Carolinian Reporter And Ministers Fuss; Almost Fight

tine they will exhibit in Durham on October 25 when the Maryland State College Hawks'

HOMECOMING - Shown here volina College Eagles in SCC's Oxford; borothy Wilkins, Asheat the start of a prancing rou- Homecoming feature are six of ville; Tamara Baron, Winstonty baton beauties are from left,

IN PREPARATION FOR Pootball team play the North Ca- I, Trov NC, Betty Redding, the famed Tarbeel school's ma- Salem; Bessie Payton, Norfolk, jorettes. Left to right, the pret- Va.; and Geraldine Lyles, Po-

vice-presidential condiadics, parti- the opposition party. cularly, and there by early in son, that was a wouldn't energy of trail, received a versal reasons' World War I lashed out at the from Congressman William Daws E publicans from the times of that son of Illinois, one of the two Ne War through the present presiden-Democratic National Commutee Controls of

As opening presentation on the college's fall forum series during which political aspects are to be aired for the beneth of NC College students and the college community. Congressman Dawson delivered a scorching pro-Democrat speech publican Farty's Presidential and he considered short coming of groes in the US Congress, as the tial campaign. He charged that the man appeared on a forum pres- Presidents Warren G Harding entation at NC College here Thes- Calvin Coolidge, and Herbert Hoover killed the Lengue Nations, removed restraints and controls from our economy, left American military weak, paved the way for unprecedented unemployment and laid the foundations for World War U.

Of Republicans, Dawson said (Continued on page 8)

you haven't REGIS TERED! Be certain vote on November to register in order to 4. Registration book will be open in YOUR precinct Saturday October 11th, 18th and 25th REG-ISTER, then VOTE.

THEIR BEST NOT GOOD ENOUGH - The smiles Hashed sere on the faces of Brooklyn lodger players turned quickly to frowns Tuesday as the NY Yankees, perriniel world champion haseball team, took the se-evath game of the World Series to again annex global honors.

The Brooks sho-s here, all of whom played stellar ball but were unable to withstand the surging Yanks are, left to right, front, Duke Snider, Dodger homer king during the Series; Manager Chuck Dressen; and Jackie Robinson, whose big but was humbled by Yank pitcher offer- | by Yank pitching.

er Joe Black who wona game

his curve ball getting away, and Pee Wee Reese, Dodger shortstop who was also held at bay

AAT 14-Va. Union 3 NC College 21—Hampton 17 JC Smrti 29—St. Paul's 7 Eliz. City 31-Savannah State 0

Morchouse 6-Ala A&M 6 Va. State 45-Bluefield 0 W. Va. State 8-Howard 7 Alien 16-SC State 0

Washington (Kaleigh) 22- Hill cide (Ducham) 7

PRO RESULTS SATURDAY NIGHT RESULTS. Cleveland Browns 21 - Pictsburgh New York Giants 31-Philodelphia

North Carolina's Leading Weekly ...

Chicago Cardinals 21—Chicago
Bears 10
Green Bay Packers 85—Washing ton Redskins 26
San Francisco Forty-Niners 27—
San Francisco Forty-Niners 27—

Killed Girl-friend, Draws Term

WINSON-SALEM - A man who killed his girl friend in the servants' quarters of a home in which she worked was sentenced in Forsyth Superior Court Monday to 25-

Sentenced was Herman H Bostic, alias Boston, 33-yearold Winston-Salem resident. The judge offered the defondant a short lecture on the folly of "going with" and tion's leading educators of both Willey Andiforian on the camother man's wife.

Bostic, a bakery worker, at first denied to last month that he killed Mrs. Rosa Ingram. But dried blood caked on his feet provided officers two World Wars and a Great De- Dimercipal with the evidence they were seeking. Bostic finally pression, then placed responsibility a caker broke down and admitted the killing Bostic pleaded guilty to second degree murder, He did not take the stand-

who said Bostic told them he and the woman got into an argument over the fact that she was pregnant by him an that her husband, serving on a road gang, would kill her when he found out about it.

The story of the killing was related in court by officers.

Bostic told officers that the woman advanced on him with a paring kinfe and that he grabbed a pistol and

Bostic had been convicted numerous times since 1940 on charges of assault on a woman, assault with a deadly weapon and carrying a concealed weapon.

Man Hit With Rock Dies; One Held

HENDERSON - A blow from a rock proved fatal last week end for Herbert Royster Jr., and Allen Vaughan, good hore was almost had by alfo 33, is in jail awaiting a hearing next week as a result. Royster was struck in the back of the head by the rock, and was taken to Jubilee Hospital, where he died in mid-morning Sunday Vaughan admitted hurling the rock. The incident occurred at a roadhouse about two miles north of town on the Townsville road Saturday night

Raleigh Man Found Dead In Bed

RALEIGH - A 53-year-old man. Basil Jenkins, was found dead in bed Monday morning at his residence. 15 hem Bastist Church where Rev. R ing after one minister cointed him W. Worth St. City detectives reported that he died of W Underwood was paster in Nast out to an official of the associa- ation revealed that though Mrs. natural couses.

