POLIO DRIVE VOLUNTEER

Grant Reynolds, New York City, Grand Bastions, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, released the following statement in endorsement of the March of Dimes: "I can think of no greater or more useful investment that Americans can make in the very welfare of the nation than giving liberally to remove the dreaded disease of infantile paralysis. This scourge has demonstrated that it is no respecter of color or creed. It threatens everyone. It must, therefore, be fought by everyone."

Failure of polio virus to vaccinate young polio is held to be largely responsible for a recurrent widespread outbreak of town polio.

GENTLE CARE

Registered Nurse Ruby Taylor is assisted by Polio Emergency Volunteer Mary E. Robinson (right), in caring for five-year-old Brenda Joyce Rush, a convalescing polio patient at Red Cross Hospital, Louisville, Ky. Medical and volunteer personnel joined forces to combat Louisville's 1952 polio epidemic while the Jefferson County Chapter and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis backed them up with funds and services. Join the 1953 March of Dimes, January 2-31, and help to defeat polio.

COLLEGE PREXY DELIVERS NEW YEAR LECTURE

YAFETTEVILLE, N. C.—President James W. Seabrook, President of the Fayetteville State Teachers College, Fayetteville, N. C., spoke before the student group at the opening assembly gathering of the new year on January 5. He challenged the students to live up to their best selves and by thinking their way through the ever-recurring problems they will encounter in the classroom and in the community. The object of education, he affirmed, is to effect desirable changes in the totality of one's personality. It was his hope to think, act, feel, and respond, and, accordingly, you have achieved one of the major goals of a college education.

On Sunday, January 11 at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Dr. Seabrook served as the guest speaker at the dedication exercises of the Popular Street YMCA-YSO Club at Jacksonville, N. C., appearing for the occasion with James M. Gentry, General, Henry D. Lindsay of Camp Lejeune, N. C., Mr. John C. Wale, Director of Publicity, United States Department, New York, N. Y., and Mr. David M. Robinson, Regional YSO Executive, Atlanta, Ga.

DR. SEABROOK

Dr. Seabrook was inducted by Mrs. Yvonne Casady, Crittenden. The program was in charge of Mr. Harold Taylor, who is the Executive Secretary of the Jacksonville Club.

CAMPBELL WILL BE AWARDED B.T.W. CITATION

BOOKER WASHINGTON BIRTHPLACE, VIRGINIA.—The Board of Trustees of the George Washington Career National Monument Foundation of Diamond, Missouri, has announced through its President, S. J. Phillips, that T. M. Campbell, First Negro Field Agent employed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has been nominated to receive the George Washington Career National Achievement Award for 1953. The selection was made during the Third Annual Meeting of the Foundation which was held at Booker Washington Birthplace, Va., on December 15th, and was based on the large contributions made by Mr. Campbell to the rural South through his leadership in agriculture. Beginning his work as an Extension Agent in 1909, upon recommendation of Booker T. Washington, Campbell has made an outstanding record as an educator and leader among farmers in the South.

SET PRECEDENT IN 1932—Singer Marian Anderson set precedents during 1953 by appearing in concert before mixed audiences in such states as Florida, Arkansas and Texas. Miss Anderson's artistry was of such caliber that even the Solid South rescinded its ban on her in order to hear her.

3 Added To Staff Of Air Unit At Greensboro School

GREENSBORO.—Three Greensboro recruits have been added to the Air Reserve Officers' Training Corps detachment staff at A. and T. College. Maj. E. M. Kennedy, detachment commander, announced this week.

They are Lt. Col. John L. LeClair, Jr., Maj. Thurmond L. Moore, and Capt. William M. Bell. The three are attached to the ROTC headquarters at the Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala. for duty with Detachment 805 at the local college.

Major Kennedy and the three would study organization and operations of the A. and T. detachment, and participate in the unit's in-service training program for instructors. It is hoped, he added, that all three may attend the academic instructor's course at the Air University. At present, Captain Bell is the only one scheduled to go.

The three new officers will supplement a present staff of 125 men.

T. M. CAMPBELL

particularly in the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma and Texas where his efforts have been concentrated. In 1930, he earned the coveted Harmon Award for distinguished services in the field of farming and rural life. In 1945, he was a member of a selected group appointed by the government to go to Africa to make a study of agricultural conditions. The work done in this connection laid the groundwork for the acceptance of the Point-4 Program among undeveloped areas throughout the world. Thousands of Negro farmers and farm families throughout the South have been helped to lead better and happier lives because of Mr. Campbell's work in teaching them to apply knowledge to practical everyday living.

THE AMERICAN WAY

The Showdown

PROUD MOMENT

Larry Adams, 11, receives his grade school diploma from Mrs. E. A. Thornton, a special home teacher from Chicago's Board of Education. A polio victim, Larry was helped by the March of Dimes in his fight against the dread disease. A contribution from you to the 1953 March of Dimes will be greatly appreciated. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is conducting this appeal January 2-31.

RELEASED FROM DEAL—Light heavyweight champ Archie Moore was this week released from any obligation to a promise he had made to allow British welterweight fighter Remy Turpin first chance at his crown. The British Boxing Board of Control revealed that it had released Moore from his promise.

MISSES CHANCE AT CHAMP—Eddy Turpin will miss his chance at the light heavyweight crown worn by Archie Moore. The British Boxing Board of Control has released Moore from his agreement to make his first title defense against Turpin.

Method News

By MISS DORA STEWART
METHOD.—The donation that was given by the people of this community for the benefit of Mr. Bob Goodwin's burial was very, very much appreciated, and we wish to thank everyone who gave. Very special credit is due Mrs. Dorothy Shepard and Mrs. Bessie Wilson for their help in raising contributions for the same and most of all we must give Mr. Lawrence Lightner for his wholehearted cooperation and financial aid in taking so much of the expense of the burial of the deceased one.

May God bless all of you, Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith, administrators.

We are always glad to greet Rev. and Mrs. Harry Haywood on the first Sunday when they come to hold the regular monthly service at the Christian Tabernacle Church.

Hearts and Flowers

There is no season for romance, although Dan Cupid is specially honored on St. Valentine's Day. And speaking of valentines, there was a time when a valentine from a gentleman could rightly be considered a proposal of marriage. These days there are no strings to valentines, though romance has not dimmed in popularity. January of June — it's sweetest time.

- Sweethearts
  - 1/2 cup butter or margarine
  - 1/2 cup honey
  - 1/2 cup All-Bran
  - 2 cups sifted flour
  - 1 teaspoon baking soda
  - 1/2 teaspoon cream-tan
  - 1/4 teaspoon cloves
  - 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- Blend butter with honey and beat until creamy. Crush All-Bran slightly. Sift together flour, soda and spices. Add to honey mixture with All-Bran. Mix thoroughly. Chill.
