in business administration and commercial law at Northwestern University.

He joined North Carolina Mutual in 1918, coming to Durham from A. and T. College, Greensboro, where he was employed as a private secretary.

He lived at 1105 Fayetteville St. and was a member of St. Joseph's AME Church.

Surviving are his wife and two sons, M. A. Goins, Jr. and Edward Goins, both of Baltimore.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete at CAROLINIAN press-time.

4 FACE TRIAL

and James Flowers, all of Johnston County.

The men were charged in warrants signed by Kingston Attorney Jesse A. Jones with circulating unsigned handbills. According to the warrants, the handbills contained statements the defendants knew to be "false or in reckless regard of the truth" and calculated "to adversely affect" the campaign of Hucert E. Olive who lost out in the primary to now Gov. William B. Umstead.

Another warrant charges Barnes and James Flowers with conspiracy.

CAR KILLS 3

Frank M. Masten, 62, her husband and a passenger in the vehicle had been placed on the critical list.

The 51-year-old Mrs. Masten died of chest injuries, attendants said. Surgeons had operated several hours earlier after her condition became critical.

Mrs. Masten had been charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of the two teenage boys. The actual warrants had not been served because of her condition of shock. Her bond had been set at $5,000.

During a brief questioning session less than 20 hours before her death Mrs. Masten told officers that she was unable to reconstruct the details of the accident.

The only detail she remembered was that she was driving east on East Fifth Street and was preparing to make a right turn onto Claremont Avenue when a car in front of her suddenly made a turn.

Apparently, officers said, Mrs. Masten pressed down on the accelerator instead of the brake and the car, only three days old, shifted into high gear.

HIT BY 2 CARS

Rutherford County Sheriff Vance Wilkins viewed the body. The sheriff said the jury's probe would be completed this Friday afternoon, with the session to be resumed at 1 p.m. that day.

Carpenter's death was Rutherford's first traffic fatality of 1953.

Forest City Policemen Dean Sheehan and Damon Huskey aided in the investigation.

CRASH HURTS 3

Holly. The other car then rammed a building on the corner, demolishing the vehicle. Mr. and Mrs. Durant were among those hurt.

BEAVER AWARDS

the Durham Divisional Committee.

Other awards made at this meeting were: Ten-Year Service Award to Scoutmaster J. H. Tarts; one Attendance Award to Scoutmaster A. J. Melunas of Sanford for the highest man-miles traveled to attend this dinner meeting.

J. M. Scholer, Area Divisional Chairman presided and was elected chairman, along with Rev. T. H. Brooks of Oxford, Vice Chairman and P. A. Williams of Apex, Commissioner.

Horace W. Fowler, Chairman of Durham District and S. P. Gaskin, Scout Executive of Orange-County Council who presented Scouters Clyde Wheeler, A. C. Pledger and Field Executives H. W. Gillis, D. N. Howard and Roscoe Stevens.

The guest speaker of the evening was Dr. M. A. Williams, Professor of Education and Psychology at Shaw University. Dr. Williams challenged and inspired the Scouters, their wives and guests on doing a bigger and better job in Scouting for the boys of this county.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Charles (Chuck) Lewis, Dayton, Ohio freshman, still led Knoxville College eagles in scoring last week but saw two fellow eagles pull into good position to overtake him.

Lewis, held to five points against Florida A. M., ran his season's point total to 119 in seven games.

Polio Fund Cases Find Renewed Lease On Life

A great many people in the United States are convinced that the polio epidemic of 1952 was not a one-time occurrence. They have committed no crime, they are the first-time victims of the disease. Although only one time a patient in an iron lung faced almost certain permanent confinement, the prospect for persons afflicted during the past two years is considerably brighter, thanks to the March of Dimes fund. Progress in improving a patient's chances of liberation from a breathing apparatus is being made, according to a report by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Volunteers Map Final March of Dimes Effort

The nationwide campaign to who were stricken in 1952 and are now breathing iron lungs, are still need and are now breathing iron lungs. This is in addition to the 30,000 volunteers who began last year. The result of their month-long efforts in raising money for the fund is being reported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. A spot survey of America's respirator residents revealed that of 260 long-term patients being treated by the March of Dimes, 135 are breathing iron lungs. The past two years have seen the use of iron lungs to other less serious breathing devices. An additional 52 have been released from all types of artificial respiration, while all but 14 others enjoy prospects of at least partial liberation.

Half of all money contributed to the March of Dimes is used by county chapters to help pay the cost of treating their local polio patients or, in some cases, polio patients elsewhere. The other 50 per cent finances March of Dimes research, professional education and epidemic and respiratory.

While some of these cases, especially those who require 24-hour nursing service, cost the March of Dimes as much as $50 per day, the average is $10 every 24 hours. A respirator weighs 600 pounds and without extra costs $1000. Increasing the charges at escape the home and time victims is one of the prime targets of the March of Dimes drive, now being conducted here and throughout the country.

METHOD NEWS NOTES

METHOD This month marks nine years of service as pastor of the Oak City Baptist Church for Rev. C. R. Trotter.

Much good has been accomplished for the church under his leadership with the strong support of his officers and members. The church has been remodeled and will be a grand structure when finished.

Services were good Sunday and largely attended. Rev. L. Thompson, the assistant pastor, was present to help in the worship service Sunday.

We regret to say that Miss Susan Wilcox has been confined to her home with influenza for over a week. Everyone misses her presence at all the churches and other organizations and we are praying for her to be out again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. White have been on the sick list but we are happy to say they are up and at work again.

Miss Mary A. Grant is ill with the flu. She is greatly missed from her church and school classes when absent.

Rev. J. A. Williamson has our sympathy in the loss of his paternal grandmother who passed suddenly at her home in Yanceyville, N. C. Saturday, January 24. She was the wife of Presiding El-
