METHOD MOURNS EVERY EDWARDS

METHOD — The citizens of Method were shocked over the sudden death of Mr. Avery Edwards last week.

Before making his home in the city he was a resident of this community with his sweet wife, Mrs. Corina Harris Edwards, who was born and reared here.

Mr. Edwards was a deacon of Oak City Baptist church during his stay here and was active in all phases of civic work. Method turned out in large numbers to attend his funeral which was held at the Martin Street Baptist church with Rev. Johnson, the pastor, in charge. Several hundred of relatives and friends attended the funeral from all over this and other states. His body was carried to Nash County for burial.

The Western N. C. Conference will convene at St. Paul's AME Church this week. St. James AME Church here will be represented by the pastor, Rev. R. W. Wisner and Mr. Leonard Roger as delegates.

Mr. Major Lee from Roanoke Rapids, N. C. is visiting in the home of Mr. C. A. Robinson.

Mrs. Doris Dunston Simms of New York City is the house guest of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dunston. She is accompanied by her small daughter, Linda.

Rev. J. A. Williamson, pastor (Methodist Church) of the Sand Hill Circuit has enrolled as a Senior at St. Augustine's College but may successfully finish his work this year. He was a former member of St. James AME Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sorell and Miss Geneva Dunston traveled to Winston-Salem Saturday to visit Miss Geneva Dunston who is studying in Teachers College there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitaker, 17, 807 Main St., Raleigh, is completing his AF basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force." Lackland, situated near San Antonio, is the world's largest air force base, site of Air Force basic training, for men and women, headquarters of the Human Resource Research Center, and home of AF's Officer Candidate School. His basic training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work. The course includes a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular vocation and career.

2 KILLED, 5 HURT IN CAR-BUS WRECK

ELIZABETH CITY — An aged black man and his wife were killed and five Negro school children were injured in a collision between a 936 Ford and an International school bus Tuesday afternoon.

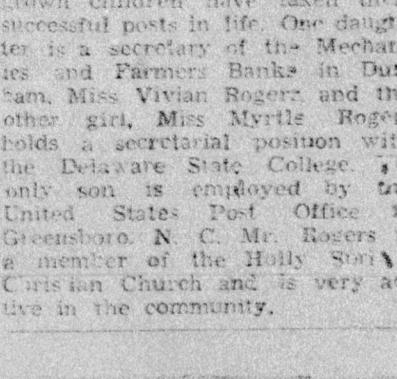

The dead are Edna S. Ewing, 77, and Mrs. Shima Evans, probably 19 years younger, of New Bern, N. C. The bodies were viewed by Dr. John F. Weeks, acting coroner, who said both drivers were in the car.

HOLLY SPRINGS, N. C. — Mr. Little R. Rogers, 36 years old, has operated sugar mills, a blacksmith shop here in Holly Springs, on Belvoir Rd. for the past thirty-one years. Most of his work is general repairing of horseshoeing. According to Mr. Rogers, he shoes more horses now than ever before. Farmers come to him from as far as 65 miles to get their domestic animals shod.

Mr. Rogers points with pride to the fact that all his children were educated through the prowess and drift of his blacksmith acumen and thirty years of successful and happily married life. His three known children have taken their successful posts in life. One daughter is a secretary of the Mechanics and Farmers Banks in Durham, Miss. Vivian Rogers, and the other girl, Miss Myrtle Rogers holds a secretarial position with the Delaware State College.

His only son is employed by the United States Post Office in Greenville, N. C. Mr. Rogers is a member of the Holly Spring Christian Church and is very active in the community.
