ROCKY MOUNT WHOLESALE PRACTICES FAIR EMPLOYMENT

ROCKY MOUNT—That a local wholesale grocer has seen fit to put into practice his own private Fair Employment Practices by giving employment to colored people beyond the usual "delivery-man" status is deemed noteworthy in this Eastern Carolina city where one-third of the people are colored.

HHES-COLORED SALESLADY
M. S. Tharrington, a wholesaler who is universally known as a man who treats all his customers right, regardless of race, has become the first white merchant to hire a colored clerk and saleslady who drives the panel truck and takes orders from stores over the city.

Two "All-A" Average Students On Honor Roll

CHARLOTTE—Eighty-five persons made the honor roll at Johnson C. Smith University last semester according to an announcement made by Registrar J. Arthur Twitty.
