

ABOUT TOWN

WITH SARAH VIRGO

RALEIGH — In there Time is gain for a bit more action about town. Not bad but Miss Carrie sang "The Glory of Love." Then came the ever popular "Meditation" played by Miss Williams Edward Ralston. He sang it so very well too. "The Holy City," Miss Virginia Darden sang the new favorite "I Went To Your Wedding." Miss Shirley Adison sang "Once There Lived A Fool." Then there was the singing of "Beside You," the plaintive melody of "Claire De Lune" and "Because of You" and finally an original number entitled, "All Right," a bit on the blues side and in the house in high spirits.

Well fall is really here, and the pugnacious is just beginning to fly through the air and its getting increasingly harder to concentrate on "Psychology" and a phonetic French, especially if your football team has just lost its first game to North Carolina College in Durham, N.C.

FORMAL OPENINGS

On Wednesday, September 26, 1952, Saint Louis University had its formal opening exercises with Dr. William Sorenson, President of the school.

The timely and inspiring address was delivered by Dr. Marguerite S. Fierman, State Teachers College, Fayetteville, N.C.

Also scheduled on the program was the presentation of the Staff and especially the new instructors.

While on Friday morning September 26, 1952, St. Augustine College held its formal opening with the Rt. Rev. Edwin A. Peacock presiding and delivering a very inspiring message to the student body and faculty of the school.

If by any chance you heard some very loud applause mixed with a lot of a giggle now and then, chances are they were coming from St. Aug., where the annual Freshman Talent Night was being held. To say the least it was grand. The M.C.'s for the occasion were Jeremiah "Mr. L." Butts, and Joseph Rooney.

The program included a selection from the Delta Sigma Theta, student from the Belknapettes, and Ah Sweet Mystery, Gail and McLean sang "Heavenly Father." Peggy Doyle did a solo dance which just about stole the show. The Scott girls also sang "Blue Moon." Miss Gladys Davis sang "There are Such Things." Then came a team of very active and nimble acrobats who performed such feats as stunting on their Thursday.
