

STINT ENDS; NEW ONE UNDERWAY

DURHAM — North Carolina College's nine weeks summer term ended here last Friday. A three weeks post session begins August 4 and continues through August 20, according to Dr. Joseph H. Taylor, director of the Summer School.

Intensive class work lasting three hours daily was expected to begin Tuesday in education, history, sociology, library science and other courses according to demand.

HELPS STAND BOND FOR LOTTERY KING

GREENSBORO — A local Negro bondman put up a portion of the money that secured the freedom of North Carolina's most notorious lottery operator here this week.

Waldo Falkner furnished $2500 to cover the bond asked of lottery king George (Crip) Smith in a recent damage suit brought by the father of a boy who Smith allegedly killed in a hit-run accident. Total bond of $42,500 was needed to put the convicted lottery king on the streets in his current scrape with the law. He was freed under $80,000 bond only recently for his gambling affiliations and is now walking the streets here with bonds totaling $102,500 having been put up in his behalf.

BLASPHEMOUS PARTIES — Congressman Adlai M. Clayton Powell, Jr. (D., N.Y.) told a Harlem mass meeting last Sunday that the Negro race had been "sold down the river" by both the Democratic and the Republican Parties when the two major political parties adopted watered-down civil rights plank in their platforms during the recent Chicago Presidential nomination conventions.

Neither Falkner nor the two white bondsmen who put up the most recent bond visited Smith in jail where he stayed here for 19 days.

RALEIGH MATRON BACK FROM TRIP

RALEIGH — Mrs. Ardell Morgan of 712 E. Martin Street recently visited Mrs. Gladys Joyner in New York and her son in Washington, D. C.

She reports as having had a grand trip.

STUDIES AT OAK RIDGE — Dr. Gerald A. Edwards, research associate at the George Washington Carver Foundation at Tuskegee Institute and former member of the North Carolina College faculty, is at Oak Ridge, Tenn., studying the techniques of using radioisotopes in research. 'Aging Woman Takes Own Life
SMITHFIELD — Mrs. Isobel Artis, 50, of Four Oaks, Route 1, committed suicide Sunday morning at 8:30 by blowing the top of her head off with a 12-gauge shotgun. The woman had spent the night with her son, Archie, who lived nearby and Sunday morning she asked him to go to the store for groceries. When he returned his wife told him she had heard a gun fire somewhere nearby. Archie found his mother about 200 yards away from the house where she had committed the act. He told acting coroner V. J. Underwood that his mother apparently propped the gun against a fence and pushed the trigger with a stick. She had been in failing health for about six months, the son said.
