR CORPS
UNIFORMS

SPORTS CORNER

All in the Game

BOB MATHIAS, 1948 Olympic decathlon champion, recently set a new decathlon record scoring mark with 7825 points in the Olympic trials . . . The decathlon consists of 10 events . . . Bobby Shantz of the A's has a chance to be the first 30-game winning hurler since Dizzy Dean . . . The Yanks had a chance at Bobby, but their scouts passed him up because of his size . . . Glenn Davis won't be able to play with the Los Angeles Rams for at least a year because of a knee injury . . . Sheldon Lejeune in Cincinnati, October 12, 1910, threw a baseball 416 feet, 9½ inches, and later records do not show this throw has been eclipsed . . . In horseshoe pitching an official tournament is best six of 11 games, except national tournaments, which are from 20 to 30 games, as committee may decide . . . The Kentucky Futurity is a harness horse race for two-year-olds at Lexington, Ky., founded in 1883 . . . Julius Caesar favored bull fighting.

BACK HOME . . . This is the first action shot of Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly, U. S. and Wimbledon champion, since she returned from England. Here she was competing in the Eastern States tennis tournament in Eastwood, Pa.

WORLD'S GREATEST ATHLETES — Decathlon champ, Bob Mathias accepts his gold medal at the Olympic games while runner-up, Milton Campbell of Pitsfield, N. J. (left) looks on. The 38-year-old Campbell is the country's leading Negro athlete.

THE FIREMAN'S FAMILY — The most famous "fireman" in Brooklyn nowadays is handsome Joe Black, the Brooklyn Dodgers' top relief pitcher. Already compared to the immortal Hugh Casey and fireballer Don Newcombe, the 6'2", 230 pound Black has pulled many games out of the fire during the stretch drive to the pennant. Joe is shown in his Brooklyn home with his wife, Doris, and their two-month-old baby, Joe, Jr.

MOUNTAIN RIDGE STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

$3.65 . . . $2.30
4/5 QT. PT.
4 Years Old. 86 Proof.

GOODRICH & WORTS, LTD., PEORIA, ILLINOIS