Detectives investigating a complaint at the address, meter discussion-to put it mildly ing (which was a public meeting): existed between them a situation found Jenkins dead in bed. He was found sprawled half on the bed and half on the floor and there were no signs of marks or bruises on him to indicate he had been hurt. officers reported. The man's sister, Mrs. Mattie Wall found her brother dead when she went to wake him for work early Monday.

Mrs. Wall said her brother often had fits during the the night, which usually awoke her Officers reported Jenkins had epileptic fits "most any

Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, founder and president of Palmleft, and Dr. F. D. Patterson, left, was the inaugural speaker.

president of Tuskegee Institute and Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University foler Memorial Institute, Sedalia, lowing ceremonies in which Miss NC, until last Sunday is pictur. Crosson was inaugurated, pesried here with her successor, Miss deat of the school founded by Dr. Wilhelmina Crosson, second from Brown 56 years ago. Dr. Johnson

Presidency Of Palmer Inst. Changes Hands In Impressive Ceremonies

word to describe the event taking presidents and their represenplace here last Sunday as the natives. built woman who with courage totion was the of inaugural cere-plot founded an institution guid- conies along which it Mordeed its destiny for the years through as John a president of Howar

Such was the occasion when Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, founder of Palmer Memorial Institute here passed the presidency of the institution over to Miss Withelmina Crosson in SEDALIA - 'Impressive' is the of educational leaders, college races paid tribute to a slightly-loop of the nationally-reputed instiof its management in the hands of Cloudes plaises were paid Dr mother woman of distinctive abil- Scales no reteran waman educator in 1902

Carolinian Reporter and Ministers Nearly Come to Blows Concerning Article

when the CAROLINIAN's staff writer, J. D. Harren, paid his au-nual visit to the Neuse River Bap-Association sessions held near; true or there was really no dis-

The story, as told by the report-MINISTERS DISH IT OUT, BUT at last week's Newse River sessions CAN'T TAKE IT or discriminating againt him in not Slowing hon to preach an "edu-)

LOOKED BAD IN PRINT "The writer published the do-ings of the "brethren" along with the financial report as taken from the printed minutes and the report read at the time. When same appeared in print it evidently didn't look cloth" and they began "riding" the writer, Many charged we didn't see the good part of the meeting. Others said it was unagreement at all.

'POUNCED' ON REPORTER

in Scotland Neck at the Shiloh This reporter visited the NAise pasemed Agreein fund an usania River Bastist toften called min-upon by several ministers at the at Raleigh Tuesday, ordered the isters?) Association last year when opening of the afternoon sessions, woman put under a $1000 ; boud it was about to close at the Bethle. He was given a severe tongue-lash. Dending trial on a manslaughter county near Rocky Mount. One tien. It was debated whether he Wooten and her husband lived toveteran minister created some ani- should be ordered from the build- gether in the same house, there

"The ministers taking the leading role in the denounciation were Revs. R. J. Johnson. C. C. Sharpe, R. W. Underwood, McKinley Nixon and W. L. Mason. Rev. Mason advocated 'whipping the man', as he put it, 'until his clothes fall off'. Underwood said colored papers which wrote "so much filth a-(Continued on page 8)

DOWN BUT NOT ENTIRELY OUT

HOSPITAL PLAN

Governing Group Says General Plan Was Not Formally Presented

BY JAMES A. SHEPARD RALEIGH - The decision made this week by the Wake County Commissioners to proceed with sored hospital at St. Agnes, should on the subject contention that of Wakel County should be tax presented to the commissioners and an array of local speaking fuddle the Issue. At no hearing opinion from the local doctors, however, a request for a county general hospital was voiced at one meeting by several physicians

The commissioners asked for and recevied an appraisal of the situation from the Duke Medical Foundation. In a verbal statement, presented the commissioners by one of its hospital experts, the Foundation gave its full support to the general bospital idea and presented basic facts to back up its rea-

It is true, that the supporters of the general hospial plan, have no presented the commissioners a detailed, concrete outline of its (Continued on page 8)

Fuquay Springs Woman Must Stand Trial In "Mix-Up" Kill

FUQUAY SPRINGS - A middleaed local housewife who told poofficers that she shot throug burglar and killed her husband, must face trial in Wake County openior Court at Raleigh on a conslaughter charge, a magistrate as ruled upon finding probable ause for a manslaughter indictnent in the case.

Mrs. Martha Wooten, 17, admilled that she fired a shotgan, blast through the rear door of her local resident Saturday night after someone she mistook for a burglar continued pounding on the door. The blast struck her husband. Geo... In the leg, severing an artery and causing the victim to bleed

Magistrate M. A. Bland, sitting harge. Magistrate Bland's investiwhen he accused the association asked to apologize or be indicted, of estrangement in that the aman had failed to support the woman's needs for several years.

At the time of the fatal shouting it was learned during Tuesday's hearing. Mrs. Wooten was in the process of making preparations to leave Fuquay Springs to take up esidence in New York. The trial is expected to appear on the docket for the next session of the Wake Superior Court.