

"SITTING" CHAMPS: Marking unique Girl Scout service, these girls gave voluntary baby-sitting service to mothers on last week's election day. Nation-wide cooperation by these and other groups was major factor in highest popular vote in presidential history. Girl Scouts plan extension of program in future elections. (Newsphoto Photo.)

"I REMEMBER"
 BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Verna Moore, Coleman, Mich.: I remember when we used to have an evening in October for making a large iron kettle of apple butter, a barrel of sour kraut. There was a midnight chicken supper for all who came to help.

From Mrs. Edward Koch, Ft. Recovery, Ohio: I remember when our 10, 25 and 50 cent pieces were in paper money, and we had copper pennies the size of a half dollar, and a penny of a mixture of metals that had a flying eagle on one side. We had copper two-cent pieces about the size of a quarter and three-cent pieces the size of a dime. We also had very small silver three-cent pieces and silver half dimes.

From Mrs. Harriet Jones, Twin Falls, Idaho: I remember when my mother wore wrappers. We call them housecoats now. And she made Battenberg lace to trim our parlor curtains. We went for Sunday afternoon drives in the surrey with the fringe around it.

From I. H. Riley, Waco, Texas: I remember when there were signs in the Sinton Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, reading, "Do Not Blow Out The Lights." They were natural gas lights.

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmount, W. Va.: I remember when the livery barn could be identified by loafers lifted back in chairs before the entrance.
