Taylor, Richmond, Virginia, electrified the Convention Wednesday night with a dynamic message from the subject, "The Priority of the Kingdom." Mr. Taylor emphasized the importance of putting first things first, and declared that if this world is to know Christ, Jesus must be given priority.

The opening sermon was delivered by Dr. P. A. Bishop, Rich Square, North Carolina, President North Carolina State Baptist Convention, President Bishop, in speaking from the subject, "His Last Will" appealed to leaders of the Convention to do the will of Christ.

PRESIDENT WILSON RECOMMENDS JESUS
The greatest need today is a vital and dynamic expression of Christian faith on a global basis, Dr. U. G. Wilson, Portsmouth, Va., president of the Convention, told the joint session of the meeting on Wednesday morning. "The whole world is sick," he contended. "The whole world needs the healing touch of Jesus Christ in order to save its face."

DFAX CONDEMNS COMMUNISM
Dean Fleming P. Kittrell, Ph.D., Howard University, Washington, D. C. in addressing the group on Friday morning urged her hearers to stay clear of Communism that seeks to destroy the very principles upon which our country is founded. She said that there are not enough prepared people for missionary work and said that at

PITCHER ENDANGERED

Life Of Brooklyn Mound Ace, Black Is Threatened

BOSTON (ANP)—Star rookie pitcher Joe Black of the Brooklyn Dodgers was threatened here Thursday with a more telling blow if he shows up against the New York Giants in New York, he will be shot.

Black, 26, former Morgan State college basketball and football star, is the major leagues' top relief pitcher with a 14-3 record and a 2.01 earned runs average. He is considered a top candidate for the National League's most valuable player of the year and rookie of the year awards.

Printed by hand and mailed from the Bronx in New York, the letter read as follows:

"I have bet my life savings standing alone on the mound. I will be watching your every move."

Black is credited by manager Chuck Dressen of the Dodgers as the difference between the Dodgers winning and losing the pennant this season. So far this season Black has not started a game.

On the Giants winning the pennant.

"If you come into the game to pitch at the Polo Grounds, Saturday, Sunday, or Monday, it will be the last time you ever will appear on any baseball mound. I live in a project overlooking the Polo Ground and you would be an easy target

Additional medical examinations will go on.

In Saturday's activities, the first event is the French test at 8:30 followed a 10:30 by the examination for all music majors. The French test is in Duke Auditorium. Educational Drive Slated RALEIGH — "American youngsters have the best educational facilities in the world," Pastor Franklin S. Hill of the Seventh Day Adventist Church here told his congregation in announcing a special Missions Extension offering for this Saturday.

Urging members to share their privileges with children of other, less fortunate lands, the minister disclosed that the local church would join other Adventist groups in a drive to establish or enlarge at least five overseas schools.

With a total mission contribution of $3,337.315 recorded for the first half of 1952, North American Adventist churches will devote offerings received Saturday to a special fund for the extension of educational and medical work.

Areas slated to receive financial assistance from the offering for the erection of schools, Pastor Hill stated, are the Philippines, Mexico, Peru, and New Britain in the South Seas. Medical work in Tokyo and Baghdad is also scheduled for improvement.

Convicted Carolina Klan Members Begin Sentences

WHITEVILLE, N. C. (ANP) — Seven former Ku Klux Klansmen entered prison here last week to begin serving terms ranging from 18 months to four years. The men were convicted last July 30 at a special court here on charges of participating in a series of floggings which occurred in this state last year.

Seven others under sentence in night riding incidents had not reported last week. Included in this group were Thomas L. Hamilton, former imperial wizard of the Carolina Klans, and Carl Wooden of Western Prong. Both men were given until the first of next month to report.

One other person sentenced at that time was exempted from serving his term. He is Ralph T. Collier whose term was commuted to a fine of $1,000. Collier was exempted from serving his sentence after it was learned that he had suffered a mental injury during World War II as a result of combat duty aboard a destroyer.

Two other former klansmen who drew prison terms at the July term of Superior court already are serving sentences imposed in April. They are Early Brooks, former law official at Fair Bluff, and Henry Edward, Whiteville.

The seven men who started their sentences last week are:

Lawrence Nivins, Hallsboro, 42-48 months; John Russ, Whiteville, 42-48 months; Brock Norris, Chadbourn, 3-4 years; Norman Sasser, Hallsboro, 42-48 months; Morris Walker, Whiteville, two years; Leon Alford, Whiteville, 18-24 months; and Gilbert Ray, Taylors City, two years.
